News:

1. Churches are holding Halo 3 tournaments to attract the 12-17 demographic.
2. The Freedom From Religion Foundation radio program, hosted by Dan Barker and Annie Lori Gaylor Saturdays from 1:00-2:00 PM, is going national.
3. An individual from UW-Parkside, is going to different state/student organizations in an attempt to create a state-wide Freethought collaboration. We will have more information in the next couple weeks.
4. We are currently looking into the ten Chaplains on Portage county payroll. If they are denominational, we might be contacting the Freedom From Religion Foundation.
5. The United States Army doesn't acknowledge Wiccan soldiers.

Tentative Future events:

Volunteering:

We want to be more active in the community and are considering participating in the Make a Difference day, which is being held on Saturday, November 27th at 8:00 AM. We would be raking lawns for the less fortunate, preferably in a group, although you can participate as an individual. If you are interested, e-mail Ryan Dabel.

Workshop on critical thinking:

We are considering having a seminar on how to debate religious individuals, which would be held by Professor Sage, our faculty advisor. We have not made any definitive plans as of yet.

Advertisement:

1. Permanent sign, to be displayed on campus.
2. T-shirt, if you have any designs, e-mail Ryan Dabel.
3. Residence hall mailings.

Content:

We are considering showing a documentary, Flock of Dodos, which is about the current war between Creationism/Intelligent Design and Evolution.

Executive members:

We have to work on getting the posters out for the Marc Adams event and planning for the Make A Difference Day, should we be interested.
