UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN – STEVENS POINT COMMUNITY BILL OF RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

PREAMBLE

The University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point is an academic community of individuals committed to the pursuit of learning, the acquisition of knowledge, and the education of all who seek it. The members of the community include students, faculty, staff, administrators, and support personnel. The mission of the University is to stimulate intellectual growth through the discovery and dissemination of knowledge which commits its members to scholarship in all of its forms. The mission also directs all members to work for the application of knowledge beyond the physical boundaries of the campus for the betterment of all members of society.

All who open their minds in this community are considered students and all students engage the academic enterprise with basic expectations, needs, freedoms, and responsibilities. As the academic community seeks to achieve its mission it can be expected:

1. To develop in its members a heightened intellectual, cultural, and humane sensitivity;
2. To instill a passion for learning and a sense of value and purpose;
3. To develop fundamental abilities which would allow one to thoughtfully engage the world, carefully consider the relationships between ideas, critically evaluate conclusions, and responsibly select among competing choices.

All who are members of this community share an obligation to provide an environment conducive to the best possible education for all who genuinely and sincerely seek it.

As members of the Stevens Point community, UW-SP has a commitment to work with the complete Stevens Point community to maintain an appropriate community environment. Each member of the campus community has an obligation to foster positive university-community relationships wherever possible.

The members of the UW-SP community are dedicated to personal and academic excellence. Becoming a member of the community obligates each member to a code of behavior, which includes:

1. The practice of personal and academic integrity. A commitment to this ideal is inconsistent with cheating in classes, in games, or in sports. It should eliminate the practice of plagiarism or borrowing others work, lying, deceit, and excuse making. And it should foster caring and concern with personal relationships.

2. The respect of all people. A commitment to this ideal is inconsistent with behaviors which compromise or demean the dignity of individuals or groups, including hazing, intimidating, taunting, baiting, ridiculing, insulting, harassing, and discrimination.
3. The respect of the rights and property of others. A commitment to this ideal is inconsistent with all forms of theft, vandalism, arson, misappropriation, malicious damage, and desecration or destruction of property. Respect for another's personal rights is inconsistent with any behavior which violates persons' right to move about freely, to express themselves appropriately, and to enjoy privacy.
4. The respect for equal rights and opportunity. This is essential in order to learn from the differences in people, ideas, and opinions. A commitment to this ideal pledges affirmative support for equal rights and opportunities for all members regardless of their age, sex, race, religion, disability, ethnic heritage, socioeconomic status, political, social or other affiliation, or disaffiliation, and/or sexual orientation.
5. The respect for the individual's needs of conditions which support work and development. A commitment to this ideal encourages behavior which is sensitive, hospitable and just.

Allegiance to these ideals obligates each member to refrain from and discourage behaviors which threaten the freedom and respect all community members of UW-SP deserve. This last clause reminds community members that they are not only obliged to avoid these behaviors, but that they also have an affirmative obligation to confront and challenge, and respond to, or report the behaviors whenever or wherever they are encountered.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Access to information is absolutely critical to the functioning of the university. Therefore, the university is committed to establishing and maintaining a high quantity flow of high quality information while seeking to eliminate or restrict anything that interferes or reduces the effectiveness of information dissemination.

Some forms of information are important to the completion of the mission of the university.

Students are obligated to maintain accurate information on their progress, to seek out appropriate information, and to be responsible for making appropriate choices for degree progress.
3. The university policies and procedures that guide the operation of the university and the behavior of all members of the university community. The primary information included here tells members of the academic community how to go about achieving legitimate ends connected with university community. A critical part of this information concerns the identification of what constitutes a violation of acceptable behavior and the procedures for adjudicating such offenses.
4. The learning activities of the classroom including any extensions such as field trips, etc. Nothing should be allowed to interrupt the activities of the classroom unless officially sanctioned by the proper university authority.
5. The data related to the effective selection of courses and degree programs. Students have access to the aggregate results of student evaluations on each instructor, per UW-SP policy.
6. Opportunities and benefits that members of the academic community might wish to take part in as supplements to the accrual of academic credits toward graduation: intramural sports, professional organizations, etc.

The university may also be represented by legal counsel. If the university is to be represented by legal counsel,
 - (b) The hearing committee shall not be bound by common law or statutory rules of evidence and may admit evidence having reasonable probative value, but shall exclude immaterial, irrelevant, or unduly repetitious testimony, and shall give effect to recognized legal privileges.
 - (c) The hearing committee shall make a record of the hearing. The record shall include a verbatim record of the testimony, which may be a sound recording, and a file of the exhibits offered at the hearing. Any party to the hearing may obtain copies of the record at his or her own expense. Upon a showing of indigency and legal need, a party may be provided a copy of the verbatim record of the testimony without charge.
 - (d) The hearing committee shall prepare written findings of fact and a written statement of its decision based upon the record of the hearing.
 - (e) The hearing committee may find academic misconduct and impose a sanction of suspension or expulsion only if the proof of such misconduct is clear and convincing. In other cases, a finding of misconduct must be based on a preponderance of the credible evidence.
 - (f) The committee may impose a disciplinary sanction that differs from the recommendation of the instructor or investigating officer.
 - (g) The instructor or the investigating officer or both may be witnesses at the hearing conducted by the committee, but do not have responsibility for conducting the hearing.
 - (h) The decision of the hearing committee shall be served upon the student either by personal delivery or e-mail and by first class United States mail and shall become final within 10 days of service, unless an appeal is taken under s. UWSP 14.09. A copy of the decision shall be sent to the instructor and to the Dean of Students or his/her designee.

UWSP 14.09 APPEAL TO THE VICE CHANCELLOR FOR ACADEMIC AFFAIRS (OR THE VICE CHANCELLOR'S DESIGNEE).

- (1) Where the sanction prescribed by the hearing committee is suspension or expulsion, the student may appeal to the vice chancellor for Academic Affairs to review the decision of the hearing committee on the record. In such a case, the vice chancellor for Academic Affairs shall sustain the decision of the academic misconduct hearing committee unless the vice chancellor for Academic Affairs finds:
 - (a) The evidence of record does not support the findings and recommendations of the hearing committee;
 - (b) Established procedures were not followed by the academic misconduct hearing committee and material prejudice to the student resulted; or
 - (c) The decision was based on factors proscribed by state or federal law regarding equal educational opportunities.
- (2) If the vice chancellor makes a finding under sub. (1), the vice chancellor may remand the matter for consideration by a different hearing committee, or, in the alternative, may invoke an appropriate remedy of his or her own.

- (3) A decision by the vice chancellor may be appealed to the chancellor, who may review the decision at his or her discretion. If the chancellor grants a review, the chancellor shall be bound by the provisions of UWSP 14.09(1) and (2).

UWSP 14.10 DISCRETIONARY APPEAL TO THE BOARD OF REGENTS.

Institutional decisions under ss. UWSP 14.05 through 14.09 shall be final, except that the Board of Regents may, at its discretion, grant a review upon the record.

UWSP 14.11 SETTLEMENT.

The procedures set forth in this chapter do not preclude a student from agreeing that academic misconduct occurred and to the imposition of a sanction, after proper notice has been given. Any such agreement shall be reduced to writing which, when signed by the student and either the instructor involved, the Dean of Student or his/her designee, or the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, as appropriate, shall conclude the case. Required written reports, however, may not be waived.

UWSP 14.12 EFFECT OF DISCIPLINE WITHIN THE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM

Suspension or expulsion shall be system-wide in effect.

- (1) A student who is suspended or expelled from one institution in the University of Wisconsin System may not enroll in another institution in the system unless the suspension has expired by its own terms or one year has elapsed after the student has been suspended or expelled.

UWSP 14.13 RIGHT TO PETITION FOR READMISSION.

A student who has been expelled may petition for readmission, and a student who has been suspended may petition for readmission prior to the expiration of the suspension period. If the charges which resulted in expulsion or suspension were initiated by the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, the petition must be in writing and directed to the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs; in all other cases, the petition for readmission must be in writing and directed to the chancellor of the institution from which the student was suspended or expelled. The petition may not be filed before the expiration of one year from the date of the final determination in expulsion cases, or before the expiration of one-half of the suspension period in suspension cases. The vice chancellor for Student Affairs shall, after consultation with elected representatives of the faculty, academic staff, and students, adopt procedures for determining whether such petitions will be granted or denied. A subcommittee of the University Affairs Committee, appointed by the chair of the committee, will hear the petition for readmission or early readmission and make recommendations to the vice chancellor for Student Affairs. Neither the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs, or the Dean of Students, if a member of the University Affairs Committee, is eligible to serve on the petition review subcommittee. The guidelines for the subcommittee are:

- (1) The subcommittee shall be made up of six (6) members, three (3) students and three (3) faculty.

UWSP 14.07. An investigating officer may also serve on the academic misconduct hearing committee for a case, if he or she has not otherwise been involved in the matter.

UWSP 14.15 ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT HEARING COMMITTEE: INSTITUTIONAL OPTION.

The chancellor of each institution, in consultation with faculty, academic staff, and student representatives, shall adopt policies providing for the establishment of a student academic misconduct hearing committee or designation of a hearing examiner to fulfill the responsibilities of the academic misconduct hearing committee in this chapter.

(2) A hearing examiner shall be selected by the vice chancellor for Student Affairs from the faculty and staff of the institution.

UWSP 14.16 NOTICE TO STUDENTS.

Each institution shall publish and make freely available to students copies of ch. UWS 14 and any institutional policies implementing ch. UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN SYSTEM
AND
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-STEVENS POINT
CHAPTER 17
NON-ACADEMIC STANDARDS AND DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

The University of Wisconsin “Student Nonacademic Disciplinary Procedures,” Chapter UWS 17 of the Wisconsin Administrative Code, Rules of the Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System, were adopted in January, 1976, and revised September, 1996, September, 2009, September 2013* Pending UWSP Faculty Senate approval. Additional statements for the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point are indicated in BOLDFACE type. These added statements, in conjunction with Chapter UWS 17, constitute Chapter UWSP 17.

