Fly Fishing at the Rose Farm

June 13, 2009, Waupaca

A day on the water in Central Wisconsin

Join us for the 4th annual fly fishing rendezvous at the Rose Farm on the Waupaca River. Long-time BOW instructor, the "Queen Mother" of fly fishing, Nancy Rose, along with a cadre of fishing gurus will provide a guided experience on this class-A trout stream.

You will learn casting techniques, reading the water, proper handling and release of fish, fly tying and more. Hospitality, scenery, excellent food, and camaraderie will round out this one-of-a-kind fishing adventure.

Begin your day with a welcome to the Rose Farm at 10:00 a.m. followed by a hands-on lesson in equipment and knot tying. After a light lunch, participants will head out to the river and to area fishing "hot spots" to relax, learn, and enjoy the graceful art of fly fishing. After a fine dinner, served on the screened-in porch overlooking the river, participants will have option of evening fishing.

This is a one-day event.

Suggestions for area lodging will be provided for those who need it. A valid Wisconsin fishing license is required as well as an inland trout stamp. Fly rods, reels, and waders are provided.

The workshop registration fee includes meals and equipment, instruction, camaraderie and fun!
