Position Summary

The developing Doctor of Physical Therapy Program (DPT) at the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point invites applications for a full-time faculty member (9-month appointment) with an expertise in exercise physiology/exercise science. The primary teaching opportunities for this position are specific to instruction in exercise physiology and therapeutic exercise courses with additional teaching based on expertise.

The successful candidate is a core faculty in the UWSP DPT program and will contribute to establishing UWSP as a leader in helping to address the rehabilitation needs of rural communities through contributions in teaching, scholarship, and service. Program highlights include:

* An innovative faculty and curriculum anchored in community-engaged learning aligned with the university mission of 'Healthy Communities'
* Opportunities for interdisciplinary research with a rural health emphasis
* An engaged and supportive clinical community interested in academic partnerships
* Developing instructional and research space that will serve the campus and surrounding community
