

Planning Committee and Commission Workshops for Communities in Columbia & Sauk County

Basic Workshop: October 29, 2007 in Portage

Advance Workshop: November 28, 2007 in Baraboo

This two-part workshop will discuss the roles and responsibilities of planning committees and commissions as they engage in the development and implementation of local comprehensive plans. Participants may attend one or both workshops.

Who will benefit from the workshops?

- Plan commission members,
- Citizen advisory or planning committee members,
- Local officials at the town, city, village and county level,
- Planning and zoning professionals,
- And others interested in comprehensive planning

The Basic Workshop will focus on comprehensive planning and plan commission basics

Monday, 10/29/07, 6:15-8:30 pm

Columbia County Annex Building, 120 W. Conant, Portage, WI

- Introduction to the Comprehensive Plan
- Plan Commission Basics: Roles, Responsibilities and Procedural Requirements
- Success Stories: Discussion with Municipal Peers

The Advanced Workshop will focus on plan implementation

Wednesday, 11/29/07, 6:45-9:00 pm

Sauk County West Square Building, (Room B24), 505 Broadway, Baraboo, WI

- Plan Consistency: How to Utilize your Plan in Land Use Decisions
- Practice: Apply your Comprehensive Plans in Real Life Situations
- Be Proactive! Tools and Techniques to Implement your Plan

For more information, please contact:

- Kathleen Haas, UW-Extension Columbia County; (608) 742-9683
kathleen.haas@ces.uwex.edu
- Jenny Erickson, UW-Extension Sauk County; (608) 355-3250
jennifer.erickson@ces.uwex.edu
- Becky Roberts, UW-Extension Center for Land Use Education; (715) 346-4322
rroberts@uwsp.edu; or go to <http://www.uwsp.edu/cnr/landcenter/workshops.html>