Handbook for Student Teaching
This handbook is for reference by all members of the teacher candidate support Triad: the cooperating teacher, the university supervisor, and the teacher candidate. Reference to the Triad is made throughout this document. The importance of open, honest, and ongoing communication between all members of the Triad is essential to the success of this capstone field experience.

Requirements detailed within this handbook are those of the Office of Field Experiences in the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point School of Education and are in compliance with the regulations of the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction. The purpose of these requirements and regulations is to assure the competence of each teacher licensed to teach in the State of Wisconsin.

This handbook provides guidelines for collaboration that can have strong and enduring impacts upon the preparation of future teachers. This, in turn, impacts students, schools, and communities throughout Wisconsin and the other destinations of the future teachers we prepare and certify.

Information contained in this handbook is subject to change. The online version, located at http://www.uwsp.edu/education/Documents/fieldExp/STHandbook.pdf represents the most up-to-date information on all subjects addressed in this handbook.

I. PROGRAM FRAMEWORK

Eligibility, Application, and Assignment Procedures

Criteria for admission to student teaching include competence in the area of academic specialization, competence in the professional education sequence and competence in the pre-student teaching clinical experience. This includes methods courses based on and leading to direct involvement in pre-school, elementary, middle, and secondary level classrooms. Detailed eligibility requirements are provided in the Professional Education Program's Undergraduate Handbook or on the SOE Graduate Program webpage.

Minimum requirements for a student teaching assignment are:

1. Admission to the Professional Education Program. Applications must be approved by the School of Education Office, Room 469, College of Professional Studies (715) 346-2040.
2. An overall grade point average of at least 2.75, including Professional Education courses as well as every subject area for which licensure is sought: major, minor or concentration. Consideration for internships requires a minimum 3.00 GPA.
3. Completion of mandatory courses in pedagogical methods and techniques, and all required pre-student teaching practicum experiences.
4. Demonstrate content knowledge by either 1) obtaining a 3.00 or higher in each teaching major and teaching minor or 2) submit passing scores on the required Praxis Subject Assessment exams. Students must meet one of the above requirements for teacher licensure. NOTE: Any student seeking a teaching license in French, German or Spanish are required to pass the ACTFL OPIC and WPT exams, regardless of their major/minor GPA.
5. Written approval from designated UWSP personnel for each program area for which licensure is sought.

Additional requirements:

- Submission of negative tuberculosis test results.
- Completion of a Conduct & Competency Affidavit, in which the applicant provides full disclosure of criminal behavior and court records.
- Completion of a criminal background check by CastleBranch.com. Districts requiring their own background checks will inform teacher candidates of the appropriate process/paperwork.
- Districts requiring teacher candidates to complete the WECAN online application, Teacher Insight, or an interview with school personnel, will provide necessary instructions and information to the OFE to assure students are informed of this requirement.

Applications for teacher candidate status are obtained at announced meetings held the semester prior to the student teaching scheduled experience. Attendance at the Application Meeting is mandatory for all students interested in applying to student teach. All meetings are announced in the School of Education (SOE) Newsletter. This online newsletter is available on the SOE Homepage. Application deadlines will be posted for each term. Late applications may not be accepted. Requests for waivers or exemptions from the above rules must be made in writing to the Director of Field Experiences prior to the deadline.

Placements for student teaching are initiated by requests from the Director of Field Experiences to school district administrators. All assignments are arranged consistent with policies, procedures and negotiated agreements in place among cooperating schools and the University. Because of the number of applicants involved each semester and because there are long-standing established procedures, students should not attempt to formally arrange a placement.

In requesting placements, the University will provide cooperating administrators and teachers with copies of a Teacher Candidate Resume submitted by the student as a part of the application process.
Two assignments per semester are the maximum, except for physical education/health and preschool/kindergarten/elementary.

Special requests by teacher candidates for grade levels, teachers or cooperating schools, or additional endorsements, can be noted on the application form. Requests to be placed outside the UWSP service area must receive written approval from the Director of Field Experiences (see Placement Options, below). Any such placements cannot be guaranteed. Requests for placements outside of the state will not be accepted unless they result from relocation or as a result of military assignment.

Conflict of Interest: Teacher candidates may not be assigned in cooperating schools and classrooms where the following conflicts occur: the teacher candidate has a child in that school classroom; the teacher candidate has a direct relative in that school building in a teaching or administrative capacity, or a direct relative in that school district in an administrative capacity; the school district has explicitly stated a policy regarding former students of that district's schools returning as teacher candidates. It is the policy of the Office of Field Experiences (OFE) to defer to local school district policies regarding assigning teacher candidates. The OFE may terminate any assignment in which a conflict of interest is found to occur.

Every effort will be made to provide satisfactory placements for all teacher candidates, but there can be no assurances of specific placements, nor are there guarantees that changes in placements will not occur. It is necessary that teacher candidates remain ready to accommodate all demands that the teaching semester will place upon their personal and travel arrangements. All placements are subject to approval by cooperating administrators and teachers and the teacher candidate. No party involved shall discriminate in the choice of schools, cooperating teachers, or teacher candidates on the basis of race, religion, ethnic origin, gender, physical disability, or age.

Placement Options
Out of Area
Students may request placement outside of the UWSP service area. The UWSP service area is defined by the map in Appendix A; (p. 26). Any requests for assignments outside this area must be made in person to the Director of Field Experiences. Availability of meeting times for this purpose is included in the application packet. Approval is subject to the ability to satisfy all program components. Out of Area placements cannot be guaranteed. Out-of-state placements can only be requested as the result of relocation or military assignment. Approval is subject to the decision of the Director of Field Experiences and the Head of the School of Education.
Fees are assessed to cover expenses incurred for such placements.

Internships
The Wisconsin Improvement Program (WIP), under the auspices of the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction, sponsors internships that are funded by local education agencies. WIP is a consortium of teacher education institutions and the WI DPI. The internship program offers pre-service teachers throughout Wisconsin a chance to enter the profession as licensed teachers with a specialized contract. Interns are paid a stipend of $4,500 per semester by the district while working under the guidance of an experienced cooperating teacher. The intern is licensed by the WI DPI and assumes increased responsibilities in the classroom setting. Detailed information about this program can be found at the site above.

➔ To learn more about the UWSP process for pursuing an internship, go to Internship Information at OFE: Students.
If student teaching occurs in this manner, most of the rules in this handbook remain applicable within the jurisdiction of local education agency contracts. Applicants for internships must have a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0. Fees are assessed to cover expenses incurred for internships.

Institute for Urban Education & UW-Milwaukee Guest Student Teaching Program
The Institute for Urban Education (IUE) and UW-Milwaukee’s School of Education Guest Student Teaching (GST) Program have merged to facilitate successful student teaching placements and experiences in Milwaukee area schools for teacher candidates from other institutes of higher education (IHE). The teacher candidate is a student of and earns teaching certification from their home IHE. However, IUE and UW Milwaukee facilitate a successful urban placement and provide support during that placement. We are confident that your semester as an IUE/GST will be a rewarding one filled with experiences to prepare you for effective urban teaching.

Student Teaching Abroad
Eligible students may apply for international student teaching opportunities through a program administered by Educators Abroad Student Teaching. Opportunities to student teach in over 40 different countries are available to approved candidates. Liaisons in each country supervise the academic experience for the candidate. Students participating in this program work with UWSP’s International Programs Office to negotiate the general logistics of the international student teaching component. International teacher candidates must complete a one quarter placement stateside and ten weeks in a host country. Additional costs are involved for participants of the Educators Abroad Student Teaching program. Students interested in this option are advised to plan three semesters in advance and must meet with the Director of Field Experiences at the earliest possible opportunity.

Placement Protocols
The Office of Field Experiences will work diligently to secure acceptable placements for teacher candidates. Students will be informed of approved placements beginning in April for fall semester and November for spring semester. As placements are finalized after the initial announcement date, notice will be provided immediately to students using UWSP email.

Upon receipt of information pertaining to the placement, the student must immediately contact the cooperating teacher to set up a meeting. At this meeting, the student should seek information about additional district placement procedures required of them. The student is responsible to complete all required paperwork/protocols required of the host district and school. Failure to do so will result in withdrawal of the placement.

Attendance at an Orientation Meeting held during finals week prior to the semester of student teaching is required. Meeting date(s) are announced in the application materials and the SOE Newsletter.
II. PROGRAM POLICIES

Statement of Expectations
By the end of the first week of each assignment, a written plan for the student teaching experience should be created. This plan should take the form of a Statement of Expectations that gives as much detail as can be arranged. It should include schedules, duties, specific subject areas, lesson formats and groupings. Most importantly, it should include an evaluation plan that specifies the format, the schedule and the procedures for self-evaluations, evaluative conferences and the completion of formative and summary evaluation reports. Please note that specific statements are of great value to teacher candidates in preparing their credentials. Accompanying signatures of both the teacher candidate and the cooperating teacher will represent agreement to the content of the statement. The Statement of Expectations must be shared with the university supervisor at the first visit or as requested.

The purpose of a Statement of Expectations is to open a process of communication about requirements, schedules, supervision, and evaluation. These plans should be responsive to performances and needs of the teacher candidate as they unfold during the experience. (Appendix B; p.29) The destination goal for the Statement of Expectations is a successful final evaluation. Note: There is no single correct form for the written statement (Appendix D; p.33).

Evaluations
Protocols for evaluation are found in Appendix D (p.43). When the Statement of Expectations is drafted, Triad members will agree on the format, timelines, and procedures for evaluating teacher candidate performance. It is recommended that the teacher candidate and cooperating teacher discuss progress and evaluation on a regular basis throughout the placement. It should be noted that student teaching must be evaluated in reference to evaluation criteria not to norms referring to other teacher candidates (Appendix E; p.50 and Appendix F; p. 60).

➔ Any indication that a teacher candidate might be failing to meet these criteria must be fully documented and remediated at the earliest possible opportunity. The university supervisor and Director of Field Experiences must be notified to allow planning for appropriate action that could include extension of or withdrawal from the student teaching assignment.

Cooperating teacher final evaluations must be signed by the teacher candidate and the cooperating teacher(s) and filed at the Office of Field Experiences within one week of the completion of the student teaching semester; failure to complete this will result in a grade of ‘incomplete’ and delay the certification process.

Attendance
Teacher candidates are assigned to full days for a full semester following the daily schedule and semester calendar of the cooperating school (Wis. Stats. 118.19 (3) (a)), or the equivalent. Cooperating teachers, administrators and university supervisors determine the exact dates upon which specific assignments take place within each term. Absences are permitted for professional reasons, such as attending seminars (attendance at teacher candidate seminars is mandatory) and other activities sponsored by UWSP, job interviews, or approved attendance at professional development offerings. All absences (including those for illness) require sufficient notice to both the cooperating teacher and university supervisor. The teacher candidate is responsible for providing lesson plans and all required instructional materials required during the absence in a timely fashion.

