

AMSLC Rules and Responsibilities

In order to ensure a positive experience for all AMSLC participants, we request that you adhere to the following rules and responsibilities:

1. Any violation of alcohol or drug laws will result in immediate removal from the conference and the violator will be liable for any expenses for hotel accommodation and/or transportation costs.
2. Any damages incurred on campus are the financial responsibilities of each individual conference participant.
3. Loud noises or parties are not allowed. There are other guests on the same floors, so noises made by the AMSLC participants must be kept to a minimum while staying at the hotel.
4. AMSLC participants must attend all conference activities. They must not wander off on personal ventures.
5. Only registered AMSLC participants are allowed in any of the conference activities.
6. Dance and entertainment:
  - There will be no wearing of hats, no smoking, no alcohol, and no weapons at the dance.
  - All conference participants will be required to wear wristbands at the dances.
