

11.26.07 Minutes

Advertisement:

T-shirt:

We have selected the “We do it with our minds open” design and they are to be printed with a black and white color scheme. We are still looking into the prices.

Mailings:

We want all of the mailings to be sent out by the end of the week.

Event:

Critical thinking seminar:

We are still planning to host one this semester or next semester.

Religion panel:

We spoke with a member from the Comparative Religions Club and we are intending it to make it a broadly focused panel showcasing a few major religions. We are planning to have it early next semester, tentatively sometime in February.

Office:

We have an office in the University Center, although we are not exactly sure where as of yet. We also have a computer lined up.