NRES 390/590: Nature Interpretation in Wisconsin: Connecting People and Place

Interested in learning how to interpret major ecological communities of Wisconsin, their relationship to landforms and climate, key plants and animals, their interrelationship and the effect of human activities? NRES 390 is a 1 credit weekend course being held 8am-5pm on Sat, April 13 and Sun, April 14 where students will travel to local sites, exploring local peoples and places

NRES 210: Hunter Education Certification

Get 1 credit while also becoming a DNR certified Hunter Education Instructor at the same time. This is a fun and easy way to get an extra credit, build your resume, and be a contributor to the outdoor community by teaching others safe hunting practices, ethics, and conservation principles. Classes are Monday nights, 5:00-8:00, March 25 – April 29. Request permission to register, pfarrell@uwsp.edu and provide your student ID number AND your DNR customer ID number.
