On Friday, March 28, 2014 a two-part presentation and workshop on diversity, inclusivity, and equity will be held in the DUC Alumni Room.

Morning Session: UW-Stout

In the morning (from 9-11:30 a.m.) colleagues from UW-Stout will be presenting their diversity project "Infusing Diversity Across the Curriculum" and leading focused discussions with participants about ways to infuse diversity at UW-Stevens Point. A digital story on YouTube provides an overview of UW-Stout’s efforts: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BLJAPdvt8wY.

This afternoon session is open to the entire campus. If you are interested in participating, please register for UW-Stout's interactive presentation by following the link below.

Register here:

Afternoon Session: Dr. Valerie Purdie-Vaughns

In the afternoon (from 1:30-4 p.m.) Dr. Valerie Purdie-Vaughns will be presenting current research on stereotype threat and leading a workshop on evidence-based interventions to counteract the effects of stereotype threat. Dr. Purdie-Vaughns is an Associate Professor of Psychology at Columbia University and is a former graduate student who studied under Claude Steele, author of Whistling Vivaldi.

This afternoon session is also open to the entire campus. If you are interested in participating, please register for Dr. Purdie-Vaughns' presentation and workshop by following the link below.

Register here:

If you have any questions about these interactive presentations or the new Inclusive Pedagogy Project, please feel free to contact: David Hastings: David.Hastings@uwsp.edu or 715-346-4046.