News:

The Secular Student Alliance, an organization we are affiliated with is moving to Albany, New York, the first permanent office they have ever had. The organization offers scholarships that you are all welcome to look into, the information was sent via e-mail.

Advertisement:

We are hoping to get on the Campus Events to post our meeting times.

Mailings:

The design is complete, we just have to do some minor touch-ups.

Volunteering:

We are still looking into the different opportunities and there will be more information at the next meeting.

Event:

The documentary "Flock of Dodos" is being shown by Professor Sage next Monday, November 12th at 7:30 PM in CPS 116.

Tentative events:

1. Table discussion:

The president of the Comparative Religions organization has asked if we want to collaborate. We can see what they want to do with the event.

2. "Ask An Atheist":

The Secular Student Alliance and Center For Inquiry has talking points on their websites, so we could go into this prepared.

Ideas for the organization:

1. Have more structured discussions/themes for their meetings.
2. Message board on Desire2Learn/hosted forums.
3. Host more small film events.
4. Host events for Darwin Day.
5. Host a social event at the end of the semester/year.
