

Flooding in Leon, WI Photo credit: PICRYL

FLOODPLAIN ZONING WEBINAR SERIES

Thursdays - March 21, March 28, April 4, 2024

All Sessions: Noon - 1:00PM

This series will introduce participants to basic tools and objectives of floodplain and coastal management and take a closer look at ordinance adoption and administration in Wisconsin.

Learning Objectives

- Learn about tools and resources related to floodplain and coastal management
- Understand the basics of floodplain zoning and how to adopt an ordinance
- Learn how to consider floodplain and coastal resources in the development review process

Who should attend?

- Planning and zoning staff
- Local officials, clerks, and administrators
- Municipal engineers, building inspectors, and floodplain managers

Cost

$30 (covers all three sessions)

Questions?

Email: landcenter@uwsp.edu

Telephone: 715-346-3783

Registration

<https://bit.ly/floodplain2024>

Sessions

Session 1

Floodplain Management Basics – March 21, 2024

- Goals of the floodplain program
- Role of FEMA, DNR, and municipalities
- Basics of floodplain zoning
- Additional tools

Session 2

Ordinance Adoption & Administration – March 28, 2024

- Model floodplain zoning ordinance
- Adoption process
- Floodplains in the development review process
- Common questions and scenarios
- Sample forms and materials

Session 3

Coastal Floodplain Management – April 4, 2024

- Basics of coastal floodplain maps and FIS
- Development requirements - state higher standards
- Common questions and scenarios

Professional Development Credits

1 CM, CEC or PDH credit may be obtained for each webinar attended.

Center for Land Use Education
College of Natural Resources
University of Wisconsin - Stevens Point

Extension
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

FEMA