17.01 Policy statement. The missions of the University of Wisconsin System and its individual institutions can be realized only if the university’s teaching, learning, research and service activities occur in living and learning environments that are safe and free from violence, harassment, fraud, theft, disruption and intimidation. In promoting such environments, the university has a responsibility to address student nonacademic misconduct; this responsibility is separate from and independent of any civil or criminal action resulting from a student’s conduct. This chapter defines nonacademic misconduct, provides university procedures for effectively addressing misconduct, and offers educational responses to misconduct. The University of Wisconsin System is committed to respecting students’ constitutional rights. Nothing in this chapter is intended to restrict students’ constitutional rights, including rights of freedom of speech or to peaceably assemble with others.

s. UWS 17.07 to conduct hearings under s. UWS 17.12.

17.02(13) “Preponderance of the evidence” means information that would persuade a reasonable person that a proposition is more probably true than not true. It is a lower standard of proof than “clear and convincing evidence” and is the minimum standard for a finding of responsibility under this chapter.

proceedings.

(b) The conduct indicates that the student presented or may present a danger or threat to the health or safety of himself, herself or others.

(c) The conduct demonstrates a pattern of behavior that seriously impairs the university's ability to fulfill its teaching, research, or public service missions.

- (j) Expulsion.

17.10(2) One or more of the disciplinary sanctions listed in sub. (1) may be imposed for an incident of nonacademic misconduct.

17.10(3) Disciplinary sanctions shall not include the termination or revocation of student financial aid; however, this shall not be interpreted as precluding the individual operation of rules or standards governing eligibility for student financial aid under which the imposition of a disciplinary sanction could result in disqualification of a student for financial aid.

17.11 Disciplinary procedure. (1) The investigating officer may proceed in accordance with this section to impose, subject to hearing and appeal rights, one or more of the disciplinary sanctions listed in s. UWS 17.10(1).

17.11(2) CONFERENCE WITH STUDENT. When the investigating officer concludes that proceedings under this section are warranted, the investigating officer shall promptly contact the student in person, by telephone, or by electronic mail to offer to discuss the matter with the student. The purpose of this discussion is to permit the investigating officer to review with the student the basis for his or her belief that the student engaged in nonacademic misconduct, and to afford the student an opportunity to respond. If the student does not respond to the investigating officer's offer to discuss the matter, the investigating officer may proceed to make a determination on the basis of the available information.

17.11(3) DETERMINATION BY THE INVESTIGATING OFFICER THAT NO DISCIPLINARY SANCTION IS WARRANTED. If, as a result of a discussion under sub. (2), or review of available information, the investigating officer determines that nonacademic misconduct did not in fact occur, or that no disciplinary sanction is warranted under the circumstances, the matter will be considered resolved without the necessity for further action.

17.11(4) PROCESS FOLLOWING DETERMINATION BY THE INVESTIGATING OFFICER THAT NONACADEMIC MISCONDUCT OCCURRED.

17.11(4)(a) If, as a result of a discussion or review of available information under sub. (2), or review of available information, the investigating officer determines that nonacademic misconduct did occur and that one or more of the disciplinary sanctions listed under s. UWS 17.10(1) should be recommended, the investigating officer shall prepare a written report which shall contain the following:

- 1. A description of the alleged misconduct.
- 2. A description of all information available to the university regarding the alleged misconduct. Such information shall be available to the student upon request, except as may be precluded by applicable state or federal law.
- 3. Specification of the sanction sought.
- 4. Notice of the student's right to a hearing.
- 5. A copy of this chapter and of the institutional procedures adopted to implement this section.

17.11(4)(b) The written report shall be delivered to the student.

17.11(4)(c) A student who receives a written report under this section has the right to a hearing under s. UWS 17.12 to contest the determination that nonacademic misconduct occurred, the choice of disciplinary sanction, or both.

- 1. Where the disciplinary sanction sought is one of those listed in s. UWS 17.10(1)(a) to (g), and if the student desires a hearing, the student shall file a written request with the student affairs officer within 10 days of the date the written report is delivered to the student. If the student does not request a hearing within this period, the determination of non-academic misconduct shall be regarded as final, and the disciplinary sanction sought shall be imposed.

2. Where the disciplinary sanction sought is one of those listed in s. UWS 17.10(1)(h) to (j), the investigating officer shall forward a copy of the written report under par. (b) to the student affairs officer. The student affairs officer shall, upon receipt of the written report, proceed under s. UWS 17.12 to schedule a hearing on the matter. A hearing shall be conducted unless the student waives, in writing, the right to such a hearing.

Students who choose to appeal disciplinary sanctions must do so in writing within ten (10) days from the date of the written decision, and shall state in the appeal exactly what is being appealed, whether the findings, decision, sanctions, or all three. In cases heard by an investigating officer, the appeal shall be to the hearing examiner. In cases heard by a hearing examiner, the appeal shall be made to the Dean of Students. An appellate decision by the Dean of Students may be appealed to the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs or Chancellor, who may review the decision at his/her discretion.

If, during a hearing involving a disciplinary sanction listed s. UWSP 17.10 (1) (a) to (h), the hearing officer concludes that suspension or expulsion should be sought rather than a lesser sanction, the hearing officer may cause a statement of charges to be served upon the student in accordance with UWSP 17.11 (4).

17.12 Hearing.

17.12(1) A student who requests a hearing, or for whom a hearing is scheduled under s. UWS 17.11(4)(c)2., shall have the right to decide whether the matter will be heard by a hearing examiner or a hearing committee.

17.12(2) If a student requests a hearing under s. UWS 17.11(4)(c)1., or a hearing is required to be scheduled under s. UWS 17.11(4)(c)2., the student affairs officer shall take the necessary steps to convene the hearing and shall schedule it within 15 days of receipt of the request or written report. The hearing shall be conducted within 45 days of receipt of the request or written report, unless a different time period is mutually agreed upon by the student and investigating officer, or is ordered or permitted by the hearing examiner or committee.

17.12(3) No less than 5 days in advance of the hearing, the hearing examiner or committee shall obtain from the investigating officer, in writing, a full explanation of the facts upon which the determination of misconduct was based, and shall provide the student with access to or copies of the investigating officer's explanation, together with any other materials provided to the hearing examiner or committee by the investigating officer, including any additional available information of the type described in s. UWS 17.11(4)(a)2.

17.12(4) The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the following guidance and requirements:

17.12(4)(a) The hearing process shall further the educational purposes and reflect the university context of non-academic misconduct proceedings. The process need not conform to state or federal rules of criminal or civil procedure, except as expressly provided in ch. UWS 17.

17.12(4)(b) The student shall have the right to question adverse witnesses, the right to present information and witnesses, the right to be heard on his or her own behalf, and the right to be accompanied by an advisor of the student's choice. The advisor may be a lawyer. In cases where the recommended disciplinary sanction is identified in s. UWS 17.10 (1) (a) to (h), the advisor may counsel the student, but may not directly question adverse witnesses, present information or witnesses, or speak on behalf of the student except at the discretion of the hearing examiner or committee. In cases where the recommended disciplinary sanction is identified in s. UWS 17.10(1)(i) or (j), or where the student has been charged with a crime in connection with the same conduct for which the disciplinary sanction is sought, the advisor may question adverse witnesses, present information and witnesses, and speak on behalf of the student. In accordance with the educational purposes of the hearing, the student is expected to respond on his or her own behalf to questions asked of him or her during the hearing.

17.12(4)(c) The hearing examiner or committee shall admit information that has reasonable value in proving the facts, but may exclude immaterial, irrelevant, or unduly repetitious testimony. The hearing examiner or committee shall observe recognized legal privileges.

17.12(4)(c) The hearing examiner or committee:

1. Shall admit information that has reasonable value in proving the facts, but may exclude immaterial, irrelevant, or unduly repetitious testimony.

2. Shall observe recognized legal privileges.

3. May take reasonable steps to maintain order, and to adopt procedures for the questioning of a witness appropriate to the circumstances of that witness's testimony, provided, however, whatever procedure is adopted, the student is allowed to effectively question the witness.

17.12(4)(e) The hearing examiner or committee shall prepare written findings of fact and a written statement of its decision based upon the record of the hearing.

17.12(4)(f) A hearing examiner's or committee's finding of nonacademic misconduct shall be based on one of the following:

1. Clear and convincing evidence, when the sanction to be imposed is one of those listed in s. UWS 17.10(1)(h) to (j).

2. A preponderance of the evidence, when the sanction to be imposed is one of those listed in s. UWS 17.10(1)(a) to (g).

3. A preponderance of the evidence, regardless of the sanction to be imposed, in all cases of sexual harassment and sexual assault.

17.12(4)(g) The hearing examiner or committee may impose one or more of the disciplinary sanctions listed in s. UWS 17.10(1)(a) to (g) that differs from the recommendation of the investigating officer. Sanctions under s. UWS 17.10(1)(h) to (j) may not be imposed unless previously recommended by the investigating officer.

17.12(4)(h) The hearing shall be conducted by the hearing examiner or committee, and the university's case against the student shall be presented by the investigating officer or his or her designee.

17.12(4)(i) The decision of the hearing examiner or committee shall be prepared within 14 days of the hearing, and delivered to the student by e-mail and first class United States mail to his or her current address as maintained by the institution. If further investigation is needed prior to a decision being made that may go beyond the 14 days, an e-mail will be sent to the student alerting them and providing a date a decision will be made. The decision shall become final within 14 days of the date of the written decision, unless an appeal is taken under s. UWS 17.13.

17.12(4)(j) If a party fails to appear at a scheduled hearing and to proceed, the hearing examiner or committee may either dismiss the case or, based upon the information provided, find that the student committed the misconduct alleged.

17.12(4)(k) Disciplinary hearings are subject to the Wisconsin open meetings law and may be closed if the student whose case is being heard requests a closed hearing or if the hearing examiner or committee determines that it is necessary to hold a closed hearing, as permitted under the Wisconsin open meetings law. Deliberations of the committee shall be held in closed session, in accordance with s. 19.85, Stats. As such, proper notice and other applicable rules shall be followed.

17.13 Appeal to the chief administrative officer.

17.13(1) Where the sanction prescribed by the hearing examiner or committee is one of those listed in s. UWS 17.10(1)(h) through (j), the student may appeal to the chief administrative officer within 14 days of the date of the written decision to review the decision of the hearing examiner or committee, based upon the record. In such a case, the chief administrative officer has 30 days from receipt of the student's appeal to respond and shall sustain the decision of the nonacademic misconduct hearing examiner or committee unless the chief administrative officer finds any of the following:

(a) The information in the record does not support the findings or decision of the hearing examiner or committee.

