A great time was had by all that attended the recent "Pancakes and Sausages" breakfast, which took place at the M&M Building and Nelson Hall. The sausages were grilled to perfection with great care and the pancakes satisfied as well. A special 'THANKS' to everyone that stepped up in the hour of need and made this a great T.E.A.M. event. Your contributions really made this a unique get-together.

Did you know... that John Hancock was the only person to actually sign the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776? All the others signed later. Also, the only two signers of the Declaration of Independence who later served as President of the United States were John Adams and Thomas Jefferson.

DATELINE: JULY 4th, 1872
PLYMOUTH NOTCH, VERMONT

John and his wife Victoria are about to welcome a brand new baby boy into their Vermont home on Independence Day of 1872. John is a prosperous farmer, storekeeper and public servant. He has held various local offices, including 'justice of the peace' and tax collector. John also will serve in the Vermont House of Representatives as well as the Vermont Senate. However, what truly brings fame to John and Victoria are the events of August 2, 1923, when President of the United States, Warren G. Harding, dies suddenly while on a speaking tour in the west and John and Victoria's son, Calvin Coolidge is sworn in as the 30th President of the United States of America.

Q: We may have the 'Cha Cha Slide' but what was the most popular dance in 1776?

A: The Indepen-dance.

Q: Why did the duck say bang?

A: Because he was a firequacker.

Q: What's the difference between George Washington and a duck?

A: One has his face on a bill and the other has a...

Q: What did one flag say to the other flag?

A: Nothing really, they just waved.
