

Review(KB 12/17/08)

This powerpoint focuses on aquatic invasive species in Bayfield County, Wisconsin.. The study is conducted through a survey of lake property owners. According to this survey, there would be about $250,000 net economic benefits per year lost due to the AIS scenario described in the powerpoint.