

Students for Freethought minutes:

Congratulations to all the new executive members.

Vice President:

Nicolas Paspalofski

Treasurer:

Kyle Bretl

Webmaster:

Pheng Xiong

Historian/librarian:

Kevin Michaels

Volunteer opportunities:

1. Blood drive, Monday and Tuesday in the University Center, the Laird Conference Room, from 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM. You can be involved by donating or taking blood.
2. Make Life Sweeter, February 13th.

Advertisement/community integration:

We have been in contact with Susan Lebow, who works towards integrating student organizations with the community, and she said that if we are interested we just need to contact her.

Posters:

We are going to be working on permanent organization posters to put in academic buildings and the residential halls. Our public relations chair, Nicolas Paspalofski, has created a selection of posters that we will eventually vote for.

Involvement Fair:

We had a booth at the involvement fair and had a few new members sign up for our distribution list.

Speaker:

We have e-mailed Annie Laurie Gaylor, but she has not responded yet. We are going to resend the e-mail to her, as well as her husband Dan Barker.

Freethought news:

Freedom From Religion Foundation:

The foundation has recently put up an "Imagine No God" billboard in Ohio. They have also recently filed suit against Green Bay, for their manger scene on public property.

Center For Inquiry:

The organization has opened an office in London.

Event:

For Darwin Day, next Tuesday, February 12th, at 7:00 PM in TNR 120, we are going to be showing NOVA's documentary, Intelligent Design On Trial. You are all welcome to come.