(b) Appropriate procedures were not followed by the nonacademic misconduct hearing examiner or committee and material prejudice to the student resulted.

(c) The decision was based on factors proscribed by state or federal law.

17.13(2) If the chief administrative officer makes a finding under sub. (1), he or she may return the matter for consideration by a different hearing examiner or committee, or may invoke an appropriate remedy of his or her own.

17.14 Discretionary appeal to the board of regents. Institutional decisions under ss. UWS 17.11 to 17.13 shall be final, except that the board of regents may, at its discretion, grant a review upon the record.

17.15 Settlement. The procedures set forth in this chapter allow the university and a student to enter into a settlement agreement regarding the alleged misconduct, after proper notice has been given. Any such agreement and its terms shall be in writing and signed by the student and the investigating officer or student affairs officer. The case is concluded when a copy of the signed agreement is delivered to the student.

17.16 Effect of discipline within the institution. A student who, at the time of commencement, is subject to a continuing disciplinary sanction under s. UWS 17.10(1) or unresolved disciplinary charges as a result of a report under s. UWS 17.11, shall not be awarded a degree during the pendency of the sanction or disciplinary proceeding.

17.17 Effect of suspension or expulsion within the university system. (1) Suspension or expulsion shall be systemwide in effect and shall be noted on an individual's transcript, with suspension noted only for the duration of the suspension period.

18.11(1)(f) No person may, while intentionally preventing or attempting to prevent the disclosure of his or her identity and with intent to harass or annoy another person, send a message on an electronic mail or other computerized communication system with the reasonable expectation that the person will receive the message.

18.11(1)(g) No person may knowingly permit or direct another person to send a message prohibited by this subsection from any computer terminal or other device that is used to send messages on an electronic mail or other computerized communication system and that is under his or her control.

18.11(2) Disorderly Conduct. No person may engage in violent, abusive, indecent, profane, boisterous, unreasonably loud, or otherwise disorderly conduct under circumstances in which the conduct tends to cause or provoke a disturbance, in university buildings or on university lands.

18.11(3)(a) No person may make or cause the telephone of another repeatedly to ring with intent to harass any person at the called number.

18.11(4) Picketing, Rallies, Parades, Demonstrations and Other Assemblies.

18.11(4)(a) In order to preserve the order which is necessary for the enjoyment of freedom by members of the university community, and in order to prevent activities which physically obstruct access to university lands or buildings and prevent the university from carrying on its instructional, research, public service, or administrative functions, any picketing, rally, parade, demonstration, other assembly, or congregation of spectators to such activity may be declared unlawful if its participants:

1. Intentionally gather or intentionally remain assembled outside any university building in such numbers, in such proximity to each other or in such fashion as to physically hinder entrance to, exit from, or normal use of the building.
2. Intentionally congregate or assemble within any university building in such fashion as to obstruct or seriously impair university-sponsored or university-authorized activities, or in such fashion as to violate any of the following conditions:
 - a. No group may be admitted into the private office of any faculty member or other university employee unless invited by the authorized occupant of that office, and then not in excess of the number designated or invited by that person.
 - b. No group may obstruct or seriously impair passage through corridors, stairways, doorways, building entrances, fire exits, and reception areas leading to offices.
 - c. No group, not authorized to do so by the person in immediate charge of the room, or by a person designated by the chief administrative officer to approve requests for the use of rooms for meetings, may enter or occupy any university building or part thereof.

18.11(4)(c) The chief administrative officer may designate a university official or officials who shall have primary authority to implement par. (a). He/she may prescribe limitations for any picketing, rally, parade, demonstration or other assembly in order that it will meet the requirements of par. (a). When informed of any picketing, rally, parade, demonstration, or other assembly which may not comply with par. (a), the chief administrative officer or the designee may proceed immediately to the site and determine if there is compliance with par. (a). If he/she finds a violation of par. (a), he/she may declare the assembly unlawful or he/she may prescribe those limitations on numbers, location or spacing of participants in the demonstration which are reasonably necessary to ensure compliance with par. (a). If he/she prescribes limitations, and if his/her limitations are not observed by the assembly, he/she may then declare the assembly unlawful. Any declaration of illegality or prescription of limitations shall be effective and binding upon the participants in the assembly unless and until modified or reversed.

18.11(4)(d) Any participant or spectator within the group constituting an unlawful assembly who intentionally fails or refuses to withdraw from the assembly after it has been declared unlawful under this section shall be subject to immediate arrest and liable to the penalties of s. UWS 18.13.

The chief administrative officer may require the presence of additional persons if said officer believes this is necessary to ensure compliance.

18.11(5)(b) Permits issued by the chief administrative officer shall not be required for the use of university sound-amplifying equipment used with the permission of the university employee having control of the equipment for authorized university classes, research, or meetings in university buildings, or for university sponsored academic, recreational or athletic activities, or for crowd control by authorized university officials.

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN – STEVENS POINT AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT (ADA)

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) was signed into law July 26, 1990. The term “disability” means, with respect to an individual:

- (A) A physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more of the major life activities of such individual;
- (B) A record of such an impairment; or
- (C) Being regarded as having such an impairment.

The ADA provides a clear and comprehensive mandate that eliminates discrimination against individuals with disabilities. The ADA addresses discrimination against individuals with disabilities in such critical areas as employment, education, housing, public accommodations, transportation, communication, recreation, health services and access to public services. Any individual can request information about services and/or accommodations at UWSP by contacting the UW-Stevens Point ADA Coordinator.

The ADA Coordinator at Stevens Point is:

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS POLICY AND PROCEDURES

Policy Statement

It is the policy of the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point (UWSP) that qualified individuals with disabilities not be discriminated against because of their disability in regard to job application procedures, hiring, and other terms and conditions of employment. It is further the policy of UWSP to provide reasonable accommodations to qualified individuals with disabilities in all aspects of the employment process.

The UW-Stevens Point is prepared to modify or adjust the job application process or the job or work environment to make reasonable accommodations to the known physical or mental limitations of the applicant or employee to enable the applicant or employee to be considered for the position he or she desires, to perform the essential functions of the position in question, or to enjoy equal benefits and privileges of employment as are enjoyed by other similarly-situated employees without disabilities, unless the accommodation would impose an undue hardship or pose a direct threat of substantial harm to the health or safety of the applicant, employee or others.

Procedures

This policy and procedures paper will be distributed to all new employees to make them aware of their right to request an accommodation.

I. DEFINITIONS

- A. The term disability means, with respect to an individual:
 - 1. a mental or physical impairment which substantially limits one or more of the major life activities of such individual;
 - 2. a record of such impairment; or
 - 3. being regarded as having such an impairment.

The following conditions are excluded from the definition of disability: transvestitism, pedophilia, exhibitionism, voyeurism, compulsive gambling, kleptomania, pyromania, gender identity disorders, current psychoactive substance use disorders, and other sexual behavior disorders.

For purposes of this policy, the term “disability” is used with the understanding that it has the same meaning as “handicap” in state and federal law. (see State Fair Employment Act [s. 111.32 (8)]; Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act and 45 CFR 85.3; Americans with disabilities Act and 29 CFR 1630).

- B. The term major life activities means functions such as caring for one's self, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning and working.
- C. The term qualified individual with a disability means an individual with a disability who satisfies the requisite skill, experience, education and other job-related requirements of the employment position such individual holds or desires, and who, with or without reasonable accommodation, can perform the essential functions of such position.
- D. The term reasonable accommodation means a modification or adjustment to a job, the work environment, the job application process, or the way things are usually done that enables a qualified individual with a disability to perform the essential functions of the job and to enjoy an equal employment opportunity. Reasonable accommodation includes, but is not limited to, making facilities accessible, adjusting work schedules, restructuring jobs, providing assisting devices or equipment, providing readers or interpreters, and modifying examinations, training materials or policies.

II. REQUESTING ACCOMMODATIONS

A. Applicants for Employment

1. All UW-Stevens Point position announcements will contain the statement, "It is the policy of the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point to provide reasonable accommodations to qualified individuals with a disability who are applicants for employment or employees."
2. Each applicant invited for an interview shall again be informed of the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point policy requiring reasonable accommodations to be provided in the hiring process.
3. All applicants should make requests for accommodations through the contact person as identified in the vacancy announcement. When requested by an applicant with a disability, the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point is prepared to modify or adjust the job application process to make reasonable accommodation to the known physical or mental limitations of the applicant to enable the applicant to be considered for the position he/she desires.
4. Each applicant is responsible for making timely and complete disclosures and specific requests regarding accommodations to meet his or her particular needs in order to enable UWSP to provide an appropriate response. It is strongly recommended that requests for accommodations be made as soon as possible to avoid delays in providing reasonable accommodations.
5. An interviewer may not ask an applicant whether or not he/she has a disability. This includes both physical and psychological disabilities. If the applicant volunteers information about a disability, the interviewer shall not ask any questions relating to the nature or extent of the disability or whether treatment will be necessary.
6. With respect to the ability to perform required job duties, an interviewer may ask each applicant whether or not he/she is able to perform the essential functions of the job applied for with or without reasonable accommodation.
 - a) If an applicant indicates in response to such an inquiry that he/she can perform the essential functions of the job but does not volunteer comment on the need for accommodation, then no inquiry shall be made about the need for an accommodation.
 - b) If, however, the applicant indicates in response to such an inquiry that he/she can perform the essential functions of the job and does volunteer the need for an accommodation, the interviewer may ask the applicant how he/she will perform the essential functions of the position and what accommodation will be necessary.

B. Current Employees or Applicants Offered Job

1. To request a reasonable accommodation, an employee or applicant offered a job is required to submit a written statement to the UW-Stevens Point ADA Coordinator. The written statement must identify the nature of the claimed physical or mental disability, identify the functional limitations with respect to the disability, and identify the requested accommodation(s).
2. An individual who identifies him/herself as having a disability and requests a reasonable accommodation may be required to provide documentation, including medical records, sufficient to establish the existence of the claimed physical or mental impairment and the need for accommodation. The information should be appropriately current and have been prepared by a qualified professional. The employee or applicant offered a job must bear the cost of this initial verification of a disability.
3. The UW-Stevens Point may require an employee or applicant offered a job who is requesting a reasonable accommodation to undergo further testing or evaluation by qualified professionals to verify or further establish the claimed disability, the need for an accommodation, and to provide a basis upon which a reasonable accommodation can be developed or implemented. The cost of such evaluation will be paid by UW-Stevens Point.