Absences due to illness of three or more days in succession require a doctor’s excuse be provided to the cooperating teacher and university supervisor immediately upon return. The university supervisor, in consultation with the Director of Field Experiences, will determine if additional time at the placement is required.
The teacher candidate is required to attend every teacher contracted day of the cooperating school schedule to which they are assigned. They must arrive at the cooperating school at the beginning of the cooperating teacher's day and depart at the end of the cooperating teacher's day. No arrivals or departures from school after the beginning or before the end of the school day (except for designated lunch periods) will be allowed without the express permission of the cooperating teacher and approval by the university supervisor.

Extra commitments (jobs, coaching, etc.) are recommended against whenever possible to allow full attention to the demands of teaching. If performance is negatively impacted by participation in such outside activities, the teacher candidate may be advised to relinquish participation in the outside activity or withdraw from the student teaching experience until they are able to make it their priority.

Teacher Candidate Seminars: Attendance at all seminars is mandatory and must be accommodated in the Statements of Expectations and weekly schedules. The teacher candidate will inform cooperating teachers of these dates at the orientation visit. At the final seminar, teacher candidates participate in a ‘Professional Presentation’ to peers, colleagues and invited guests.

Appearance & Personal Hygiene
Teacher candidates must dress professionally, be neat and well-groomed at all times.

Co-Teaching
The student teaching experience is a full-time commitment for the entire school district semester. Teacher candidates are considered learners at this stage in their pre-service program. They should not start out by carrying a heavy teaching load but should be actively engaged in student learning at all times (Appendix B; p.29). UWSP advocates a co-teaching model for this important experience. Co-teaching in student teaching enables two adults to collaborate in the classroom, actively engaging students for extended periods of time. The co-teaching model of student teaching allows students in the classroom increased opportunities to get help when and how they need it. This is a partnership model that allows the cooperating teacher and teacher candidate to work together, to maintain ongoing conversation about student needs and learning, and to deeply develop the professionalism of education. The teacher candidate can be actively engaged from the beginning of the placement and identified as an important contributor to all aspects of the classroom and school community.

To successfully co-teach, the cooperating teacher and teacher candidate must have a mindset of sharing the classroom and students. They must both be teachers. (Appendix G, p.62).

Responsibility for subjects/classes taught will vary among placements and is dependent on factors such as the candidate's readiness to assume increased responsibility, the number of preparations involved, the needs of the pupils, and the workload of the cooperating teacher. This will look different for internship assignments.
Duties
The student teaching experience should include such activities as classroom instruction and planning, student assessment, IEP meetings, parent-teacher conferences, staff meetings, supervisory duties, observing other teachers. Teacher candidates are expected to share school duties and responsibilities as governed by cooperating agency or school rules for professional conduct and confidentiality. Their duties and responsibilities will be specified by the cooperating teacher in a Statement of Expectations (Appendix C; p. 33) along with any accompanying manuals or guides. Teacher candidates are required to attend after-school staff or parent meetings and any other extramural activities pertinent to the assignment.

Teacher candidates are encouraged to become involved in co-curricular activities but should limit their participation to assisting rather than assuming leadership roles. When co-curricular involvement or other outside commitments interfere with the candidate’s performance in the classroom, the university supervisor must be notified immediately.

Teacher candidates work under the direct supervision of the assigned cooperating teacher(s), who is a mandated reporter under state laws pertaining to abuse and neglect of children. Teacher candidates are strongly encouraged to share any concerns with appropriate school personnel.

Confidentiality Laws
All educators are responsible for awareness of state and federal confidentiality laws including HIPAA (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act) and the district’s policies and procedures relating to HIPAA and FERPA (Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act). Teacher candidates must become familiar with these policies and how they affect the role of educators.

Enrichment Experiences
Cooperating teachers and supervisors may recommend visits to educational programs outside the cooperating programs. These visits could include remedial and support programs, various grade levels and other classrooms. Schedules for these visits must be approved by cooperating teachers and administrative staff in both the assigned cooperating site and the visit site.

Teacher candidate attendance at professional conferences, involvement with district curriculum committees, and other enriching experiences is encouraged. Under the direction of the cooperating teacher and supervisor, these opportunities help to broaden the candidate’s learning and personal experience with a broad range of professional expectations.

Lesson Plans
Teacher candidates must make and maintain a file of written plans for all instruction they are responsible for. All plans from the placement must be readily available upon request of the cooperating teacher, the university supervisor, or the Director of Field Experiences.

Typically, detailed plans are in outline form so that they may be read quickly and accurately. Detailed plans allow for review and analysis by the cooperating teacher prior to presentation. They also provide the framework for reflection and improvement.

There are many approaches to detailed planning. The format that planning takes for each teacher candidate will be determined by the collective expectations of all Triad members.
A teacher candidate must always be able to respond to these questions:
What are you teaching? Why are you teaching this? How are you actively involving all students in their learning? How do you know students are learning? How will student performance guide your next plan(s) for instruction?

Transportation and Housing
Transportation to and from the placement location is the responsibility of the teacher candidate. No insurance coverage is provided by the state or the UWSP. Personal insurance coverage should be purchased.

Note: Teacher candidates are strongly advised to not transport students in a personal vehicle.
Housing is the responsibility of the teacher candidate.

Supervisory Observations
Teacher candidates provide needed placement contact information to their university supervisor (Appendix J; p. 67). Teacher candidates are observed, supervised, and evaluated by a university supervisor during formal sessions of at least one hour each; this period does not include conferencing time. A minimum of four such sessions are required per semester. At least two sessions must include a conference that involves all members of the Triad. All observations, supervisory conferences and evaluations must be documented on approved forms (p.45-49) and become a part of the candidate’s certification file.
In addition to supervisory visits, teacher candidates maintain weekly contact with their university supervisor through required journal reflections and sharing upcoming teaching schedules/plans (Appendix H; p.64).

Grades/Degrees: The grade assigned for student teaching through consultation with the university supervisor and cooperating teacher will be ‘pass,’ ‘fail,’ ‘incomplete’ or ‘withdrawn,’ according to the grading system stated in the appropriate UWSP Catalog. There must be consistent criteria for all evaluations. Because teacher candidates follow the semester schedule of the cooperating agency, the assignment does not end until after the close of the university semester. Grades of ‘not reported’ occur in the university record until the close of the student teaching semester, when final grades are submitted. Degrees are not conferred until grades are reported and posted by the Registrar.

Communications between Cooperating LEAs and UWSP
Cooperating LEAs may provide ongoing feedback to the university supervisor or the Director of Field Experiences regarding the professional behavior of the teacher candidate as it relates to the InTASC standards (p.50) and UWSP Teacher Candidate Dispositions (p.67).

Termination of Assignment
A teacher candidate assignment is severable, which is to say that UWSP reserves the right to remove any teacher candidate, cooperating teacher, or university supervisor from any assignment, subject to documented notice to all parties to the assignment. Furthermore, the cooperating local education agency likewise has the right to terminate a teacher candidate’s or supervisor’s assignment. In the event of a terminated assignment, the teacher candidate may request an alternate assignment subject to time and place conditions determined by the Director of Field Experiences. A teacher candidate may also elect to withdraw from an assignment, subject to notice, usually without penalty or prejudice.

Classroom Supervision by the Cooperating Teacher
The teacher candidate must be supervised by the cooperating teacher at all times. The cooperating teacher must be readily available to assist with classroom situations that arise unexpectedly. Intern teachers, by license and design of the assignment, are allowed to be unsupervised for up to 50% of the placement.
Professional Liability
Student teaching assignments are covered for professional liability by the State of Wisconsin under provisions of S.S. 165.25(6) and 895.46(1) of Chapter 81, Laws of 1975 for all University of Wisconsin System teacher candidates, or for any other assigned field experience. This coverage protects teacher candidates against claims from third parties for personal injury or property damage caused by the acts of teacher candidates while performing within the scope of their duties, including mandated reports of child abuse. Professional liability insurance is available through professional organizations and private companies. Candidates are strongly recommended to obtain this coverage.

Health, Safety & Injury
Prior to any assignment, teacher candidates must submit an affidavit certifying them non-contagious for tuberculosis. It is strongly recommended that a hepatitis test be conducted before beginning an assignment. At the beginning of an assignment, the cooperating school office will request personal emergency forms from the teacher candidates.

It is required that teacher candidates become aware of each cooperating school's policies for dealing with health and safety emergencies, particularly those involving infectious diseases and blood-borne pathogens. All local school policies governing the reporting of any accidents or illness that affect the assignment must be followed.

Teacher candidates must make arrangements for their own health services. At the UWSP, all graduate and undergraduate students who are registered as full-time students are eligible for medical care at the University Health Service facility, which does not include hospitalization care. Personal health insurance is the responsibility of the teacher candidate.

Student teaching can be a stressful time in a candidate’s life. Be aware that the UWSP Counseling Center is available to assist any student needing support during this time. Phone: 715.346.3553; Email: counsel@uwsp.edu

Statement of Non-Discrimination
The UWSP does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, sex, national origin, disability, ancestry, age, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, pregnancy, marital status or parental status in accordance with WI Statute Chapter 36.12 and Board of Regents policy. This statement is published, in part, to fulfill requirements of Section 86.9 of title 45, Code of Federal Regulations, which implements Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972.

Access & Accommodations
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) requires state and local governments and places of public accommodation to furnish appropriate auxiliary aids and services where necessary to ensure effective access and communication for individuals with disabilities, unless doing so would result in a fundamental alteration to the program or service or an undue burden. Therefore, the UWSP, in conjunction with its cooperating schools and agencies, is accessible to teacher candidates with disabilities and will make every attempt to provide reasonable accommodations for qualified individuals with disabilities. Such requests must be indicated in writing upon application for student teaching or at the earliest applicable time.

Job Actions
If the student teaching assignment is affected by a job action or work stoppage of any kind, the Office of Field Experiences must be notified immediately. When a job action involving work stoppage occurs in a cooperating school system where teacher candidates are assigned, it is the policy of the UWSP that the teacher candidates be non-participants. They would remain away from the assignment on a standby basis during the period of time when schools are closed or during the period of time when schools are declared open without resolution between the parties involved.
Arrangements may be made by the Director of Field Experiences to provide experiences in a different location on a standby basis until the stoppage in the assigned school is terminated.

