Duets should be learned in the order presented on this list. Both parts (primo and secondo) of each duet must be polished in order to move up to the next duet. By “polished,” we mean that the notes must be learned, and that the correct fingerings, rhythm and dynamics are observed. The student must be able to play the duet with his/her home teacher. The duet must be performance-ready.

Book 3
- Evening Prayer from Terrific Tunes for Two, Book 1 by Martha Mier, Alfred Pub.
- Red Rooster Strut from Terrific Tunes for Two, Book 1 by Martha Mier, Alfred Pub.
- Blue Parrot Rag by Martha Mier, Alfred Pub.

Book 4
- Blue Parrot Rag by Martha Mier, Alfred Pub.
- Topaz Sonatina, mvt. 1 by Robert D. Vandall, Mylkas Music Press
- Topaz Sonatina, mvt. 3 by Robert D. Vandall, Mylkas Music Press
- The Water is Wide arr. Robert Vandall, Myklas Music Press Piano Duets

Book 5
- Topaz Sonatina, mvt. 1 by Robert D. Vandall, Mylkas Music Press
- Topaz Sonatina, mvt. 3 by Robert D. Vandall, Mylkas Music Press
- The Water is Wide arr. Robert Vandall, Myklas Music Press Piano Duets
- Two Guitars from In Recital Duets Vol. 1 by Helen Marlais, The FJH Music Co., Inc.

Book 6
- Two Guitars from In Recital Duets Vol. 1 by Helen Marlais, The FJH Music Co., Inc.
- St. Louis Blues from In Recital Duets Vol. 1 by Helen Marlais, The FJH Music Co., Inc.

Book 7
- St. Louis Blues from In Recital Duets Vol. 1 by Helen Marlais, The FJH Music Co., Inc.