

University of Wisconsin – Stevens Point Fencing Club: Code of Conduct

Preamble

All participants from the University of Wisconsin – Stevens Point Fencing Club, be they competitors, coaches, spectators or otherwise, shall be responsible for upholding the following Code of Conduct at events sanctioned by a majority vote of all Club officers. This shall be in effect during the period of May 2009 to June 2010. For events taking place off the University of Wisconsin – Stevens Point campus, duration of the event is hereby defined as beginning the moment participants leave the campus for the event and ending upon their return to campus.

Code of Conduct

As a participant, I shall:

1. Respect the event and follow its rules and regulations.
2. Show respect for authority to the officials and those running the event.
3. Demonstrate good sportsmanship throughout the duration of the event.
4. Refrain from the use of alcohol or illicit drugs throughout the duration of the event.
5. Not engage in any disruptive or abusive behavior throughout the duration of the event.

Consequences

Should any participant fail to comply with the Code of Conduct, all participants shall leave the event immediately at the next available opportunity. The offending participant shall also not be allowed to participate in way, shape or form in any future sanctioned event during the above period. This may only be overturned by a majority vote of all Club officers. Additional consequences may also be imposed by a majority vote of all Club officers.

I have read the above document, understand its contents and consequences, and agree to abide by them.