Substitute Teaching

Teacher candidates who do not possess a valid Wisconsin teaching license, a substitute teaching license, or a substitute teacher permit may not, under any circumstances, serve as a substitute teacher for their cooperating teacher or for any other teacher. In the absence of the cooperating teacher, teacher candidates may continue with regularly assigned duties only when a licensed teacher is employed in place of the cooperating teacher. While interns do have a license, they are never to be utilized as substitutes.

The University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, School of Education, Office of Field Experiences abides by the rules set by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction

Wisconsin State Statute Chapter 118 General School Operations
118.19 Teacher certificates and licenses; administrator and pupil services professional licenses.

(3) (a) No license to teach in any public school may be issued unless the applicant possesses a bachelor’s degree including such professional training as the department by rule requires, except as permitted under par. (b) and ss. 115.28 (17) (a), 118.191, 118.1915, 118.192, 118.193, 118.194, and 118.197. Notwithstanding s. 36.11 (16), no teacher preparatory program in this state may be approved by the state superintendent under s. 115.28 (7) (a), unless each student in the program is required to complete student teaching consisting of full days for a full semester following the daily schedule and semester calendar of the cooperating school.

- Only the Office of Field Experiences may establish, alter, move, or terminate a placement.
- No placement may end prior to the last day of the semester set by the district in which a teacher candidate has been placed.
- The student teaching placements MUST be complete before a teacher candidate may begin a licensed teaching position.
III. TEACHER CANDIDATES

To the Teacher Candidate:

Welcome to student teaching, the culminating clinical experience of your professional preparation! Your success in this experience will depend upon your initiative in applying what you have learned about teaching. Help will be available from your cooperating teacher and university supervisor, with whom you form a Triad whose purposes are building our profession and serving our students and communities. To the extent that this team communicates and collaborates, we can all achieve our goals.

This handbook is a product of collaboration and consultations among teacher educators, cooperating teachers and administrators, with the assistance of teacher candidates and the efforts of the staff of the UWSP Office of Field Experiences, School of Education, College of Professional Studies and Teacher Education Preparation & Licensing Team of the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction.

Suggestions and comments are welcome at any time, because this handbook, like teaching, is an open work always in progress.

Take every opportunity to become familiar with the recommendations, rules, standards and criteria in this book and the working relationships that depend upon them. At all points of this process, the Office of Field Experiences is ready to assist you in completing your teacher education at the highest possible level of accomplishment. Please let us know how we can help you in building your career in our profession.

Cathleen Olds
Director of Field Experiences

The following sections are addressed to you, the teacher candidate. Because learning to teach is a gradual process whose outcomes cannot always be precisely predicted, most of the information presented is made up of samples and approximations. All UWSP teacher candidates are expected to professionally fulfill the responsibilities described.

Responsibilities of Teacher Candidates

The teacher candidate will

- abide by standards of professional decorum established by the local education agency for personal comportment in interactions with students, staff, administrators, and community members.
- design, deliver and assess instructional programs and participate in their supervision and evaluation.
- maintain written plans for all lessons taught in a collection that is available for review upon request.
- submit a weekly schedule and reflective journal to the assigned university supervisor.
- maintain records of the above activities (i.e., plans, Statement of Expectations, evaluations) as directed by the cooperating teacher and university supervisor.
Orientation to the Cooperating School: Upon notification of your assignment, you must contact the cooperating teacher and arrange a first meeting as soon as possible so that you can learn specifics of the school’s calendar and daily schedule. Complete the Teacher Candidate Information form (Appendix H; p.64) and share it with your university supervisor as soon as it is completed. Begin your term by introducing yourself to the administrator and the office staff. Schools differ in many ways and each cooperating school's styles and policies must be learned, not assumed. You must find out rules and protocols for such matters as parking, appearance, demeanor, and manners of address (i.e., how students address teachers and vice versa). The earlier you begin planning your assignment with your cooperating teacher, the better your chances of success.

⇒ Beginning with the first week of each assignment, you must send a weekly journal reflection and upcoming weekly schedule to your university supervisor (Appendix I; p.65). These reports are important for documenting your work and arranging for optimal supervision and evaluation. These reports must continue until the last week of the placement.

For Teacher Candidates to Remember

Orientation
- Familiarize yourself with the school district (philosophy, structure, materials, and neighborhood).
- Read the school district/school handbook, student handbook, and parent handbook.
- Follow school policies as applied to employed staff, including (but not limited to):
  - Arrival and departure times
  - Dress code
  - Reporting absences
  - Parking
  - Use of teacher’s lounge/work room
  - School wide discipline plan
- Become familiar with:
  - School media center
  - Health services
  - Guidance services
  - Co-curricular activities
  - Technology resources
  - Duplication of materials
  - Computer usage
  - Lesson plans
  - Rapport with students
  - Inservice sessions
  - Faculty meetings
  - Grading procedures
  - Emergency & safety procedures
  - Fire & tornado drill regulations
  - Student referral procedures
  - Rules of conduct in the school (for students & staff)

⇒ Take the initiative to learn and grow; don’t wait to be asked to do something!

Planning & Teaching
- Take responsibility for being a co-teacher in the classroom.
- Become familiar with curricula approved by the district.
- Understand expectations for lesson plan format, due dates, procedures for feedback from the cooperating teacher and the process for revisions.
- Prepare lessons well in advance of actual classroom teaching.
- Maintain a collection of lesson plans developed and taught. Reflect for future use.
- Respect student/family, ethnic and cultural backgrounds.
- Assist in maintaining a positive learning environment.
- Collect data on student learning, analyze it, reflect on your work, and develop strategies to improve student learning.
- Apply research-based classroom management strategies.
- Utilize information technology to improve student learning.
• Contribute to the development of higher order thinking.
• Actively engage all learners.
• Be actively engaged in all aspects of the classroom environment during the entire placement.

Observation & Feedback
  o Observe the cooperating teacher and continue to learn.
  o Show initiative and willingness to work.
  o Be receptive to suggestions and criticism. Constructive feedback from the cooperating teacher and university supervisor is essential for growth.
  o Ask questions of, and for advice or suggestions from, the cooperating teacher and university supervisor.
  o Discuss and clarify with the cooperating teacher the processes for observation and gathering feedback on your performance.
  o Conference with the cooperating teacher – both pre- and post-observations.
  o Participate in regular conferences with the cooperating teacher to assure that regular feedback is provided – not just when problems arise.
  o Brainstorm with the cooperating teacher specific means of improving.
  o Video record yourself teaching for self-analysis and reflection.
  o Invite the building principal to observe you and conduct a conference (when possible).

Evaluation
  o Review the evaluation protocol with your cooperating teacher and university supervisor early in the placement.
  o Determine together with the Triad your areas of strength and growth, and areas requiring further attention. Create SMART goals to future your development.
  o Participate in conferences with the cooperating teacher and the university supervisor and reflect upon your ongoing growth as a teacher candidate.
  o Verify that all supervisor and cooperating teacher evaluations are sent to the Office of Field Experiences and keep a copy for your records.

Professionalism
  o Embrace professional values and dispositions (Appendix J; p.67).
  o Actively demonstrate your philosophy of teaching.
  o Be flexible – in all aspects of the experience.
  o Remember that you are a guest in the school and classroom.
  o Demonstrate respectful confidentiality in all aspects of your job.
  o Request to observe in classrooms to expand your experiences in areas you find to be challenging.
  o Participate in faculty meetings, parent-teacher conferences, and other pertinent school functions.
  o Be on time; dress professionally; don’t make excuses.
  o Report absences in a timely fashion – and always leave lesson plans and materials prepared.
  o Meet deadlines for lesson plans; be well prepared and organized to deliver them.
  o Use technology appropriately – that is, only for school/university business!
  o Interact with colleagues – professionally.
  o Remember you are there to learn – ask for advice/suggestions.
Keep communication channels open by participating in regular exchange of information with your cooperating teacher and university supervisor.

Complete all work related to your student teaching requirements.

Weekly Schedule & Reflection Journal
The teacher candidate is responsible for reporting weekly to the university supervisor (Appendix I; p. 65). The report must include two things: reflection of learning from the week just completed and a detailed schedule for the upcoming week in which teacher candidate involvement in the classroom is clearly indicated.

- Reflection Journal
  - At the end of each teaching week, make time to reflect upon the activities of the week and the things learned. Conversation with your cooperating teacher and other school personnel can help you in this process.
  - Focus your reflection on the InTASC Teaching Standards (Appendix E; p. 50).
  - Remember, a reflection is not a story about what happened – it is a discussion of what has been learned from what was experienced and how this learning will influence future teaching.
  - Your reflection is shared with your university supervisor as an important means of communication and monitoring your progress.
  - Use this opportunity to pose questions, request feedback, and to monitor your own growth.

- Upcoming Weekly Schedule
  - Include time of day (listing ‘Period 3’ does not provide sufficient information!).
  - Indicate subject and activities for the time period.
  - Clearly identify times that will be spent observing/team teaching/assisting/teaching (color coding works nicely); this allows the supervisor to determine the best time to visit.
  - Indicate room number where activities will take place.

→ This assignment is a required component of your student teaching experience.

→ These forms are important documentation of the progress of the student teaching assignment. In addition, reflective journal entries about events of the previous week can be a vital and confidential means of addressing a host of issues. To the extent that teacher candidates communicate with university supervisors, successful collaboration is possible.

→ The university supervisor will establish specific expectations (i.e., day of the week due, possible modification of sample format*) for the submission of the reflection journal and weekly schedule.

This requirement is an important component of your student teaching experience. Your performance reflects upon you as a future professional.

→ Teacher candidates observed by more than one supervisor must provide each one with the appropriate documents (reflection/schedule).

* A sample reflection journal/weekly schedule format is included in Appendix I (p. 65). In cooperation with the university supervisor, this form may be modified as desired.

Letters of Recommendation
It is your responsibility to obtain letters of reference from cooperating teachers and administrators. These letters are a very important component of your credentials. For information about the preparation of reference letters and credentials, see Appendix L; p. 69.
To the Cooperating Teacher:

This handbook is to guide you in meeting the requirements for student teaching that are set by the UWSP Office of Field Experiences, in compliance with the regulations of the Wisconsin State Department of Public Instruction. The purpose of these requirements and regulations is to assure the competence of each teacher licensed to teach in the State of Wisconsin.

In order to achieve this purpose your professional cooperation is indispensable. With your assistance, along with commitments by educators at your school and district, the work of preparing professional teachers can succeed in meeting Wisconsin Standards of competence and setting criteria for exemplary professional knowledge, skills, and dispositions. Quality schools depend upon highly qualified teachers and student teaching is a crucial part of quality assurance. Through three-way interaction among you, the teacher candidate and the university supervisor, this process is both a capstone of pre-service courses and a foundation for in-service professional growth.