4. If an employee is having difficulty performing his/her job, the supervisor, in consultation with the ADA Coordinator, should inform the employee of the existence of UWSP policy to provide reasonable accommodations. If the employee requests a reasonable accommodation, the procedures in this policy shall apply. However, if the employee does not request an accommodation, an accommodation will not be offered nor provided. Please see page 54 for the Reasonable Accommodation Request-Report Form.

III. PROVIDING ACCOMMODATIONS

A. Decision-Making Procedures

1. Each request for an accommodation shall be reviewed on a case-by-case basis. The employee or applicant will be involved in the process of determining potential reasonable accommodations.
2. The UWSP ADA Coordinator will make the decision to approve or deny an accommodation request. If the hiring authority, supervisor or the ADA Coordinator is concerned about providing an accommodation, the hiring authority, supervisor and ADA Coordinator shall consult with the appropriate UWSP Line Officer.
3. The decision to approve or disapprove an accommodation request must be made by the ADA Coordinator in writing and provided to the applicant or employee within 20 working days after the filing of a request. If an accommodation request is denied, the written decision must inform the employee or applicant of the complaint procedures available to that individual as listed in Section IV of this document.
4. Where there is more than one effective accommodation, the final decision as to which accommodation will be provided shall be made by UW-Stevens Point after consideration of the wishes of the individual, the documentation provided, and advice from other appropriate personnel.
5. A qualified individual with a disability is not required to accept an accommodation, aid, service, opportunity or benefit which such qualified individual chooses not to accept. However, if such individual rejects a reasonable accommodation, aid, service, opportunity or benefit that is necessary to enable the individual to perform the essential functions of the position held or desired and cannot, as a result of that rejection, perform the essential functions of the position, the individual will not be considered a qualified individual with a disability.
6. UW-Stevens Point does not provide individuals with disabilities with personal devices or assistance for personal use, including, but not limited to, wheelchairs, eye glasses, hearing aids, personal assistance for eating or dressing, or readers for personal use.
7. When no reasonable accommodation is available to allow an employee with a disability to remain in his/her current position, UW-Stevens Point will attempt to reassign that employee to a vacant position which is equivalent in terms of pay and status within UWSP, if available. The employee must be qualified for the vacant position and the position must be vacant or become vacant within a reasonable period of time. Assignment to another vacant position is only available to employees.
8. All material and information collected from an applicant or employee regarding the individual's accommodation request shall be considered confidential information and be kept in a separate file. Upon completion of the decision-making process regarding the accommodation request, all material collected will be kept in a separate, locked file by the ADA Coordinator. This information will be confidential with the following exceptions:
 - a) Supervisors and managers may be informed regarding necessary accommodations or necessary restrictions on the work or duties of the employee.
 - b) First aid and safety personnel may be informed, when appropriate, if the disability might require alternative actions in emergency situations.
 - c) Government officials investigating compliance with nondiscrimination laws shall be provided relevant information on request.
9. The ADA Coordinator will periodically monitor the effectiveness of accommodations provided to applicants or employees.
10. For reporting the Department of Employment Relations (DER) only, the ADA Coordinator will complete a "Reasonable Accommodation Request-Report Form" for each accommodation request and provide a copy to the DER Division of Affirmative Action. The form is attached as Appendix A.

B. Assessing Accommodation Requests

Several factors will be considered before asking an individual to further verify the existence of a disability and when reviewing an accommodation request for reasonableness.

1. Requesting Additional Verification
 - a) Is the employee known to have a disability?
 - b) Does the applicant or employee have an observable disability?
 - c) Does the request expand on an existing accommodation or previously provided accommodation for which a verification was required?
2. Determining Reasonableness of Accommodation Requests
 - a) Are the job functions for which the accommodation is required essential?
 - b) Is the applicant or employee otherwise qualified to perform the essential job functions?
 - c) Does the accommodation accomplish the desired result, i.e., allowing the individual to overcome limitations of the disability to effectively perform the essential functions of the job or to enjoy the benefits and privileges of similarly-situated employees? Is the accommodation necessary and effective?
 - d) Will the accommodation adversely affect the productivity or work environment of other employees in the work unit?
 - e) Is the cost of the accommodation feasible within the UWSP budget? If not, can approval be obtained from the Department of Administration to use funds which are statutorily reserved for reasonable accommodations?
 - f) Are there other more cost-effective options which will allow the individual to perform the essential functions of the job?

IV. COMPLAINT PROCESS

- A. The UW-Stevens Point has an internal complaint procedure to resolve complaints alleging violations of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act. If an applicant, an applicant offered a job, or an employee disagrees with a decision regarding his or her request for an accommodation, a complaint may be filed with the appropriate UWSP line officer pursuant to this internal complaint procedure. The line officers are: Vice Chancellor for Business Affairs, Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs, Provost/Vice Chancellor, and the Chancellor.
 1. Complaints filed pursuant to this internal procedure must be filed within fifteen (15) working days after the complainant is informed of the accommodation decision. Individuals wishing to file such a complaint should immediately contact the Vice Chancellor for Business Affairs, Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs, Provost/Vice Chancellor or the Chancellor. Use of this internal complaint procedure is not a prerequisite to the pursuit of other remedies.
- B. At any time, an individual may pursue other remedies available to him/her under applicable state or federal law. An employee may contact UW-Stevens Point's Personnel Office to obtain information on existing complaint/grievance resolution processes.

University of Wisconsin – Stevens Point Reasonable Accommodation Policy Complaint Procedure

This procedure is referenced in section IV "Complaint Process," page 6 of the University of Wisconsin Reasonable Accommodations Policy and Procedures.

If an applicant, an applicant offered a job, or an employee files a complaint (see Appendix A, attached) with the appropriate university official, as per the policy "Complaint Process," the University official shall:

1. Appoint a three (3) member committee to review the decision.
2. The committee membership shall consist of individuals who are employees of UW-Stevens Point.
3. Persons involved in the initial decision or members of the unit/department of the complainant are not eligible to serve on the committee.
4. The committee will make its recommendation to the appropriate line officer within fifteen (15) working days after the complaint was filed.
5. The appropriate university official shall inform the complainant of his/her decision five (5) working days after receiving the recommendation from the committee.

To arrive at a recommendation the committee can request additional information from the complainant and/or the ADA Coordinator. If requested by the committee, the complainant may present additional information as well as present supporting documentation/information from a qualified professional. The complainant shall bear the cost for the qualified professional. July, 1998

University of Wisconsin – Stevens Point GUIDELINES FOR ACCESSIBILITY OF UWSP WEB PAGES ON THE INTERNET

The Reasonable Accommodations Policy: The Americans with Disabilities Act

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) requires State and local governments and places of public accommodation to furnish appropriate auxiliary aids and services where necessary to ensure effective communication with individuals with disabilities, unless doing so would result in a fundamental alteration to the program or service or in an undue burden. (Accessibility of Web pages on the Internet, Deval L. Patrick, Assistant Attorney, General, Civil Rights Division. United States Department of Justice Policy Ruling #204 September 9, 1996)

The actual text from the Reasonable Accommodations Policy of The Americans with Disabilities Act Title II Technical Assistance Manual follows:

II-7.0000 COMMUNICATIONS Regulatory references: 28 CFR 35.160-35.164. II-7.1000 Equally Effective Communication. A public entity must ensure that its communications with individuals with disabilities are as effective as communications with others. This obligation, however, does not require a public entity to take any action that it can demonstrate would result in a fundamental alteration in the nature of its services, programs, or activities, or in undue financial and administrative burdens.

In response to the need to ensure that University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point Web pages are accessible to persons with disabilities navigating at our web site, we will make every attempt to provide reasonable accommodations for qualified individuals with disabilities. The features that provide power and elegance for some users present potential barriers for users with sensory impairments. For example, the indiscriminate use of graphic images and video restrict access for users with visual impairments, and the use of audio and non-captioned video may restrict access for users with hearing impairments.

Essential Information: In order not to create an undue burden on UWSP Web authors, the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point requires that the “essential information” in official (not UWSP personal or class-generated pages) campus Web pages be in text format, so that the material can be read intelligently by screen readers. Essential information may include, but not be limited to:

- Contact, address information (name, phone, address, e-mail, etc.)
- Date and Calendar information (class syllabus, calendar of events, due dates, etc.)
- Admissions, degree or course requirements
- Grading policies
- Navigational elements

However, it is understood that much content will be offered only in multimedia formats, such as simulations, or graphics and photos, or sound files, where it is not reasonable or possible to provide a text equivalent. In such cases, each multimedia element will have an “Alt” tag with a brief description of that element.

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN – STEVENS POINT EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY/AFFIRMATIVE ACTION POLICY

PURPOSE

The University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point is committed to a policy of equal employment opportunity and nondiscrimination. The University's Affirmative Action Plan represents both a commitment to hire and promote underrepresented groups, and a positive effort to assure that minorities, women, and persons with disabilities are not underrepresented among our employees.

Objectives

The objectives of the University include a commitment to prevent and eliminate discrimination or harassment by supervisors, coworkers, or students on the basis of age, race, color, religion, sex, gender identity or expression, national origin, ancestry, pregnancy, marital status, parental status, sexual orientation, disability, political affiliation, arrest record, membership in the National Guard, state defense force and/or any other reserve component of the military forces of the United States or of this state, or other protected class status. Such harassment is unlawful in the state of Wisconsin.

RESPONSIBILITY

Program Development

The responsibility for the development of an effective affirmative action program on this campus is assigned to the Affirmative Action Director.

Program Implementation

Administrative personnel are responsible for implementation of the affirmative action/equal employment program and for enforcement in their area of responsibility. Affirmative action programs will be monitored and management performance in this program will be evaluated as is performance of other administrative objectives.

Discriminatory Practices

Each administrative officer of the University is responsible for eliminating discriminatory practices where they exist and for assuring that applicants and employees are not denied access to employment, training, transfers, or promotions based upon age, race, color, religion, sex, gender identity or expression, national origin, ancestry, marital status, pregnancy, parental status, sexual orientation, disability, political affiliation, arrest record, membership in the National Guard, state defense force or any other reserve component of the military forces of the United States or this state, or other protected class status.

