Silver Moore

Humanities Instructional Coach
University Prep Art & Design

Moore holds a Bachelor of Arts in journalism from Michigan State University and a teaching certification from the University of Michigan. In college, she performed various roles including president of the Black Student Alliance. Her commentary has been featured in The State News, theGrio, Lansing State Journal, The Huffington Post, ABC Channel 7 News, and PUSH Radio. Additionally, she has served as a guest lecturer of Women's Studies at MSU and UM Dearborn. Currently, she is an English language arts teacher at Detroit Leadership Academy where she is a two-time nominee and winner of the Golden Apple Award for teaching.

Sasānēhsaeh Jennings, Ph.D

Native American Student Success Coordinator
University of Wisconsin System

Jennings lives on the Bad River Reservation in Wisconsin, with her husband and two girls. She is an enrolled member of the Menominee Nation of Wisconsin and currently serves as the Tribal Liaison for the University of Wisconsin System and earned her Ph.D. in Organizational Leadership, Policy, and Development from the College of Education and Human Development at the University of Minnesota, and both her M.S. in Educational Leadership and Policy Analysis and B.A. in Sociology/American Indian Studies from University of Wisconsin-Madison. As an educator and scholar-activist, her passion is to transform educational spaces to create a more just institution.

Topic: Decolonization & Community Sources of Empowerment in Education

Date: 11/19/2020
Time: 5pm
ZOOM ID: 924 5875 6941
Free and open to the public