This handbook provides guidelines for collaboration that can have strong and enduring effects upon you, your colleagues, your students and your schools and communities. The Office of Field Experiences extends our gratitude for your contribution to this process and will express it with our support in every possible way.

Please contact us at any time with your questions, concerns, or comments.

Thanks again for your participation.

Selection of Cooperating Teachers

Cooperating teachers play a vital role in the development of future teachers. They are an integral part of the Student Teaching Triad and strategic to the development of future teachers. Their mentorship of Teacher candidates contributes to a strong and promising future for our schools and their students.

To serve as a cooperating teacher, teachers must meet these requirements (WI Administrative Code [PI34.15(6)]):

1. Hold a WI license and have volunteered for the assignment as a cooperating teacher or practicum supervisor
2. Have at least three years of teaching experience with at least one year of teaching experience in the school or school system of current employment
3. Have completed training in both the supervision of clinical students and in the applicable standards [WI Teacher Standards] in PI34 subchapter II [PI34.02].

In addition, the following qualifications are important:

- Demonstrate a strong desire to serve as a cooperating teacher
- Demonstrate professional and ethical behavior and attitudes.
- Demonstrate a high level of professional teaching skills.
- Recommended by school and university personnel.

Many avenues exist for training. UWSP offers an online, one credit, graduate course, EDUC 758, Cooperating Teacher Fundamentals in Preservice Teacher Education, which meets the DPI requirement for training. Cooperating teachers must have an Affidavit of Training (Appendix M; p.71) on file with the Office of Field Experiences.

Responsibilities of Cooperating Teachers

_The cooperating teacher will_

- develop a Statement of Expectations (Appendix C; p.33) plan that provides for the teacher candidate to demonstrate proficiency.
- direct the day to day activities of the teacher candidate, providing opportunities for them to become engaged in all steps of the teaching assignment.
- participate in observations, conferences, and the preparation of reports for the purposes of evaluating the teacher candidate’s performance, in conjunction with the university supervisor.
- provide at least one written Cooperating Teacher Evaluation (p.45) submitted to the Office of Field Experiences [PI34.13]. Student teachers are encouraged to keep a copy for their personal files.

For Cooperating Teachers to Remember

_These suggestions are provided to help assure a successful experience:_

Orientation

- Provide a workspace for the teacher candidate.
- Assemble a packet of school and classroom procedures and policies.
- Introduce the teacher candidate to administrators, faculty, support staff, and other co-workers.
- Share school duties and routine matters with the teacher candidate.
- Discuss record keeping and parent report systems.
- Review important dates/meetings/planned activities.
- Ease the teacher candidate’s anxiety and apprehension about the experience.

Planning & Teaching

- Provide the teacher candidate with district curriculum and assessment resources.
- Assist the teacher candidate in locating teaching resources.
- Establish clear expectations for lesson plans: format, due date, procedure for feedback, and revisions.
- Encourage the teacher candidate to experiment with new materials, methods, and techniques.
- Discuss and support a range of teaching strategies to meet the needs of diverse students.
- Provide opportunities for the teacher candidate to gain experience in a variety of teaching formats (i.e. small group/large group/team teaching).
- Assist the teacher candidate in understanding specific needs of your students.
- Require that the teacher candidate maintain a folder of lesson plans.
- Include the teacher candidate as an active member of the ‘teaching team’ from the onset of the placement; include a variety of experiences. Incorporate the practice of co-teaching.
- Allow the teacher candidate to gradually assume responsibility for the teaching load.
- Make it clear to your students that the teacher candidate is a co-teacher in the classroom.
- Allow for lesson delivery with redirection/interruption only as needed; give feedback after the lesson.

Observation & Feedback

- Discuss and clarify with the teacher candidate your processes for observation and providing feedback.
- Demonstrate effective teaching methods and discuss these methods with the teacher candidate.
- Conference with the teacher candidate – both pre- and post-observations.
Schedule regular conferences between the cooperating teacher and the teacher candidate to assure that regular feedback is provided – not just when problems arise.
Always include a discussion of strengths...as well as challenges!
Focus on specific skills/performances.
Brainstorm with the teacher candidate specific means of improving.
Include both formal and informal observation practices.
Provide both written and oral feedback.
Allow the teacher candidate to video tape their teaching for self-analysis and reflection.
Encourage the teacher candidate to invite the building principal to observe them and conference (when possible).
Be responsible to the day-to-day development of the teacher candidate.

Evaluation
Review the evaluation protocol with the teacher candidate early in the placement (Appendix D; p. 43).
Utilize the Cooperating Teacher Evaluation (p.45) as a reflection tool several times (especially at the mid-term) during the placement, not just at the end.
Recognize that use of the form enables an objective and positive evaluation rather than one that may be subjective and non-specific.
Determine together with the teacher candidate areas of strength and growth, and areas requiring further attention.
Work with the university supervisor to assist the teacher candidate. Participate (when possible) in Triad conferences when the supervisor visits the classroom.
Document and report to the university supervisor limited progress or concerns about the teacher candidate as soon as they are noted. The supervisor is responsible for informing the Office of Field Experiences of problems.
Complete the Cooperating Teacher Evaluation no later than one week following the completion of the student teaching placement. Review with the teacher candidate, acquire signatures required, and return to the Office of Field Experiences in the SASE provided, or any other appropriate manner.

Professionalism
Exhibit a positive attitude toward the education of teachers and respect for the integrity of the teacher education program.
Guide your teacher candidate in the values and dispositions of the profession (Appendix J; p.67).
Model best practices: coach the teacher candidate to grow and develop.
Demonstrate your philosophy of teaching.
Demonstrate respectful confidentiality in all aspects of your job.
Provide opportunities for the teacher candidate to observe classroom teaching other than your own. Select role models who will demonstrate skills the student needs to develop.
Involve the teacher candidate in faculty meetings, parent-teacher conferences, IEPs, and other pertinent school functions.
Share your professional involvement in organizations, projects, etc. with your teacher candidate. Connect them to the profession beyond the classroom walls!
Encourage your teacher candidate to attend teacher conferences and other workshops.
Complete a letter of recommendation for the teacher candidate, upon their request. This is considered to be one of the most important pieces of information in an application file. For helpful information about the preparation of letters of reference refer to the UWSP Academic & Career Advising Center webpage at: https://www.uwsp.edu/ACAC/Pages/default.aspx.
In the absence of the cooperating teacher, teacher candidates may continue with regularly assigned duties only when a licensed teacher is employed in place of the cooperating teacher.
To the University Supervisor:
This handbook is for your reference in meeting the requirements for student teaching that are set by the UWSP Office of Field Experiences, in compliance with the regulations of the Wisconsin State Department of Public Instruction. The purpose of these requirements and regulations is to assure the competence of each teacher licensed to teach in the State of Wisconsin.

Your supervision and guidance of the teacher candidate in their placement allows them to gain further insight into the complex act of teaching. Additionally, you serve as an important resource to cooperating teachers and administrators in schools. Quality schools depend upon highly qualified teachers and student teaching is a crucial part of quality assurance. Through three-way interaction among you, the teacher candidate and the cooperating teacher, this process is both a capstone of pre-service courses and a foundation for in-service professional growth. Your assessment and evaluation of the teacher candidate’s performance is the deciding factor in their successful completion of our program and their certification for licensure.

This handbook provides guidelines for collaboration between the university and the education community. The Office of Field Experiences extends our gratitude for your contribution to this process and will express it with our support in every possible way.

Please contact us at any time with your questions, concerns, or comments. Thanks again for your support and participation.

Director of Field Experiences

To serve as a university supervisor faculty must have ‘at least 3 years of teaching, pupil services, or administrative experience or the equivalent as determined by the department in prekindergarten through grade 12 settings.’ (WI Administrative Code [PI34.11 (2)(c)]). Adjunct supervisors must have at minimum a master’s degree in addition to the experience listed above.

In addition, for adjunct faculty, the following qualifications are considered:
- Experience with supervision/mentoring and evaluation of teachers in classroom environments.
- Demonstrate a strong desire to serve as a university supervisor.
- Demonstrate professional and ethical behavior and attitudes.
- Demonstrate a high level of professional teaching skills.
- Recommended by school and university personnel.

Responsibilities of University Supervisor
The university supervisor will
- provide the teacher candidate and cooperating teacher with information about DPI and University requirements
- ensure that at least four formal supervisory visits take place within each student teaching semester, each of at least one hour in length (not including conferencing time), structured so that the teacher candidate and cooperating teacher have access to the observer for conferences within reasonable times prior to or after each visit

- be available for evaluative conferences or other hearings with the teacher candidate, cooperating teacher, cooperating administrator or their delegates
- keep accurate records of the assignment and supervision evaluation of the teacher candidate
- review the teacher candidate reflective journal submissions on a weekly basis and provide timely feedback
- ensure that university supervisor formative assessments (Appendix D; p.43) are filed with the Office of Field Experiences within one week of completion of the student teaching observation. Email PDFs/Word docs to field.experiences@uwsp.edu.
- Participate in the final assessment and submit the evaluation report in a timely fashion.
- submit TERs monthly to the OFE. Payment Services will not reimburse trips after 90 days.

For University Supervisors to Remember

*These suggestions are provided to help assure a successful experience:

Orientation
- Contact the cooperating teacher early in the placement – explain your role and expectations of the student teaching experience.
- Establish clear guidelines for the teacher candidate regarding weekly schedule, reflection journal submissions (Appendix I; p. 65) written lesson plans.
- Review the Statement of Expectations (Appendix C; p.33) established by the cooperating teacher and shared with the teacher candidate. Assure that both parties have clarified expectations – especially concerning lesson plans and evaluative feedback.
- Discuss observations and evaluations – with both the teacher candidate and cooperating teacher.
- Establish a tentative timeline for visits – with both the teacher candidate and cooperating teacher.
- Discuss your process and timeline for your final assessment.
- Ease the teacher candidate’s anxiety and apprehension about the experience.
- Be supportive of the cooperating teacher’s efforts and be readily available to them.

Observation & Feedback
- Assure that the minimum number of visits is conducted – of at least one hour in length, not including conferencing time.
- Arrange convenient times for observations and allow for time to conference with the teacher candidate and cooperating teacher.
- Provide feedback to the teacher candidate from your observations and review of weekly reflection journals.
- Inform the teacher candidate as soon as possible if there are concerns about a successful completion.
- Notify the Director of Field Experiences as soon as possible of potential problems – with either a teacher candidate or cooperating teacher.
Evaluation

- Review the evaluation protocols (Appendix D; p. 43) with the teacher candidate and cooperating teacher early in the placement.
- Determine together with the teacher candidate areas of strength and growth, and areas requiring further attention.
- Work with the cooperating teacher to assist the teacher candidate.
- Complete the University Supervisor Formative Assessment (p. 48) for each observation. Review with the teacher candidate and cooperating teacher. Provide the OFE a copy for inclusion in the student’s teaching file.
- Discuss the final evaluation of the teacher candidate with the cooperating teacher.
- Submit a final grade of pass/fail/incomplete for the student teaching experience(s) to the Director of Field Experiences at the end of the placement.