Compliance

Federal, state, and gubernatorial laws and orders regulate affirmative action and equal employment opportunity practices in the State of Wisconsin. The University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point is committed to complying with these rules and acknowledges equal employment opportunity as a legal responsibility. In addition, this commitment is institutionalized and incorporated into the University Handbook, institutional policy, administrative evaluations, and University structure and procedures. The Compliance Officer at UWSP is Mai H. Vang, 210 Old Main, ext. 2002.

Related Policies

Additional policies which further describe and support the University's commitment to a discrimination- and harassment-free environment are the "Sexual Harassment Policy," the "Discrimination-free Environment Policy," and the various policies and procedures for dealing with allegations and complaints of harassment or discrimination under Chapters UWS and UWSP 3, 4, 6, 10, 11, and 13.

APPLICATION

The University is committed to an affirmative action/equal opportunity program to assure that all employees are treated fairly.

Equal Employment Opportunity

The University is committed to equal employment opportunity for all persons, regardless of race, creed, ancestry, religion, color, sex, gender identity or expression, national origin, age, disability, arrest record, marital status, pregnancy, parental status, political affiliation, sexual orientation, or membership in the National Guard, state defense force or any other reserve component of the military forces of the United States or this state, or other protected class status.

General Principle

All classified, unclassified, and student positions are open to both sexes, persons with disabilities, and members of minority groups.

Employment Considerations

The individual's ability and willingness to do the job are the only considerations, and jobs may not be restricted

- To members of one race, color, religion, creed, age, sex, gender identity or expression, or national origin for reasons such as the preferences of coworkers, employers, clients, or customs;
- Because a job has been traditionally limited to members of one sex or race;
- By an assumption that members of one sex or race are less able to do a particular job—such as assemble parts, type, operate machinery, serve as lead worker—without regard to the applicant's actual abilities.

Affirmative Action Needed

Affirmative action efforts for women, racial/ethnic minorities, persons with disabilities and Vietnam Era and disabled veterans are required when necessary to ensure equal opportunity and to overcome the effects of past discrimination. When deemed necessary, affirmative action will affect all employment practices, including but not limited to recruiting, hiring, transfer, layoff, termination, retention, promotion, certification, and testing.

Disability Accommodation

Reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities are provided to ensure equal access to employment in accordance with federal and state regulations.

Retaliation Prohibited

Retaliation against an employee who files a discrimination complaint is also a form of discrimination and will not be tolerated.

Equal Educational Opportunity

Under the provisions of 36.12 (1) Wis. Stats., "No student may be denied admission to, participation in, or the benefits of, or be discriminated in any service, program, course or facility of the system or its institutions or centers because of the student's race, color, creed, religion, sex, gender identity or expression, national origin, disability, ancestry, age, sexual orientation, pregnancy, marital status or parental status."

Students' Rights

The University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point affirms the right to equal opportunity in education. All campus programs and activities are equally available to all students. In its educational programs, activities, and employment practices, the University does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, color, religion, sex, gender identity or expression, national origin, ancestry, pregnancy, marital status, parental status, sexual orientation, disability, political affiliation, arrest record, membership in the National Guard, state defense force and/or any other reserve component of the military forces of the United States or this state.

Religious Accommodations

In response to an employee's or student's request, reasonable accommodations are provided for religious practices.

Student Complaints

Students wishing to file a discrimination complaint with the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point should do so with the Affirmative Action Director within 300 days of the alleged violation.

AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PLAN

UWSP's Affirmative Action Plan requires that the campus, including each department/unit, affirm its commitment to implement all federal, state and University of Wisconsin System equal employment opportunity and affirmative action laws, executive orders, rules, regulations and policies.

Such laws and regulations include but are not limited to

Equal Pay Act of 1963;

- Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964;
- Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967;
- Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973;
- Executive Order 11246;
- Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972;
- Section 402 of the Vietnam Veterans Readjustment Act of 1974;
- Wisconsin Statutes Chapter 230;
- Wisconsin Fair Employment Act;

Passed by UWSP Faculty Senate February 17, 1993
Rev. 1-18-94; Reissued January, 1995

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN – STEVENS POINT DISCRIMINATION POLICY

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

It is the policy of the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point to:

- Foster an environment of respect for the dignity and worth of all students, employees, and guests of the University;
- Provide an environment which is conducive to the free and open exchange of ideas; and
- Strive to eliminate bias, prejudice, discrimination, and harassment in all forms and manifestations.

Discrimination

Discrimination based on an individual's age, race, color, religion, sex, gender identity or expression, national origin, ancestry, marital status, pregnancy, parental status, sexual orientation, disability, political affiliation, arrest or conviction record, membership in the National Guard, state defense force or any other reserve component of the military forces of the United States or this state, or other protected class status is demeaning to all students, employees, and guests; impairs the process of education; and violates individual rights.

Complaints about discrimination, including sexual harassment should be brought to the Director of Equity and Affirmative Action (EAA) for action under Section 36.12(1), Wisconsin Statutes (within 300 days of the alleged violation), and Title IX of the Education Act, 1972. This commitment shall be incorporated into Community Rights and Responsibilities (for students and staff) and the University Handbook (for faculty and staff).

For Resolution of a Discrimination Complaint

Any person (student or staff member) who believes s/he has been the target of discrimination on the basis of race, gender, gender identity or expression, religion, color, creed, disability, sexual orientation, national origin, ancestry, age, marital status, pregnancy, or parental status in employment or as a UWSP student should report it to Mai H. Vang, Assistant to the Chancellor for Equity and Affirmative Action, 210 Old Main, ext. 2002 for resolution. Other campus service providers (i.e., Counseling Center personnel, Health Service care providers, Residence Hall Directors) should refer complainants to the Equity & Affirmative Action (EAA) Office for complaint resolution.

Educational Programming

To promote UWSP's goal of creating a discrimination-free educational environment, the Director of Equity and Affirmative Action will regularly conduct informational sessions and workshops for faculty and staff on UWSP policies and procedures related to sexual harassment and other forms of discrimination. The Equity and Affirmative Action Committee will serve as a further source of information and programming on these issues.

UWSP PROCEDURES FOR RESPONDING TO DISCRIMINATION* COMPLAINTS

Any person (student or staff member) who believes s/he has been the target of discrimination on the basis of age, race, color, religion, sex, gender identity or expression, national origin, ancestry, marital status, pregnancy, parental status, sexual orientation, disability, political affiliation, arrest or conviction record, membership in the National Guard, state defense force or any other reserve component of the military forces of the United States or this state, or other protected class status, should report it to Mai H. - D. If the Assistant to the Chancellor determines that there are compelling reasons to investigate the allegations of discrimination, s/he may do so even in the absence of a formal written complaint. Such an investigation will follow the procedures outlined in the University Handbook, Chapter 4C, Sections 7 & 9, and every attempt will be made to confine university action to collegial consultation whenever a complaint is made informally.

- E. A written record of the complaint will be kept in the EAA Office for at least one year.
- F. Complaints should be received within 300 days of the alleged discrimination under Wisconsin Statute. However, complaints about alleged discrimination may be received at any time under Title IX of the Education Act, 1972, and Title VII.

- A. Whenever the Assistant to the Chancellor for Equity and Affirmative Action, or other appropriate official receives a written complaint against a faculty or academic staff member, that official shall inform the complainant that the faculty or academic staff member against whom the allegations have been made must be promptly notified in writing of the allegations and that such notice includes the identity of the complainant. The complainant shall also be informed of the procedures for both informal and formal complaints as described in the University Handbook, Chapter 4, Sections 7 and 9.
- B. The university official will offer to meet with the faculty or academic staff member against whom the complaint is made to afford the individual an opportunity to respond to the allegations. At this meeting, the faculty or academic staff member is reminded that retaliation is prohibited and that if retaliation occurs, it will be dealt with through the line administrative structure.
- C. After reviewing the response, or in the absence of a meeting or response, the official shall either investigate the allegations to determine whether sufficient evidence exists to warrant disciplinary action or, in the case of faculty or academic staff, refer the complaint to the appropriate Mediation Subcommittee.
- D. If an investigation does not lead to a mutually acceptable response, the official forwards a written report to the Chancellor or other appropriate administrator who may invoke a disciplinary response or refer the complaint to the appropriate Mediation Subcommittee.
- E. Referrals, requests for hearings, and disciplinary action will be handled according to:

*Including sexual harassment complaints.

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN – STEVENS POINT SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY

Sexual harassment is recognized as a violation of civil rights laws, U.S. Equal Opportunity Commission Rules and by the civil law courts. The University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point is committed to providing its faculty, staff, and students with a sexual harassment-free environment.

The Chancellor, the Faculty Senate, and the Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System approved the following policy statement. "Sexual harassment," it says, "is impermissible and unprofessional conduct, subject to disciplinary action in accordance with applicable due process requirements, including, but not limited to reprimand, temporary suspension, expulsion, or discharge of the harassing individual."

Sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

1. Submission to such conduct is made either as an implicit or explicit condition of an individual's employment, career advancement, grades, or academic achievement.
2. Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment or academic decisions affecting that individual.
3. Such conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's academic or work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.

UWSP PROCEDURES FOR RESPONDING TO SEXUAL HARASSMENT COMPLAINTS

The courts have ruled that sexual harassment itself is discriminatory. The University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point is committed to maintaining a sexual-harassment-free environment. You have a right and an obligation to ask harassers to stop offensive behavior.

Any person (student or staff member) who believes s/he has been the target of sexual harassment should report it to the Equity & Affirmative Action (EAA) Office for resolution. Others (counseling center personnel, faculty, residence hall directors, deans, department chairs, personnel office staff, student employment office staff) should refer a complainant to the EAA Office unless a resolution is reached by contact with the aforementioned professionals. To discuss sexual harassment issues, contact Mai H. Vang, Room 210, Old Main, ext. 2002.

