Office hours: by appointment via Zoom
Lab Meeting Room: TNR 153 & TNR 157

Objectives:

To gain hands on experience with techniques and methods used by natural resource ecologists including: data collection and analysis, field techniques, report writing, computer use, library resources, and working in teams.

Grading:

LECTURE (60%)
LAB (40%)

Lab report.....15%
 Corn competition experiment FINAL draft (due 11/20)
Library exercise (due 10/30).....5%
Quizzes/Attendance.....5%
Lab final.....15%

Attendance: As with any lab course, attendance is critical for understanding, as well as receiving a passing grade. If you are unable to attend our scheduled lab time due to illness or a family emergency, you may attend another instructor's lab section. To receive credit for attending you must email both myself and the instructor whose lab section you wish to attend before showing up.

Preparation and participation: Please read the materials in the lab manual each week before coming to lab for in-person meetings or before going through each Canvas module. Please dress appropriate for weather conditions and associated activities when we are out in the field. Students are expected to participate in all graded course activities.

Lab reports: For your lab report this semester you will need to upload a final version of your report to Canvas to be scanned for plagiarism. Your report will not be considered submitted and you will not receive a grade, unless your report is submitted by the due date and time.

Complete Assignments: All assignments for this course will be submitted electronically through Canvas unless otherwise instructed. Assignments must be submitted by the given deadline or special permission must be requested from instructor before the due date. Extensions will not be given except under extreme circumstances.

Late Work Policy: Be sure to pay close attention to deadlines—there will be no make-up exams or late work accepted without a serious and compelling reason and instructor approval.

Field trips: We will be out in the field for at least 2 labs. Field trips will go regardless of the weather, so be sure to prepare accordingly. Think about appropriate shoes and clothing, water, as well as materials for data collection.

Face Coverings: At all UW-Stevens Point campus locations, the wearing of face coverings is mandatory in all buildings, including classrooms, laboratories, studios, and other instructional spaces. Any student with a condition that impacts their use of a face covering should contact the Disability and Assistive Technology Center to discuss accommodations in classes. Please note that unless everyone is wearing a face covering, in-person classes cannot take place. This is university policy and not up to the discretion of individual instructors. Failure to adhere to this requirement could result in formal withdrawal from the course.

Other Guidance:

- Please monitor your own health each day using this screening tool. If you are not feeling well or believe you have been exposed to COVID-19, do not come to class; email your instructor and contact Student Health Service (715-346-4646).
- As with any type of absence, students are expected to communicate their need to be absent and complete the course requirements as outlined in the syllabus.
- Maintain a minimum of 6 feet of physical distance from others whenever possible.
- Do not congregate in groups before or after class; stagger your arrival and departure from the classroom, lab, or meeting room.
- Wash your hands or use appropriate hand sanitizer regularly and avoid touching your face.
- Please maintain these same healthy practices outside the classroom.

Expected Instructor Response Times

- We will attempt to respond to student emails within 1-2 business days. If you have not received a reply from us within 2 business days, then please resend your email. In general, we do not check email late at night or on weekends.
- Lecture instructors will attempt to grade exams within 1 week.

Student Expectations

In this course you will be expected to complete the following types of tasks.

- communicate via email
- download and upload documents to Canvas
- read documents online
- view online videos
- participate in online discussion
- complete quizzes/tests online
- Participate in-person when able
 - Participate synchronously online
 - Notify your instructor when Asynchronous online participation is your online option, when others are meeting in-person
- Asynchronous assignments and participation are due before the end of the week

Netiquette Guidelines

Netiquette is a set of rules for behaving properly online. Your instructor and fellow students wish to foster a safe online learning environment. All opinions and experiences, no matter how different or controversial they may be perceived, must be respected in the tolerant spirit of academic discourse. You are encouraged to comment, question, or critique an idea but you are not to attack an individual. Working as a community of learners, we can build a polite and respectful course community.

The following netiquette tips will enhance the learning experience for everyone in the course:

- Do not dominate any discussion.
- Give other students the opportunity to join in the discussion.
- Do not use offensive language. Present ideas appropriately.
- Be cautious in using Internet language. For example, do not capitalize all letters since this suggests shouting.
- Popular emoticons such as 😊 or / can be helpful to convey your tone but do not overdo or overuse them.
- Avoid using vernacular and/or slang language. This could possibly lead to misinterpretation.
- Never make fun of someone's ability to read or write.
- Share tips with other students.
- Keep an "open-mind" and be willing to express even your minority opinion. Minority opinions have to be respected.
- Think and edit before you push the "Send" button.
- Do not hesitate to ask for feedback.
- Using humor is acceptable

Handling Online Materials and Class Recordings

Lecture materials and recordings for this class are protected intellectual property at UW-Stevens Point. Students in this course may use the materials and recordings for their personal use related to participation in this class. Students may also take notes solely for their personal use. If a lecture is not already recorded, you are not authorized to record our lectures without our permission unless you are considered by the university to be a qualified student with a disability requiring accommodation. [Regent Policy Document 4-1] Students may not copy or share lecture materials and recordings outside of class, including posting on internet sites or selling to commercial entities. Students also are prohibited from providing or selling their personal notes to anyone else or being paid for taking notes by any person or commercial firm without the instructors' express written permission. Unauthorized use of these copyrighted lecture materials and recordings constitutes copyright infringement and may be addressed under the university's policies, UWS Chapters 14 and 17, governing student academic and non-academic misconduct.
