This workshop will provide the basics of public participation as a key component to the development of your municipality's comprehensive land use plan. Examples of public participation plans and community surveys will also be provided.

Becky Roberts, a Land Use Specialist with the Center for Land Use Education (CLUE) at UW-Stevens Point, will discuss:

- Legal requirements for public participation
- Identifying key stakeholders
- Designing a public participation process
- Public participation techniques and resources

This two and one-half hour workshop is the second in a series of educational opportunities intended for county, town and village elected officials, plan commissioners and town comprehensive planning committees. Future workshops include:

- August 15th & 19th, 2007
The Nine (9) Elements
- October 24th, 2007
Implementation of the Plan
- September (date pending)-'The Ultimate Land Use Study Tour!'