III. Informal (Not Written) Complaint

- A. The incident(s) will be recorded by the Assistant to the Chancellor for Equity & Affirmative Action (EAA) or other appropriate official and options for resolution will be discussed with the complainant.
- B. If an informal complaint is brought to a person other than the Assistant to the Chancellor for Equity & Affirmative Action, the individual to whom the complaint is brought consults with the Special Assistant.
- C. Other than collegial consultation, no action of any kind will normally be taken on any allegations in the absence of a written complaint.
- D. If the Assistant to the Chancellor determines that there are compelling reasons to investigate the allegations of sexual harassment, s/he may do so even in the absence of a formal written complaint. Such an investigation will follow the procedures outlined in the University Handbook, Chapter 4C, Sections 7 & 9, and every attempt will be made to confine university action to collegial consultation whenever a complaint is made informally.
- E. A written record of the complaint will be kept in the EAA Office for at least one year.
- F. Complaints should be received within 300 days of the alleged discrimination under Wisconsin Statute. However, complaints about alleged discrimination may be received at any time under Title IX of the Education Act, 1972, and Title VII.

IV. Formal (Written) Complaints

- A. Whenever the Assistant to the Chancellor for Equity & Affirmative Action, or other appropriate official receives a written complaint against a faculty or academic staff member, that official shall inform the complainant that the faculty or academic staff member against whom the allegations have been made must be promptly notified in writing of the allegations and that such notice includes the identity of the complainant. The complainant shall also be informed of the procedures for both informal and formal complaints as described in the University Handbook, Chapter 4, Sections 7 and 9.

- B. The university official will offer to meet with the faculty or academic staff member against whom the complaint is made to afford the individual an opportunity to respond to the allegations. At this meeting, the faculty or academic staff member is reminded that retaliation is prohibited and that if retaliation occurs, it will be dealt with through the line administrative structure.
- C. After reviewing the response, or in the absence of a meeting or response, the official shall either investigate the allegations to determine whether sufficient evidence exists to warrant disciplinary action or, in the case of faculty or academic staff, refer the complaint to the appropriate Mediation Subcommittee.

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN – STEVENS POINT CONSENSUAL AND FAMILIAL RELATIONSHIP POLICY

DEFINITIONS

As used in this policy statement:

Instructor

“Instructor” means all those who teach at UWSP, including faculty, coaches, teaching academic staff, and graduate students with teaching responsibilities.

Sexual Relations

A person engages in “sexual relations” when the person causes contact with any body part of any person with the intent to arouse or gratify the sexual desire of any person. The term “person” includes not only the one doing the contacting but also the one being contacted. “Contact” means intentional touching, either directly or through clothing.

Familial Relationship

The term “familial relationship” means an evaluative relationship with one’s spouse, child, parent, sibling, or anyone qualifying as a “dependent” under the Internal Revenue Code.

INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND

The University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point has only limited authority to regulate the private lives of its employees and students. The University has even less interest in formalizing regulations concerning the private lives of its employees and students, except insofar as the University has a duty to protect the rights of employees and students and to define professional/ethical standards for its employees.

The University also recognizes that all individuals entering into consensual relationships must accept responsibility for their actions. Nonetheless, certain consensual relationships are of concern to the University.

Consensual relationships of concern to the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point are those sexual relationships in which the parties appear to have consented, but where there is a definite power differential between the parties and where there is the appearance of bias on the part of an instructor or supervisor.

Codes of ethics for most professional associations forbid improper professional-client relationships. University policy and general ethical principles preclude professional individuals from evaluating the work or academic performance, or from making hiring, salary or similar financial decisions concerning family members. The same principles apply to romantic/sexual relationships, and require, at a minimum, that appropriate arrangements be made for objective decision-making with regard to the student, subordinate, or prospective employee.

RELATIONSHIPS AND CORRESPONDING REGULATIONS

Consensual Sexual Relationships with a Student in One’s Class

These relationships with a non-spousal student in an instructor’s class are not permitted. Violation of this regulation will subject an instructor to appropriate disciplinary action by the Provost/Vice Chancellor, including, but not limited to, reprimand, suspension, or dismissal. The University feels that the instructor/student relationship is one where a great fiduciary duty is imposed upon the instructor (one which is equivalent to doctor/patient or attorney/client) and where this prohibition is as appropriate as the prohibition imposed in other professions.

Consensual Sexual Relationships with a Student Not in One’s Class

These relationships are often problematic and should be avoided. The potential conflict of interest, bias, power differential, and appearance of impropriety problems are obvious. Further, there is the possibility that the student may subsequently enroll in the instructor’s class, resulting in the difficult choice of putting the relationship on hold or facing disciplinary action.

Consensual Sexual Relationships with an Employee under One’s Supervision

These relationships are of concern to the University (and all other employers) because of conflict of interest and abuse of power differential problems. If such a situation develops, the supervisor should work with his or her supervisor to remedy the problem (e.g. by having one or both of the couple transferred.).

Familial Relationships

The situation where one is in an evaluative position (such as a supervisor or instructor) with a family member is to be avoided if at all possible. The supervisor or instructor must consult with his or her dean/chair/supervisor before accepting such a responsibility. Together they should act to avoid the situation (e.g. by transferring an employee, having a student take another section of a course or take the course by independent study, correspondence, etc.).
Passed by UWSP Faculty Senate on February 17, 1993

Revised on February 17, 1999

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN – STEVENS POINT EMPLOYEE RIGHTS UNDER THE FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT OF 1993

The Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) requires covered employers to provide up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave to “eligible” employees for certain family and medical reasons. Employees are eligible if they have worked for a covered employer for at least one year, and for 1,250 hours over the previous 12 months, and if there are at least 50 employees within 75 miles.

REASONS FOR TAKING LEAVE: Unpaid leave must be granted for any of the following reasons:

- To care for the employee’s child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
- To care for the employee’s spouse, son or daughter, or parent, who has a serious health condition; or
- For a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee’s job.
- At the employee’s or employer’s option, certain kinds of paid leave may be substituted for unpaid leave.

ADVANCE NOTICE AND MEDICAL CERTIFICATION: The employee may be required to provide advance leave notice and medical certification. Taking of leave may be denied if requirements are not met.

- The employee ordinarily must provide 30 days advance notice when the leave is “foreseeable.”
- An employer may require medical certification to support a request for leave because of a serious health condition, and may require second or third opinions (at the employer’s expense) and a fitness for duty report to return to work.

JOB BENEFITS AND PROTECTION:

- For the duration of FMLA leave, the employer must maintain the employee’s health coverage under any “group health plan.”
- Upon return from FMLA leave, most employees must be restored to their original or equivalent positions with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms.
- The use of FMLA leave cannot result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of an employee’s leave.

UNLAWFUL ACTS BY EMPLOYERS: FMLA makes it unlawful for any employer to:

- Interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of any right provided under FMLA;
- Discharge or discriminate against any person for opposing any practice made unlawful by FMLA or for involvement in any proceeding under or relating to FMLA.

ENFORCEMENT:

- The U.S. Department of Labor is authorized to investigate and resolve complaints of violations.
- An eligible employee may bring a civil action against an employer for violations.

FMLA does not affect any federal or state law prohibiting discrimination, or supersede any state or local law or collective bargaining agreement which provides greater family or medical leave rights.

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN – STEVENS POINT ON-CAMPUS RESIDENCY REQUIREMENT

BOARD OF REGENT POLICY RESOLUTION

The UW Board of Regents has mandated that all freshman and sophomores live in residence halls. Specifically, resolution 173 (May 5, 1972) states:

- (1) Those freshman and sophomore students who are not veterans, married or living with parents or guardian, shall be required to live in a university-operated residence hall when such accommodations are available;
- (2) Any Chancellor with a campus situation which he feels would warrant exception to the provisions of this resolution, may submit a plan to the Board for its consideration;
- (3) Any Chancellor may grant exceptions to this policy to individuals with special situations, such as significant personal hardship.

At UW-Stevens Point, the policy is enforced for those students who have graduated from high school two years or less prior to the start of the academic year (e.g., a student graduation in 1995 would be exempt from the residency requirement for 1997-98 while a student who graduated in 1996 or 1997 would not be).

Exceptions are granted on a routine basis to students who are married, live with their parent(s) or legal guardian(s) and commute from within a 40-mile radius, have a dependent child living with them, or are enrolled for five or fewer credits. Students who feel that they should be exempt from the policy may request an exception from UWSP Residential Living, Assignments Coordinator. If the request is denied, the student may appeal to the Housing Policy Appeals Committee, a group comprised of residence hall students.

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN – STEVENS POINT INFORMATION CONCERNING SEXUAL ASSAULT

INTRODUCTION

The UWSP community is concerned about sexual assault, particularly acquaintance assault which is the most prevalent form of sexual assault. Sexual intercourse or sexual contact without consent is not only inappropriate, it is illegal.

WHAT IS THE LAW?

Sexual assault is any forced or coerced sexual intercourse or contact. It is a crime of violence in which assailants, whether known to the victim or not, are motivated by a desire to humiliate and/or exert power over the victim. (Refer to Wisconsin State Statutes 940.225 and 948.02.)

In short, any sexual contact which you do not want is sexual assault. There are four degrees of sexual assault in Wisconsin.

1.) First Degree Sexual Assault

Whoever does any of the following is guilty of a Class B felony:

- a) Has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with another person without consent of that person and causes pregnancy or great bodily harm to that person.
- b) Has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with another person without consent of that person by use or threat of use of a dangerous weapon or any article used or fashioned in a manner to lead the victim reasonably to believe it to be a dangerous weapon.
- c) Is aided or abetted by one or more other persons and has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with another person without consent of that person by use or threat of force or violence.

2.) Second Degree Sexual Assault

Whoever does any of the following is guilty of a Class C felony:

- a) Has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with another person without consent of that person by use or threat of force or violence.
- b) Has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with another person without consent of that person and causes injury, illness, disease or impairment of a sexual or reproductive organ, or mental anguish requiring psychiatric care for the victim.
- c) Has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with a person who suffers from a mental illness or deficiency which renders that person temporarily or permanently incapable of appraising the person's conduct, and the defendant knows of such condition.
- (cm) Has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with a person who is under the influence of an intoxicant to a degree which renders that person incapable of appraising the person's conduct, and the defendant knows of such condition.
- d) Has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with a person who the defendant knows is unconscious.
- e) Is aided or abetted by one or more other persons and has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with another person without the consent of that person.
- f) Is an employee of a facility or program under s. 940.295. (2)(b),(c),(h) or (k) and has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with a person who is a patient or resident of the facility or program.