Professionalism

- Exhibit a positive attitude toward the education of teachers and respect for the integrity of the teacher education program.
- Guide your teacher candidate in the values and dispositions of the profession (Appendix J; p. 67).
- Be a positive, guiding force by sharing useful ideas in helping the teacher candidate to grow.
- Arrive on time for scheduled observations.
- Be respectful of the teacher’s classroom.
- Demonstrate respectful confidentiality in all aspects of your job.

Phases of the Student Teaching Experience

A teacher candidate must be actively involved in the classroom from the beginning through the end of the term. The depth of that involvement follows a progression from orientation to increasing levels of engagement followed by a period for closure. These phases will best be determined by the cooperating teacher. There is not a hard and fast rule about how much time should be spent in each phase.

Phase 1: Orientation is a time for learning about the school building, classroom, and students. It includes time for the teacher candidate to learn and assist as the cooperating teacher delivers instruction, manages the classroom, and conducts other school-based activities. The purpose of this phase is for the candidate to become acclimated to the classroom and to the school.

Phase 2: Active Participation and Instruction is time spent engaged in the duties of teaching and encompasses the majority of the student teaching experience. This phase includes time for the teacher candidate to assist with instruction throughout the day. This also includes time spent in non-classroom duties, such as planning periods, faculty meetings, team meetings, conferences, and other professional responsibilities. The goal of this phase is to help the teacher candidate experience the demands of full-time teaching and to develop the confidence and skills needed to become a successful educator.

The cooperating teacher, in consultation with the university supervisor, will determine how much ‘solo’ teaching time is appropriate for the teacher candidate. In some classrooms, the teacher candidate will have several weeks of leadership in which s/he assumes most of the responsibility for planning and implementing instruction and assessment of student learning. In other classrooms, the cooperating teacher and teacher candidate will share the classroom duties as co-teachers for a majority of the experience. In this situation the teacher candidate must still demonstrate the capacity to fill the leadership role in a competent manner.

Phase 3: Transition and Reflection is time for the teacher candidate to release leadership of planning, instruction, and student assessment back to the cooperating teacher. The teacher candidate may want to spend time in other classrooms where s/he can continue to develop areas identified for continued growth. They are still involved as a co-teacher. The final evaluation should be the focus of conversation and reflection by all members of the triad.

Statement of Expectations

The purpose of a Statement of Expectations is to open a process of communication about requirements, schedules, supervision, and evaluation. It is a tentative process rather than a guaranteed product. There is no single correct form for the written statement. Samples follow for your consideration.

Statement of Expectations

The Teacher Candidate Will Be Expected To:

- Arrive 15 minutes prior to the start of the school day (School day: 7:30—3:30)
- Dress professionally
- Establish and Reinforce Classroom Rules:
  - Be Safe
  - Be Respectful
  - Be Responsible
- Follow Established Grading Practices: Follow John Muir’s grade scale and cooperating teacher’s expectations for late/missing assignments
- Communicate Effectively With:
  - Students
  - Parents
  - Colleagues
  - The Teacher Candidate-Cooperating Teacher-University Supervisor Triad
- Demonstrate Organizational and Time Management Skills:
  - Lesson Plans
  - Equipment/Material Reservations
  - Photo Copying
- Follow all [School/District] rules and policies (see school handbook)
- Collaborate in his/her Evaluation Process
- Self-Reflect Upon Observations and Teaching Experiences
- Follow Protocol to Address Potential Conflicts/Concerns During Field Experience

Timeline:

Weeks 1 and 2:

- Continue introductions to team, support staff, administration as needed
- “Refresher” Tour of building
- Review district and school handbooks
- Read and discuss the Statement of Expectations; Revise
- Observe day’s lessons and interact with students
- Get acquainted with students (Ice Breakers)
- At week’s end, lead one warm-up activity (grammar, read-aloud, est.)
  - Video tape warm-up and self-reflect in composition notebook after viewing
- Complete the “Self-Reflection Tool of the 10 Wisconsin Teaching Standards”
- At week’s end, review revised Statement of Expectations that reflects teacher candidate’s input; discuss and agree on the terms
- At weeks’ end, cooperating teacher and teacher candidate conference for 15-30 minutes regarding week’s observations and reflections

Week 3:

- Meet and plan co-teaching for Week 4
- Continue observing day’s lessons and interacting with students

SAMPLE
• Lead one warm-up activity (grammar, read-aloud, est.) and self-reflect in composition notebook
• At week’s end, facilitate a small group reading/writing workshop and self-reflect in composition notebook
• Cooperating teacher and teacher candidate conference for 15-30 minutes regarding week’s observations and reflections; Cooperating teacher will share evaluation comments:
  - Anecdotal notes
  - Collaborative Log

Week 4:
• Meet and plan co-teaching for Week 5
• Lead three warm-up activities (grammar, read-aloud, est.) and self-reflect on each in composition notebook
• Team teaching with cooperating teacher as the lead teacher and teacher candidate as facilitator; teacher candidate will be encouraged to participate and elaborate throughout the lessons
• Continue to facilitate small groups in reading/writing workshops and self-reflect in composition notebook
• Cooperating teacher and teacher candidate conference for 15-30 minutes regarding week’s observations and reflections; Cooperating teacher will share evaluation comments:
  - Anecdotal notes
  - Collaborative Log

Week 5:
• Meet and plan co-teaching for Week 6
• Lead four warm-up activities (grammar, read-aloud, est.) and self-reflect on each in composition notebook
• Continue co-teaching with cooperating teacher as the lead teacher and teacher candidate as facilitator; teacher candidate will be encouraged to participate and elaborate throughout the lessons
  - Video tape one lesson and self-reflect in composition notebook after viewing
• Cooperating teacher and teacher candidate conference for 15-30 minutes regarding week’s observations and reflections; Cooperating teacher will share evaluation comments:
  - Anecdotal notes
  - Collaborative Log

Week 6:
• Meet and plan co-teaching for Week 7
• Lead five warm-up activities (grammar, read-aloud, est.) and self-reflect on each in composition notebook
• Continue co-teaching with teacher candidate as the lead teacher and cooperating teacher as facilitator; cooperating teacher will be encouraged to participate and elaborate throughout the lessons
  - Video tape one lesson and self-reflect in composition notebook after viewing
• Cooperating and teacher candidate meet to outline themes and objectives for Weeks 8 and 9
• Teacher candidate will plan lessons for Weeks 8 and 9
• Cooperating teacher and teacher candidate conference for 15-30 minutes regarding week’s observations and reflections; Cooperating teacher will share evaluation comments:
  - Anecdotal notes
  - Collaborative Log

Week 7:
• At beginning of week (Monday or Tuesday), teacher candidate will submit lessons for Week 8; cooperating teacher and teacher candidate will discuss revisions and suggestions the next day
• Lead five warm-up activities (grammar, read-aloud, est.) and self-reflect each in composition notebook
• Continue co-teaching with teacher candidate as the lead teacher and cooperating teacher as facilitator; cooperating teacher will be encouraged to participate and elaborate throughout the lessons
  o Video tape one lesson and self-reflect in composition notebook after viewing
• Cooperating teacher and teacher candidate conference for 15-30 minutes regarding week’s observations and reflections; Cooperating teacher will share evaluation comments:
  -Anecdotal notes
  -Collaborative Log

Week 8:
• At beginning of week (Monday or Tuesday), teacher candidate will submit lessons for Week 9; cooperating teacher and teacher candidate will discuss revisions and suggestions the next day
• Teacher candidate will assume the responsibilities for each period of the day; the cooperating teacher will assume the role of supervisor and critique the day’s lessons
  o Video tape one lesson and self-reflect in composition notebook after viewing
• Cooperating teacher and teacher candidate conference for 15-30 minutes regarding week’s observations and reflections; Cooperating teacher will share evaluation comments via:
  -Anecdotal notes from each lesson
  -Collaborative Log
  -University’s evaluation tool
  -Pertinent Wisconsin Teaching Standard(s)

Week 9
• Teacher candidate will continue with the responsibilities for each period of the day; the cooperating teacher will assume the role of supervisor and critique the day’s lessons
  o Video tape one lesson and self-reflect in composition notebook after viewing
• Cooperating teacher and teacher candidate will contact colleagues in the literacy department for the teacher candidate to observe (grades 6, 7, and 8)
• Cooperating teacher and teacher candidate conference for 15-30 minutes regarding week’s observations and reflections; Cooperating teacher will share evaluation comments via:
  -Anecdotal notes from each lesson
  -Collaborative Log
  -University’s evaluation tool
  -Pertinent Wisconsin Teaching Standard(s)

Week 10:
• Teacher candidate will assume the role of facilitator in the classroom while the cooperating teacher assumes the responsibilities for each period of the day
• Throughout the week, observe at least one colleague from each grade level and record reflections in his/her composition notebook
• Shadow one student for one whole day and record reflections in his/her composition notebook
• Complete the “Self-Reflection Tool of the 10 Wisconsin Teaching Standards”
• Cooperating teacher and teacher candidate conference for 15-30 minutes regarding week’s observations and reflections
* Cooperating and teacher candidate conferences will be flexible and include the University Supervisor’s four evaluation visits
Statement of Expectations for Student Teaching

Dates: [Sample]
Teacher Candidate: [Sample]
Cooperating Teacher: [Sample]
School: [Sample]
Grade: [Sample]

All lessons must be pre-approved at least one day prior to teaching. Bulletin boards, games, supplemental activities and learning stations should be included in planning where best applicable. The Cooperating Teacher will conduct daily informal reflections on lessons. The teacher candidate will lead 50% of the workload over the nine-week assignment period.

