About the Series
This series is designed for local government officials, plan commissioners, and staff with varying levels of experience. You are welcome to attend one or all workshops in the series:

September 25 — Plan Commission Basics. Review the basic roles and responsibilities of the plan commission, including comprehensive planning, development review, policy recommendations, and public participation.

October 16 — Town-County Relationships in Zoning. Learn about town and county roles in administering shoreland and general zoning, pros and cons of administering a town zoning ordinance, and the relationship between comprehensive planning and zoning.

November 13 — Updating Your Comprehensive Plan. Learn about options and requirements for updating your comprehensive plan, and tools and techniques for continuously improving and keeping your plan up-to-date.

Workshop Sponsors
These workshops are brought to you by Polk County UW-Extension, the Center for Land Use Education (CLUE), and the Polk County Land Information Department. Refreshments are provided courtesy of Bakke Norman Law Firm.