3.) Third Degree Sexual Assault

Whoever has sexual intercourse with a person without the consent of that person is guilty of a Class G felony. Whoever has sexual contact in the manner described in sub. (5)(b) 2. with a person without the consent of that person is guilty of a Class G felony.

(4.) Fourth Degree Sexual Assault

Except as provided in sub. (3), whoever has sexual contact with a person without the consent of that person is guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

CONSENT

"Consent", as used in this section, means words or overt actions by a person who is competent to give informed consent indicating a freely given agreement to have sexual intercourse or sexual contact. Consent is not an issue in alleged violations of sub. (2) (c), (cm), (d) and (g). The following persons are presumed incapable of consent but the presumption may be rebutted by competent evidence, subject to the provisions of s. 972.11 (2):

PENALTIES:

Penalties for conviction of a criminal or civil action based on a crime of sexual assault or rape range from fines, financial restitution and probation to imprisonment, depending on the degree of the assault.

Procedures for campus actions can be found in UWS/UWSP Chapter 17. Penalties for students found guilty of sexual assault by the Student Rights and Responsibilities office range from probation to suspension/expulsion. The University may also take whatever action it deems necessary to provide for the safety of the members of the university community. The University will also report each sexual assault to the city police, without reference to individuals.

HOW OFTEN DOES SEXUAL ASSAULT OCCUR?

It is difficult to know exactly how many sexual assaults occur because sexual assaults often go unreported. However, below are some facts of which you should be aware:

Nationally in 2010, there were 84,767 sexual offenses reported (Federal Bureau of Investigation). In Wisconsin, 4,857 sexual assaults were reported in 2010. Across the UW System Campuses, there were 257 sexual assaults in 2011...191 of which were acquaintances. At UW-Stevens Point, there were two reports of sexual assault during 2011. Two of these sexual assaults were acquaintances.

WHAT SHOULD YOU DO IF YOU OR SOMEONE YOU KNOW HAS BEEN A VICTIM OF SEXUAL ASSAULT?

- Seek medical attention immediately. A hospital visit is highly recommended. It is important to preserve evidence toward the proof of sexual assault.
- Report any sexual assault or attempted sexual assault to a university official. No other action will be taken unless so determined by the victim.
- Seek assistance from a professional counselor. Free counseling is available at the UWSP Counseling Center.
- Consider options of initiating disciplinary action through the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities and/or seeking a legal response by reporting the assault to the Stevens Point Police Department. It is always the victim's choice about what course of action to pursue.

Our primary concern is that victims of sexual assault receive appropriate support and assistance. We also understand that confidentiality is of the utmost importance to victims.

PREVENTION INFORMATION

Both men and women should be especially careful in situations involving the use of alcohol or drugs. Alcohol and drugs can interfere with your ability to assess situations and to communicate effectively.

PROTECTING AGAINST STRANGER ASSAULT

Walking On/Off Campus:

1. Always be aware of what is going on around you. Stay alert to your surroundings.
2. Walk with confidence. Hold your head up and shoulders straight.
3. At night, stick to well-lighted, populated areas and walk with another person. Avoid walking alone or in isolated areas.
4. Use campus escort services.
5. Take special precautions in parking lots, stairwells, elevators, bath-rooms, and dark areas with shrubbery. Studies show that many assaults by strangers occur in these places.
6. If you suspect that you are being followed, go to a place where there are other people as soon as possible. If you choose to run, run as fast as you are able and scream to attract attention or summon help.
7. Follow your gut instincts. If you sense that you may be at risk or in danger, try to get out of the situation. For example, if you see a suspicious looking person or someone who makes you feel uncomfortable in a parking lot, leave the area. Report your suspicions to the authorities.

In Residence Halls:

1. Lock your door at all times, even if you run down the hall for just a few minutes to visit a friend.
2. Do not prop security doors open.
3. In residence halls accessed only by a special key, do not let anyone without such a key enter, no matter how presentable their appearance or how plausible their request seems. Simply tell them, "I would like to help you out, but we are very concerned about security in this residence," and direct them to campus security for assistance.
4. Be especially aware of security during vacation periods, when there are fewer people on campus.

REPORTING

Anyone who is aware of a sexual assault must report it to the Dean of Students Office. Such reporting is for statistical purposes only; no other action is required unless so directed by the victim.

Any University employee who witnesses a sexual assault on campus or receives a report that a student has been sexually assaulted is required by 1989 Wisconsin Act 177 to report the assault to the Dean of Students.

Report forms are available on the Dean of Students Website at www.uwsp.edu/dos. All completed reports go directly to the Dean of Students.

LEGAL RIGHTS OF VICTIMS

Each individual has the option to pursue appropriate law enforcement, student conduct, protective services, counseling, medical assistance and to be assisted by campus authorities in finding appropriate services.

Should a victim choose to prosecute legally, that person should be aware of Wisconsin Statute 950, which addresses the legal rights of victims. A victim has legal rights and is eligible for the services under this chapter only if the victim reports the crime to law enforcement authorities within 5 days of its occurrence or discovery, unless he or she has a reasonable excuse not to do so.

Sections of 950.04 and 950.045 of the Wisconsin Statutes identifies the following basic rights of victims and witnesses of crime:

- To be informed by local law enforcement agencies and the district attorney of the final disposition of the case. If the crime charged is a felony or is specified in ch. 940 or s. 948.02, 948.03 or 948.05, the victim shall be notified whenever the defendant or perpetrator is released from custody. The victim shall be notified of a pardon application by the governor.
- To be notified that a court proceeding to which they have been subpoenaed will not go on as scheduled, in order to save the person an unnecessary trip to court.
- To have the court provided with information pertaining to the economic, physical and psychological effect of the crime upon the victim of a felony and have the information considered by the court.
- To receive protection from harm and threats of harm arising out of their cooperation with law enforcement and prosecution efforts, and to be provided with information as to the level of protection available.
- To be informed of financial assistance and other social services available as a result of being a witness or a victim of a crime, including information on how to apply for the assistance and services.
- To be informed of the procedure to be followed in order to apply for and receive any witness fee to which they are entitled.
- To be provided, whenever possible, a secure waiting area during court proceedings that does not require them to be in close proximity to defendants and families and friends of defendants.
- To have any stolen or other personal property expeditiously returned by law enforcement agencies when no longer needed as evidence.
- To be provided with appropriate employer intercession services to ensure that employers of victims and witnesses will cooperate with the criminal justice process and the juvenile justice process in order to minimize an employee's loss of pay and other benefits resulting from court appearances.
- To be entitled to a speedy disposition of the case in which they are involved as a victim or witness in order to minimize the length of time they must endure the stress of their responsibilities in connection with the matter.
- To have the family members of all homicide victims afforded all of the rights under subs. (1) to (4) and (6) to (9) and analogous services under s. 950.05, whether or not they are witnesses in any criminal proceedings.
- To be entitled to provide written statements concerning parole and pardon applications.

CAMPUS CONDUCT PROCESS

Should a victim choose to bring charges against another student through the student conduct process, the following steps will be followed:

- A written report will be filed with the Dean of Students Office.
- An adjudication officer will be assigned and interviews will be conducted to determine whether violations of UWSP Chapter 17 have occurred.
- Rights of the victim, the conduct process and victim services will be reviewed.
- If evidence suggests a violation of our community standards, the adjudicating officer will notify the accused student in writing, stating the charges and setting a date for a hearing.
- The procedures outlined in UWSP Chapter 17.05 and 17.06 will be followed pertaining rights of the accused.
- The alleged victim is not present at the hearing, however, content and details of the initial report may need to be discussed during the hearing.
- After the adjudicating officer has obtained all available information on the case, a written decision will be rendered.
- If the accused is found to be in violation of one or more sections of Chapter 17, sanctions will be imposed. Sanctions may include probation, suspension, removal or restrictions within the student's residential community, alcohol assessment, psychological assessment and/or other requirements determined by the adjudicating officer depending on the severity of the case.

- The victim will be notified about the outcome of the case when it is completed.
- The accused shall have 10 days to submit an appeal to the office of Student Rights and Responsibilities if they so choose.
- The office of Student Rights and Responsibilities shall exercise authority when deemed necessary to restrict contact between individuals, determine housing changes if appropriate during or after the hearing, and make other decisions intended to bring order to the academic environment.

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN – STEVENS POINT HEALTH STANDARDS – ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUGS

PROMOTING OPTIMAL WELL-BEING

One of the important missions of the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point is to assist each student in achieving the healthiest lifestyle possible. The University understands that a supportive community makes healthy choices an easier option. The University is also interested in providing an optimal environment for student growth and development.

In order to support the optimal environment and to support the wishes of the majority of the students on the campus, policies are in place to severely restrict smoking, to discourage illegal use of alcohol, and to encourage healthy food choices. As a wellness campus we are interested in increasing the opportunities for each person, be they student or employee to achieve higher levels of wellness.

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-STEVENS POINT HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY STATEMENT

The University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point is concerned about the health and well being of its employees, students, campus guests and visitors. University Administration shall be responsible for securing resources necessary to implement this policy.

It is the policy of UW Stevens Point to devote its best efforts to comply with all applicable federal, state and local rules and regulations and appropriate operating standards applicable to the work and campus environment. The campus shall strive to continuously improve the campus environment, minimize hazardous material use and maximize resource utilization through waste minimization and recycling efforts.

All administrative and supervisory personnel are responsible for providing employees information about the hazards they work with, proper training and following safe work practices. Faculty will provide their students with the necessary information and training to perform their activities safely.

In concern with the responsibility assumed by the University, employees, students, guests and visitors accept the responsibility to bring areas of question and concern regarding health and safety concerns to the attention of the Environmental Health and Safety Department. Specifically, it is an individual's responsibility to raise questions when unsure of appropriate health and safety precautions in the teaching, learning or work environment.

SMOKING POLICY

Smoking is banned in all buildings on campus. Smokers are required to use designated areas outside of university facilities.

POLICY ON A DRUG-FREE WORKPLACE

Congress has enacted the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988 which places certain responsibilities on the University as the recipient of federal grants and contracts. Pursuant to the federal requirements and in keeping with current university policy, all UW-Stevens Point employees are reminded that university rules, policies and practices prohibit the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensing, possession or use of controlled substances on all university property and worksites. Any employee who engages in any of these actions on university property or the worksite or during work time may be referred to counseling or treatment, and may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including discharge.