Week 1:
- Learn the students’ names and important information about them
- Learn classroom and school environment, procedures, rules, and expectations
- Become familiar with teachers, school personnel, and other school resources
- Reflect daily on school experiences
- Discuss goals and expectations with cooperating teacher
- Observe all lessons
- Provide assistance to teachers and students wherever suitable
- Create and send home “Hello” letter to parents introducing self
- Introduce self to principal
- Attend daily team meetings
- Attend after school “Special Education Staff” meeting
- Attend after school parent meeting with permission from all members
- Prepare to teach 2nd hour reading lessons

Week 2:
- Begin teaching 2nd hour reading lessons
- Participate in Boys and Girls Club after school activities/meetings at least one day
- Attend daily team meetings
- Attend after school “All Staff” meeting

Statement of Expectations

- This statement includes all requirements listed in the UWSP Handbook for Student Teaching
- A ten-part evaluation form will be used, as attached, to be discussed in monthly evaluative conferences including a self-evaluation prepared by the ST
- All lessons must be approved the Friday before the week the lesson is taught
- Bulletin boards, games, and centers should be included in planning where best applicable
- Cooperating teacher (CT) and TC will conduct daily informal reflections on lessons
- CT and TC will work together as co-teachers throughout the experience

Week 1: Observe all lessons and assist with activities as the TC feels comfortable. Learn students’ names and procedures of the classroom. Spend time during free choice getting to know children on a personal level. Begin attending all school activities including staff, unit, and committee meetings. Attend student events and home visits. Coordinate and participate in a “get to know you” activity with the students. Lead music for one class, either using their own music or classroom music. TC will participate in required teacher duties; lunchroom, bus, and recess. Begin planning an art lesson for week 2.

Week 2: Continue to lead music each day. Continue getting to know students during free choice play. Introduce and instruct art activity. Begin planning center activities for week 3. First interim self-evaluation; first CT’s formal written evaluation.

Week 3: Continue to lead music and plan and instruct art activities. Introduce and instruct center activities. Begin assisting with some calendar activities. Plan for first supervisor’s proactive evaluation.

Week 4: Lead music; plan and instruct art and center activities; lead calendar activities. Begin planning a large group gym activity for week 5. Second interim self-evaluation; second CT’s formal written evaluation.

Week 5: Conduct calendar activities; lead music, art, and center activities daily. Introduce and lead large group gym activity. Work with CT and plan a Smart Board lesson to be introduced in week 6.

Week 6: Teach all of the above, as well as attend guidance with the students. Carry out and assist with Smart Board activity. Begin planning a Parent/Child Activity Day. Plan for full responsibilities in week 7. Third interim self-evaluation; third CT’s formal written evaluation.

Week 7: Teach full time, as well as attend library with the students. Observe teacher in another classroom. Plan for student evaluations.

Week 8: Teach full time. Second supervisor’s proactive evaluation; fourth interim self-evaluation; fourth CT’s formal written evaluation.
Assistant with completing “Glow and Grow” reports or 4K report cards. Attend Parent/Teacher conferences if they occur during your experience.

We agree to this statement and to further discussion of these objectives as the term proceeds.

Statement of Expectations

TC will gradually take on duties in the classroom. TC will begin by familiarizing herself with the school and classroom procedures and routines. She will get to know students and staff by assisting in the classroom and by participating in staff meetings and events. TC will also be asked to attend meetings with me. These meetings will include literacy team meetings, BAT (Building Assistance Team) meetings, IEP meetings and grade level team meetings. She will also participate in collaboration meetings with the other first grade teachers in the building.

Attendance will be required every Friday afternoon for professional development. Students will be released from school at approximately 1:45 every Friday. Staff will be attending various professional development meetings. TC will also be invited, but, not required to attend REA (Reedsburg Education Association) meetings.

TC will be required to complete lesson plans one day in advance for lessons to be taught. This will allow for me to review the lesson plans, clarify, and offer suggestions as needed.

TC will be provided daily feedback and evaluation on lessons taught. A rubric will be developed to evaluate lessons.

TC will be expected to be familiar with the Student Learning Outcomes for the school year and to develop lessons which will enable students to grow as learners and meet their educational goals.

Cooperating Teacher (CT) expects the TC to portray and handle themselves professionally at all times. CT will provide prompt feedback and evaluations of lessons planned and taught. CT will be available to assist TC as necessary.
TIMELINE:

Week 1-2 (September 2-12) Observe all lessons, learn students’ names and become familiar with their educational levels and pertinent background information, get acquainted with the administration, office personnel, cooks, custodial staff and paraprofessionals, and learn the school layout. Attend open house, staff meetings, and staff development sessions. Meet with the first-grade team to plan curriculum for the opening weeks of school. Become familiar with student report cards to facilitate lesson planning. Become knowledgeable of the Common Core State Standards for first grade. https://dpi.wi.gov/standards Begin team teaching the morning meeting during week 1 and be ready to teach the morning meeting alone during week 2.

Week 3-4 Continue to lead morning meeting routines. Begin to take attendance and report lunch counts. Team teach math lessons during week 3. Develop two math game activities for week 4. Observe math box routine, begin assessing students with CT support and changing math box numbers, as necessary. Plan math lessons and be ready to teach math alone by Wednesday of week 4. Attend MAPS test taking sessions during weeks 3 and 4. Attend Friday teacher development sessions.

Week 5-6 Continue to lead morning meeting routines and plan to teach math alone during week 5. Begin team teaching writer’s workshop during week 5. Assist students as necessary during writer’s workshop during week 5. Plan to teach writer’s workshop Units of Study mini lessons beginning Monday during week 6. Attend Friday teacher development sessions.

Week 7-8 Continue to lead morning meeting routines and plan to continue teaching writer’s workshop during week 7. Team teach Daily 5/CAFE lessons during weeks 7-8. During week 8 the ST will plan and teach two of the four focus lessons for each block of Daily 5/CAFE. Attend Friday teacher development sessions. Attend monthly staff meeting.

Week 9-10 Continue to lead morning meeting routines and plan to teach alone Daily 5/CAFE lessons for week 9. Assist in preparing for and attending Parent/Teacher conferences during week 10. Attend Friday teacher development sessions.

Week 12 Plan to teach full time during week 12. Attend Friday teacher development sessions. Attend monthly staff meeting.

Week 13 Continue teaching morning meeting and math. Attend Friday teacher development sessions.

Week 14-17 Plan to teach full time during these weeks. (Week 17 is only two days). Attend Friday teacher development sessions. Attend monthly staff meeting.

Week 18-20 Continue to work with small groups and assist in the classroom, as necessary. Participate in MAPS testing and end of semester assessments. Assist in filling out semester report cards. Attend Friday teacher development sessions. Attend monthly staff meeting. Visit and observe other grade levels and classrooms in the building or district.
Appendix D
Evaluation Protocols

Collaborative, ongoing evaluation is essential to the growth of teacher candidate knowledge, skills, and dispositions about teaching. All members of the Triad bear responsibility to this continued growth.

The teacher candidate must continually reflect, guided by tools that will focus them on the many aspects of teacher performance. The cooperating teacher is responsible to provide ongoing, formal and informal, assessment of the teacher candidate’s performance. The university supervisor monitors teacher candidate weekly reflections, searching for evidence of growth; they also provide an important assessment role during observational visits to the classroom.

Of note:

- A Cooperating Teacher Evaluation of Teacher Candidate must be submitted for each certification placement. If multiple certifications result from a single placement, performance in all areas must be addressed (i.e. health/physical education; special education). Cooperating teachers may collaborate on a combined document, recognizing that all certification areas must be addressed, and signatures attained from each responsible cooperating teacher.

- University Supervisor Formative Assessments, when conducted for teacher candidates seeking multiple certifications resulting from a single placement, must similarly address all areas.

The evaluation may be returned in any manner that assures its delivery to:

Instructions for completing the
Cooperating Teacher Evaluation of Teacher Candidate

1. This document is prepared in Microsoft Office Word 2007 (compatible with Word 97-03). Please complete it electronically. You will receive the link in a welcoming email from the Director. A print copy, signed by the cooperating teacher and the teacher candidate, is required for the student’s certification file. If you have any questions, please contact the Office of Field Experiences at Field.Experiences@uwsp.edu or 715-346-2449 for support.

2. Complete the requested information at the beginning of the form.
   • Be specific as to the subjects taught and grade levels in which the teacher candidate gained experience.

3. Provide a brief description of the school and classroom(s) in which the student teaching placement took place. [The response box will expand to accommodate any length.] Important information to include is:
   • School/classroom demographics
   • Resource personnel working with the students
   • Special education/second language learners in the classroom
   • Curriculum/program information; school goals
   • Length of class periods (secondary)
   • Teaming/team teaching that occurs

4. For each InTASC Teaching Standard, assess the level of performance demonstrated by the teacher candidate. Evidence of their practice must be included to support the assigned ratings. The ‘Evidence/Comments’ box expands to accommodate written statements.
   ➔ It is important to remember that you are assessing the teacher candidate’s readiness to become a new member of the profession. A ‘Ready’ rating indicates the student is able to apply their learning, reflect upon practice, and demonstrate growth. A successful teacher candidate is one that is prepared to be inducted into the profession where they will continue to learn and grow.
   • Ratings of Not Ready Yet must be accompanied by specific evidentiary statements. Include specific recommendations for needed growth experiences.

5. Comments/evidence for each standard are required. Consider the teacher candidate’s overall performance and comment on strengths and challenges this novice professional demonstrates. [The response box will expand to accommodate your complete comments.]

★ 6. A candidate will be successful when the Overall Rating for each standard is rated Ready.

7. Required signatures:
   □ The designated cooperating teacher must sign and date the evaluation.
   □ If two designated cooperating teachers (i.e. in a combined physical education & health placement) collaborated to produce the evaluation, both teachers must sign the form. An alternative would be to have each designated cooperating teacher complete a separate evaluation form.
   □ After discussion with the student, a signature is required indicating the document has been received and reviewed.

8. The university supervisor is accountable for all required evaluations/assessments being in the candidate’s file within one week of the end of the placement.
Cooperating Teacher Summary Evaluation Report

INSTRUCTIONS: Specify at least two separate examples of evidence for each standard. Successful candidates must be rated READY for licensure under all 10 standards as per PI34.15.5 (5) B (3).

Ready - the teacher candidate is able to:

- apply their learning
- reflect upon practice
- demonstrate growth
- is prepared to be inducted into the profession where they will continue to learn and grow

Not Ready Yet - must be accompanied by specific evidentiary statements related to the four expectations stated above. Include specific recommendations for needed growth experiences.

Standard #2: Learning Differences

The teacher uses understanding of individual differences and diverse cultures and communities to ensure inclusive learning environments that enable each learner to meet high standards.

PERFORMANCES

2(a) The teacher designs, adapts, and delivers instruction to address each student’s diverse learning strengths and needs and creates opportunities for students to demonstrate their learning in different ways.

2(b) The teacher makes appropriate and timely provisions (e.g., pacing for individual rates of growth, task demands, communication, assessment, and response modes) for individual students with particular learning differences or needs.

2(c) The teacher designs instruction to build on learners’ prior knowledge and experiences, allowing learners to accelerate as they demonstrate their understandings.

2(d) The teacher brings multiple perspectives to the discussion of content, including attention to learners’ personal, family, and community experiences and cultural norms.

