Behavioral Misconduct Procedure Chart

Students are responsible for knowing & following all university rules and regulations.

A report is filed with the Office of the Dean of Students alleging misconduct.

Investigating officer has a conference with a student regarding incident. Student to provide description of allegation. Potential charges in advance via formal letter.

Case is referred to a University Hearing Committee or Hearing Examiner.

Decision is made regarding student’s conduct and sanctions are recommended.

Decision letter is sent stating student is responsible for violating University Policies and outlining educational sanctions.

Student accepts decision and completes sanctions.

More info on appeal process can be found in UWSP Chapter 17.

Decision letter is sent stating student is not responsible for violation of University Policies.

Decision letter is sent stating student is not responsible for violation of University Policies.

Student requests formal hearing.

A formal hearing is scheduled with a Hearing Examiner or University Hearing Committee.

Hearing occurs and decision made.

Decision letter is sent stating student is not responsible for violation of University Policies.

Decision letter is sent stating student is responsible for violating University Policies and outlining resulting sanction.