Employees who are convicted of any criminal drug statute violation occurring in the workplace must notify their dean, director, or department chair within 5 days of the conviction if the employees are employed by the university at the time of the conviction.

Employees who have problems with alcohol or controlled substances are encouraged to voluntarily contact their Employee Assistance Program (EAP) coordinator. Referral for treatment may be recommended if its in the best interests of the university and the employee. Voluntary contacts with the EAP coordinator may remain confidential. Please contact the UWSP Counseling Center at 346-3553 to speak with the UW-Stevens Point EAP coordinator.

STANDARDS OF CONDUCT AND UNIVERSITY SANCTIONS CONCERNING ILLICIT DRUGS AND ALCOHOL

The University of Wisconsin System and University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point prohibit the unlawful possession, use, distribution, manufacture or dispensing of illicit drugs and alcohol by students and employees on university property or as part of university activities.

The use or possession of alcoholic beverages is prohibited on university premises, except in faculty and staff housing and as expressly permitted by the chief administrative officer or under institutional regulations, in accordance with s. UWS 18.06(13)(a), Wis. Adm. Code. Without exception, alcohol consumption and procurement are governed by Wisconsin statutory age restrictions under s. UWS 18.06(13)(b), Wis. Adm. Code.

The unlawful use, possession, distribution, manufacture or dispensing of illicit drugs ("controlled substances" as defined in ch. 961, Wis. Stats.) is prohibited in accordance with s. UWS 18.10(1), Wis. Adm. Code. Violation of these provisions by a student may lead to the imposition of a disciplinary sanction, up to and including suspension or expulsion, under s. UWS 17.03(1)(b), Wis. Adm. Code. University employees are also subject to disciplinary sanctions for violation of these provisions occurring on university property or the worksite or during work time, up to and including termination from employment. Disciplinary sanctions are initiated and imposed in accordance with applicable procedural requirements and work rules, as set forth in Wisconsin statutes, administrative rules, faculty and academic staff policies, and collective bargaining agreements. Referral for prosecution under criminal law is also possible. Further, violations of ss. UWS 18.06(13) and 18.10(1), Wis. Adm. Code may result in additional penalties as allowed under ch. UWS 18, Wis. Adm. Code.

FEDERAL AND STATE OF WISCONSIN LEGAL SANCTIONS

WISCONSIN

The Uniform Controlled Substances Act, Chapter 961 of the Wisconsin Statutes, regulates controlled substances and outlines specific penalties for the violation of the regulations. A first-time conviction for possession of a controlled substance can result in a sentence of up to one year in prison and a fine of up to $5,000. Sec. 961.41 (3g), Stats. A person convicted of manufacturing a controlled substance, delivering a controlled substance, or possessing a controlled substance with an intent to manufacture or deliver, can be imprisoned for up to 30 years and fined up to $1,000,000. Secs. 961.41(1) and (1m), Stats. Penalties vary according to the type of drug involved, the amount of drug confiscated, the number of previous convictions, and the presence of any aggravating factors. The distribution of a controlled substance to a minor can lead to the doubling of an authorized sentence term. Section 961.46, Stats.

Wisconsin has formidable legal sanctions that restrict the use of alcohol in various situations. It is illegal to procure for, sell, dispense or give away alcohol to anyone who has not reached the legal drinking age of 21 years. Sec. 125.07(1)(a)(1), Stats. Every adult has a legal obligation to prevent the illegal consumption of alcohol on premises owned by the adult or under the adult's control. Sec. 125.07(1)(a)(3), Stats. A first-time violator of either of the above subsections can be fined up to $500. It is against the law for an underage person to procure or attempt to procure an alcoholic beverage, to falsely represent his or her age for the purpose of obtaining alcohol, to enter premises licensed to sell alcohol, or to consume or possess alcohol on licensed premises. Sec. 125.07(4)(a), Stats. A first-time underage violator of section 125.07(4)(bs), Stats., can be fined up to $500, ordered to participate in a supervised work program, and have their driver's license suspended. [Revised 1/97] tion of a small amount (less than 250 grams) of marijuana; a sentence of life imprisonment can result from a conviction of possession of a controlled substance that results in death or bodily injury; and, possession of more than 5 grams of cocaine can trigger an intent to distribute penalty of 10-16 years in prison.

Federal Penalties for Illegal Trafficking of Controlled Substances

The Controlled Substances Act (CSA), Title II of the Comprehensive Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act of 1970, is a consolidation of numerous federal laws regulating the manufacture and distribution of controlled substances. The CSA places all controlled substances into one of five schedules, depending upon the substance's medical use, potential for abuse, and safety or dependence liability. The CSA provides penalties for the unlawful manufacturing and distribution of controlled substances. The charts on pages 8-9 of the U.S. Department of Justice publication, Drugs of Abuse, 1996 Edition, provide an overview of the penalties for trafficking of controlled substances. [Revised 1/97]

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN – STEVENS POINT POLICY ON PARENTAL NOTIFICATION

UWSP believes it is important to treat students as the adults they have become. As members of our learning community, we will be sending grades and other official university communications directly to each student. What they choose to share and discuss with parents or guardians is a personal and/or family decision.

We also honor each student's right to privacy on behavioral matters. There are several notable exceptions to this policy, however. The university may choose to contact a parent or guardian:

- When a student's repeated abuse of chemicals is jeopardizing their own health or that of others,
- When repeated efforts to gain compliance with university alcohol, drug and other behavioral policies have failed and the student's status with the university is in question,
- When a student's physical or emotional health has become threatened or has become potentially dangerous to others, and/or when the university feels the student may be incapable of making safe healthy decisions for him/her self.

Contacts with parents or guardians in these instances will be made by the Dean of Students or his/her designee.

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-STEVENS POINT WORKPLACE VIOLENCE

REPORTING GUIDELINES

Acts of violence are prohibited by law. - the act, behavior or communication is abusive and could cause another person physical, emotional or psychological harm; and/or
- the act, behavior or communication damages or threatens to damage property of the university or of an individual.

All members of the university community should report any act of violence, potential violence, threatening, aggressive or disruptive behavior to a supervisor, department chair, Dean of Students Office (if students are involved), the Personnel Office or Protective Services. These resource people can help ensure that your concerns are properly reported and investigated. The employee who receives such a report is obligated to channel the complaint through the appropriate university procedures.

Examples of campus violence include, but are not limited to:

Violators are subject to disciplinary action, including suspension or dismissal, and may be subject to criminal prosecution.

This policy does not replace any current disciplinary or formal grievance process established in agreements with collective bargaining units and governance groups; nor does the use of this process cause an employee to forfeit the right to file a grievance. UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN – STEVENS POINT SECURITY CAMERA POLICY

Security cameras may be installed in situations and places where the security of either equipment or people would be enhanced. Cameras will be limited to uses that do not violate the reasonable expectation of privacy as defined by law. When appropriate, the cameras may be placed campus-wide, inside and outside buildings. Although the physical cameras may be identical, the functions of these cameras fall into three main categories:

- 1.) Anti-theft and Vandalism: Where the main intent is to take pictures and store them on a remote device so that if an item is discovered stolen or vandalized, the pictures will show the perpetrator. Examples: an un-staffed computer lab, an un-staffed science lab, or a parking lot.
- 2.) Personal Security: Where the main intent is to take pictures and store them on a remote device so that if a person is assaulted, the picture will show the perpetrator. Someone from Protective Services may also monitor these cameras live. Examples: a major hallway, or a parking lot.
- 3.) Extended Responsibility: Where the main intent is to have the video in one room monitored by staff member in a different room who is responsible for people and equipment in both rooms. In this case, pictures may or may not be stored. Example: a computer lab with multiple rooms and only one staff.

This policy does not apply to cameras used for instructional purposes. Further, cameras being used for research would be governed by other policies involving human subjects and are therefore excluded from this policy.

Requests for installation of security cameras should be made to and approved by the Security Camera Officer (a position appointed by and responsible to the Provost).

- Information obtained from the cameras would be used exclusively for law and/or policy enforcement.
- All camera installations are subject to federal and state laws.
- The places where these cameras may be installed may be restricted access sites such as a departmental computer lab; however, they are not places where a person has a reasonable expectation of privacy. Cameras will be located so that personal privacy is maximized. No audio should be recorded.
- Unless the camera is being used for criminal surveillance, or in extraordinary circumstances, the following places should not be monitored by security cameras:
 - Bathrooms
 - Locker Rooms
 - Offices
 - Residence Hall rooms
 - Classrooms not used as a lab

For Anti-theft/Vandalism and Personal Security cameras, access to images from cameras should be limited to the Security Camera Officer and other persons authorized by the Provost. For Extended Responsibility Cameras, the live video can be monitored live by the staff person, however any images stored must be stored remotely and access limited to the Security Camera Officer. If images are retained, the images should be retained for a period of at least one week and no longer than 28 days, unless it is part of an investigation. Information that directly affects an investigation will be kept for at least one year (or for a period of time determined by the investigating agency.) Anti-theft/Vandalism cameras requested in locations that may not be utilized for extended periods (such as a storage room during summer break) may have images retained for a period longer than 28 days as determined appropriate by the Security Camera Officer.

When an incident has been reported or is suspected to have occurred, personnel responsible for the area in question may request that the Security Camera Officer review the images from the camera. As circumstances require, the Provost may authorize others to review images. A record log will be kept of all instances of access to, and use of recorded material. The Security Camera Officer will give a semi-annual report to the University Affairs Committee.

Units requesting security cameras will be required to follow the procedures outlined in this policy. Concerns or questions should be directed to the Security Camera Officer. The Security Camera Officer's job description needs to clearly outline his/her responsibilities, and his/her performance in these areas will be evaluated by the Provost on an annual basis. Breaches of this policy can result in disciplinary action.

Unless the camera is being used for criminal surveillance, areas being monitored should have at least two signs indicating that security camera monitoring may be taking place. The wording on the signs should not create a false sense of security to lead someone to believe that the cameras were being monitored live when in fact they were not. These signs should be at the entrance to the area being monitored and should identify a contact person who can answer questions regarding the cameras.