2(e) The teacher incorporates tools of language development into planning and instruction, including strategies for making content accessible to English language learners and for evaluating and supporting their development of English proficiency.

2(f) The teacher accesses resources, supports, and specialized assistance and services to meet particular learning differences or needs.

ESSENTIAL KNOWLEDGE

2(g) The teacher understands and identifies differences in approaches to learning and performance and knows how to design instruction that uses each learner’s strengths to promote growth.

2(h) The teacher understands students with exceptional needs, including those associated with disabilities and giftedness, and knows how to use strategies and resources to address these needs.

2(i) The teacher knows about second language acquisition processes and knows how to incorporate instructional strategies and resources to support language acquisition.

2(j) The teacher understands that learners bring assets for learning based on their individual experiences, abilities, talents, prior learning, and peer and social group interactions, as well as language, culture, family, and community values.

2(k) The teacher knows how to access information about the values of diverse cultures and communities and how to incorporate learners’ experiences, cultures, and community resources into instruction.

CRITICAL DISPOSITIONS

2(l) The teacher believes that all learners can achieve at high levels and persists in helping each learner reach his/her full potential.

2(m) The teacher respects learners as individuals with differing personal and family backgrounds and various skills, abilities, perspectives, talents, and interests.

2(n) The teacher makes learners feel valued and helps them learn to value each other.

2(o) The teacher values diverse languages and dialects and seeks to integrate them into his/her instructional practice to engage students in learning.
Standard #3: Learning Environments

The teacher works with others to create environments that support individual and collaborative learning, and that encourage positive social interaction, active engagement in learning, and self motivation.

Standard #6: Assessment

The teacher understands and uses multiple methods of assessment to engage learners in their own growth, to monitor learner progress, and to guide the teacher’s and learner’s decision making.

Performances

- 6(a) The teacher balances the use of formative and summative assessment as appropriate to support, verify, and document learning.
- 6(b) The teacher designs assessments that match learning objectives with assessment methods and minimizes sources of bias that can distort assessment results.
- 6(c) The teacher works independently and collaboratively to examine test and other performance data to understand each learner’s progress and to guide planning.
- 6(d) The teacher engages learners in understanding and identifying quality work and provides them with effective descriptive feedback to guide their progress toward that work.
- 6(e) The teacher engages learners in multiple ways of demonstrating knowledge and skill as part of the assessment process.
- 6(f) The teacher models and structures processes that guide learners in examining their own thinking and learning as well as the performance of others.
- 6(g) The teacher effectively uses multiple and appropriate types of assessment data to identify each student’s learning needs and to develop differentiated learning experiences.
- 6(h) The teacher prepares all learners for the demands of particular assessment formats and makes appropriate accommodations in assessments or testing conditions, especially for learners with disabilities and language learning needs.
- 6(i) The teacher continually seeks appropriate ways to employ technology to support assessment practice both to engage learners more fully and to assess and address learner needs.

Essential Knowledge

- 6(j) The teacher understands the differences between formative and summative applications of assessment and knows how and when to use each.
- 6(k) The teacher understands the range of types and multiple purposes of assessment and how to design, adapt, or select appropriate assessments to address specific learning goals and individual differences, and to minimize sources of bias.
- 6(l) The teacher knows how to analyze assessment data to understand patterns and gaps in learning, to guide planning and instruction, and to provide meaningful feedback to all learners.
- 6(m) The teacher knows when and how to engage learners in analyzing their own assessment results and in helping to set goals for their own learning.
- 6(n) The teacher understands the positive impact of effective descriptive feedback for learners and knows a variety of strategies for communicating this feedback.
- 6(o) The teacher knows when and how to evaluate and report learner progress against standards.
- 6(p) The teacher understands how to prepare learners for assessments and how to make accommodations in assessments and testing conditions, especially for learners with disabilities and language learning needs.

Critical Dispositions

- 6(q) The teacher is committed to engaging learners actively in assessment processes and to developing each learner’s capacity to review and communicate about their own progress and learning.
- 6(r) The teacher takes responsibility for aligning instruction and assessment with learning goals.
- 6(s) The teacher is committed to providing timely and effective descriptive feedback to learners on their progress.
- 6(t) The teacher is committed to using multiple types of assessment processes to support, verify, and document learning.
- 6(u) The teacher is committed to making accommodations in assessments and testing conditions, especially for learners with disabilities and language learning needs.
- 6(v) The teacher is committed to the ethical use of various assessments and assessment data to identify learner strengths and needs to promote learner growth.
Standard #7: Planning for Instruction

The teacher plans instruction that supports every student in meeting rigorous learning goals by drawing upon knowledge of content areas, curriculum, cross-disciplinary skills, and pedagogy, as well as knowledge of learners and the community context.

PERFORMANCES

7(a) The teacher individually and collaboratively selects and creates learning experiences that are appropriate for curriculum goals and content standards, and are relevant to learners.

7(b) The teacher plans how to achieve each student’s learning goals, choosing appropriate strategies and accommodations, resources, and materials to differentiate instruction for individuals and groups of learners.

7(c) The teacher develops appropriate sequencing of learning experiences and provides multiple ways to demonstrate knowledge and skill.

7(d) The teacher plans for instruction based on formative and summative assessment data, prior learner knowledge, and learner interest.

7(e) The teacher plans collaboratively with professionals who have specialized expertise (e.g., special educators, related service providers, language learning specialists, librarians, media specialists) to design and jointly deliver as appropriate learning experiences to meet unique learning needs.

7(f) The teacher evaluates plans in relation to short- and long-range goals and systematically adjusts plans to meet each student’s learning needs and enhance learning.

ESSENTIAL KNOWLEDGE

7(g) The teacher understands content and content standards and how these are organized in the curriculum.

7(h) The teacher understands how integrating cross-disciplinary skills in instruction engages learners purposefully in applying content knowledge.

7(i) The teacher understands learning theory, human development, cultural diversity, and individual differences and how these impact ongoing planning.

7(j) The teacher understands the strengths and needs of individual learners and how to plan instruction that is responsive to these strengths and needs.

7(k) The teacher knows a range of evidence-based instructional strategies, resources, and technological tools and how to use them effectively to plan instruction that meets diverse learning needs.

7(l) The teacher knows when and how to adjust plans based on assessment information and learner responses.

7(m) The teacher knows when and how to access resources and collaborate with others to support student learning (e.g., special educators, related service providers, language learner specialists, librarians, media specialists, community organizations).

CRITICAL DISPOSITIONS

7(n) The teacher respects learners’ diverse strengths and needs and is committed to using this information to plan effective instruction.

7(o) The teacher values planning as a collegial activity that takes into consideration the input of learners, colleagues, families, and the larger community.

7(p) The teacher takes professional responsibility to use short- and long-term planning as a means of assuring student learning.

7(q) The teacher believes that plans must always be open to adjustment and revision based on learner needs and changing circumstances.
Standard #8: Instructional Strategies

The teacher understands and uses a variety of instructional strategies to encourage learners to develop deep understanding of content areas and their connections, and to build skills to apply knowledge in meaningful ways.

Standard #9: Professional Learning and Ethical Practice

The teacher engages in ongoing professional learning and uses evidence to continually evaluate his/her practice, particularly the effects of his/her choices and actions on others (learners, families, other professionals, and the community), and adapts practice to meet the needs of each learner.

PERFORMANCES

9(a) The teacher engages in ongoing learning opportunities to develop knowledge and skills in order to provide all learners with engaging curriculum and learning experiences based on local and state standards.

9(b) The teacher engages in meaningful and appropriate professional learning experiences aligned with his/her own needs and the needs of the learners, school, and system.

9(c) Independently and in collaboration with colleagues, the teacher uses a variety of data (e.g., systematic observation, information about learners, research) to evaluate the outcomes of teaching and learning and to adapt planning and practice.

9(d) The teacher actively seeks professional, community, and technological resources, within and outside the school, as supports for analysis, reflection, and problem-solving.

9(e) The teacher reflects on his/her personal biases and accesses resources to deepen his/her own understanding of cultural, ethnic, gender, and learning differences to build stronger relationships and create more relevant learning experiences.

9(f) The teacher advocates, models, and teaches safe, legal, and ethical use of information and technology including appropriate documentation of sources and respect for others in the use of social media.

ESSENTIAL KNOWLEDGE

9(g) The teacher understands and knows how to use a variety of self-assessment and problem-solving strategies to analyze and reflect on his/her practice and to plan for adaptations/adjustments.

9(h) The teacher knows how to use learner data to analyze practice and differentiate instruction accordingly.

9(i) The teacher understands how personal identity, worldview, and prior experience affect perceptions and expectations, and recognizes how they may bias behaviors and interactions with others.

9(j) The teacher understands laws related to learners’ rights and teacher responsibilities (e.g., for educational equity, appropriate education for learners with disabilities, confidentiality, privacy, appropriate treatment of learners, reporting in situations related to possible child abuse).

9(k) The teacher knows how to build and implement a plan for professional growth aligned with his/her needs as a growing professional using feedback from teacher evaluations and observations, data on learner performance, and school- and system-wide priorities.

CRITICAL DISPOSITIONS

9(l) The teacher takes responsibility for student learning and uses ongoing analysis and reflection to improve planning and practice.

9(m) The teacher is committed to deepening understanding of his/her own frames of reference (e.g., culture, gender, language, abilities, ways of knowing), the potential biases in these frames, and their impact on expectations for and relationships with learners and their families.

9(n) The teacher sees him/herself as a learner, continuously seeking opportunities to draw upon current education policy and research as sources of analysis and reflection to improve practice.

9(o) The teacher understands the expectations of the profession including codes of ethics, professional standards of practice, and relevant law and policy.
Standard #10: Leadership and Collaboration

The teacher seeks appropriate leadership roles and opportunities to take responsibility for student learning, to collaborate with learners, families, colleagues, other school professionals, and community members to ensure learner growth, and to advance the profession.

APPENDIX F

A Comparison

InTASC\(^1\) Model Core Teaching Standards

The Learner and Learning

#1: Learner Development
The teacher understands how learners grow and develop, recognizing that patterns of learning and development vary individually within and across the cognitive, linguistic, social, emotional, and physical areas, and designs and implements developmentally appropriate and challenging learning experiences.

#2: Learning Differences
The teacher uses understanding of individual differences and diverse cultures and communities to ensure inclusive learning environments that enable each learner to meet high standards.

#3: Learning Environments
The teacher works with others to create environments that support individual and collaborative learning, and that encourage positive social interaction, active engagement in learning, and self-motivation.

Content Knowledge

#4: Content Knowledge
The teacher understands the central concepts, tools of inquiry, and structures of the discipline(s) he or she teaches and creates learning experiences that make these aspects of the discipline accessible and meaningful for learners to assure mastery of the content.

#5: Application of Content
The teacher understands how to connect concepts and use different perspectives to engage learners in critical thinking, creativity, and collaborative problem solving related to authentic local and global issues.

Instructional Practice

#6: Assessment
The teacher understands and uses multiple methods of assessment to engage learners in their own growth, to monitor learner progress, and to guide the teacher's and learner's decision making.

#8: Teachers know how to test for student progress
The teacher understands and uses formal and informal assessment strategies to evaluate and ensure the continuous intellectual, social, and physical development of the pupil.

WI Standards\(^2\) For Teacher Development and Licensure

#2: Teachers know how children grow.
The teacher understands how children with broad ranges of ability learn and provides instruction that supports their intellectual, social, and personal development.

#3: Teachers understand that children learn differently.
The teacher understands how pupils differ in their approaches to learning and the barriers that impede learning and can adapt instruction to meet the diverse needs of pupils, including those with disabilities and exceptionalities.

#5: Teachers know how to manage a classroom.
The teacher uses an understanding of individual and group motivation and behavior to create a learning environment that encourages positive social interaction, active engagement in learning, and self-motivation.

#1: Teachers know the subject they are teaching.
The teacher understands the central concepts, tools of inquiry, and structures of the discipline(s) he or she teaches and can create learning experiences that make these aspects of subject matter meaningful for students.

A Comparison

#7: Planning for Instruction
The teacher plans instruction that supports every student in meeting rigorous learning goals by drawing upon knowledge of content areas, curriculum, cross-disciplinary skills, and pedagogy, as well as knowledge of learners and the community context.

#8: Instructional Strategies
The teacher understands and uses a variety of instructional strategies to encourage learners to develop deep understanding of content areas and their connections, and to build skills to apply knowledge in meaningful ways.

Professional Responsibility

#9: Professional Learning and Ethical Practice
The teacher engages in ongoing professional learning and uses evidence to continually evaluate his/her practice, particularly the effects of his/her choices and actions on others (learners, families, other professionals, and the community), and adapts practice to meet the needs of each learner.

#10: Leadership and Collaboration
The teacher seeks appropriate leadership roles and opportunities to take responsibility for student learning, to collaborate with learners, families, colleagues, other school professionals, and community members to ensure learner growth, and to advance the profession.

#11: Teachers are able to plan different kinds of lessons.
The teacher organizes and plans systematic instruction base upon knowledge of subject matter, pupils, the community, and curriculum goals.

#12: Teachers are able to evaluate themselves.
The teacher is a reflective practitioner who continually evaluates the effects of his/her choices and actions on pupils, parents, professionals in the learning community and others who actively seek out opportunities to grow professionally.

#13: Teachers are connected with other teachers and the community.
The teacher fosters relationships with school colleagues, parents, and agencies in the larger community to support pupil learning and well-being and acts with integrity, fairness and in an ethical manner.

#14: Teachers know how to teach.
The teacher understands and uses a variety of instructional strategies, including the use of technology, to encourage children’s development of critical thinking, problem solving, and performance skills.

#15: Teachers communicate well.
The teacher uses effective verbal and nonverbal communication techniques as well as instructional media and technology to foster active inquiry, collaboration, and supportive interaction in the classroom.
Co-teaching is defined as “two or more educators working collaboratively to deliver instruction to a heterogeneous group of students in a shared instructional space.”

Applying this practice to the student teaching experience has many benefits, well presented in the literature. Some excellent resources are:

Strategies of Co-Teaching in Student Teaching

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Strategy</th>
<th>Definition</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>One teach, one observe</td>
<td>One teacher has primary instructional responsibility while the other gathers specific observational information on students or the (instructing) teacher. The key to this strategy is to focus the observation on specific behaviors. Both the teacher candidate and the cooperating teacher are able to take on either role.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>One teach, one assist</td>
<td>One teacher has primary instructional responsibility while the other assists students with their work, monitors behaviors or corrects assignments, often lending a voice to students or groups who hesitate to participate.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Station teaching</td>
<td>Station teaching occurs when the co-teaching pairs divide the instructional content into parts. Each teacher instructs one of the groups. The groups then rotate or spend a designated amount of time at each station. Independent stations are often used along with the teacher-led stations.</td>
</tr>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Supplemental teaching</td>
<td>Supplemental teaching allows one teacher to work with students at their expected grade level while the other teacher works with those students who need the information or materials extended or remediated.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Alternative (differentiated) teaching</td>
<td>This teaching strategy provides two approaches to teaching the same information. The learning outcome is the same for all students; however, the avenue for getting there is different.</td>

<tr>
<td>Team teaching</td>
<td>Team teaching incorporates an invisible flow of instruction with no prescribed division of authority. Using a team-teaching strategy, both teachers are actively involved in the lesson. From the students’ perspective, there is no clearly defined leader -- both teachers share the instruction, are free to interject information, and are available to assist students and answer questions.</td>

Appendix K
Certification and Licensure

After you have successfully completed an approved program of teacher preparation for initial certification, the UWSP Certification Officer can recommend you for licensure. To be eligible for institutional recommendation, students must have a conferred degree fulfilling all academic requirements for certification programs, including a grade of “pass” for all student/intern teaching assignments. All supervisor and cooperating teacher final evaluations must be received by the Office of Field Experiences before certification will be processed.

Important information is available at http://www.uwsp.edu/education/Pages/TeacherLicense/default.aspx

See Frequently Asked Questions about licensing at:
http://www.uwsp.edu/education/Pages/TeacherLicense/faq.aspx

If you apply for jobs prior to the end of the student teaching semester, the Office of Field Experiences will provide a “pending letter.” This letter states that you are completing a teacher preparation program on the basis of which certification in the State of Wisconsin will be completed.

If you wish to apply for licensure in another state, submit the required documents to the Office of Field Experiences. Information on 50 State Certification Requirements can be found at http://education.uky.edu/AcadServ/content/50-STates-certification-requirements

You may request license endorsements for each course and section for which you were approved and registered at the beginning of your student teaching semester and received a successful evaluation. Additional endorsements on your initial license application must be requested in writing to the Director of Field Experiences and must be approved by cooperating teacher(s) licensed in the appropriate fields and levels, as well as approved by your University Supervisor. Your transcript would then be changed accordingly. It is your responsibility to ensure that your transcripts indicate all your teaching majors or minors; having incomplete transcripts will delay the processing of certification.

The sole conditions under which licensure may be requested before the end of the student teaching semester are: first, proof that a Bachelor’s degree has been conferred; second, proof of an offer of professional employment contingent upon emergency licensure, attested by a Wisconsin DPI Form 1602-EL Emergency License Request, or the equivalent from another state. Such requests for conversion of remaining student teaching to on-the-job status must be made in writing to the Office of Field Experiences and must be accompanied by a statement of recommendation by the Director of Field Experiences, then must be approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.
Congratulations! You are almost ready to begin your career as a teacher. Before you embark on this new and exciting journey, make sure you are familiar with the Academic and Career Advising Center and the services and information they provide. Following is an outline of services and resources for Education majors:

Career and Job Search Assistance/Resources
Individualized/Tailored Assistance:
Career Specialists are at your service to answer questions (e.g. provide information on supply & demand), and assist with resume, cover letter, job search and other career/employment needs. Take advantage of this service and schedule an appointment early on before you begin student teaching.

Education Workshops and Sponsored Seminars:
Workshops for Education majors are presented each semester addressing various aspects of the job search process. To see the current schedule of workshops, visit the Academic and Career Advising Center home page, click "Career Advising Services" and select "Calendar of Events." By attending workshops, you will receive samples of resumes, information on cover letters, interviewing, job fairs, the application process, and sources for locating employment. Additionally, there are forums on “Hiring Tips from School Personnel Administrators.”

Co-Sponsor of Educational Fairs:
The Academic and Career Advising Center co-sponsors the Wisconsin Educational Recruitment Fair (WERF). Co-sponsorship means that UWSP students/alumni may pre-register at a reduced cost to attend this fair. Wisconsin school districts are in attendance in addition to out-of-state schools with positions they are looking to fill.

Career Library/Publications:
The career library houses several shelves of information for Education majors. Subjects include resumes, cover letters, and the interviewing process. There are directories of schools in Wisconsin and the US, books discussing the first-year teaching, and career alternatives. One shelf is dedicated to traveling, studying, working, and teaching overseas and includes TIE: The International Educator. Be sure to visit the Academic and Career Advising Center to pick up your complimentary copy of the AAEE Job Search Handbook for Educators, and a Career Planning Guide.

A few popular websites for locating teaching positions and additional resources:
Career Services page for Education Majors:
https://www.uwsp.edu/ACAC/Pages/default.aspx
Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction (DPI): http://dpi.wi.gov
The Wisconsin Education Career Access Network (WECAN): an electronic application system many WI school districts are jointly using. Candidates need only complete one application which can then be used to apply for positions in any WECAN-user district. https://wecan.education.wisc.edu
Handshake: View openings, link to employer information, upload your resume for referral to employers: https://uwsp.joinhandshake.com/login

For teaching positions out-of-state:
The Job Search Handbook for Educators contains a list of job search websites for all 50 states along with certification/licensing offices. Be sure to visit individual school district websites as well. The Academic and Career Advising Center receives a publication entitled “Job Fairs for Educators” listing fairs held throughout the United States.

Follow-up studies of Former Graduates (placement reports):
The Academic and Career Advising Center is responsible for producing the official follow-up reports on UWSP: https://www.uwsp.edu/acac/Pages/follow-up-studies-graduates.aspx

Applying for Teaching Positions:
Terminology – as you apply for teaching positions, schools may ask for any of the following:
- Letter of application (sometimes referred to as a cover letter)
- Resume (no longer than two pages)
- References (also referred to as Letters of Recommendation or Credentials)
- Transcript (most school districts accept unofficial copies; if an official copy is requested, you should send an official transcript from each college you have attended. A degree progress report does not suffice as a transcript!)
- Copy of your teaching license (the ‘Pending Letter’ provided by the Office of Field Experiences suffices until you receive your teaching license)
- NEVER SEND YOUR ORIGINAL COPIES OF REFERENCES – MAKE COPIES!
  — Read and follow instructions: it could be a test! If it says, “hand write,” do not type; if it states, “send three letters,” send only three letters. Be sure to spell check everything multiple times. Ask a trusted colleague to review your materials.
  — Employers strongly discourage applicants from sharing any type of personal information early in the hiring process, including personal pictures, as employers must remain in compliance with Equal Employment Opportunity and Affirmative Action employment laws.
