3. COURSE POLICIES

3.1. Attendance

You are expected to attend and participate in class. Students are expected to come to class prepared to meaningfully discuss assigned materials. IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO READ THE BOOK. All students are responsible for obtaining the information and learning the material presented even in the event of absences.

Weather: Use your judgment regarding dangerous driving conditions. You will not be penalized for absences due to weather conditions.

Health: Please follow the university protocol regarding COVID 19. As important as attendance is, the health of you and your classmates is more important. Generally speaking: if you feel unwell-stay home. You will not be penalized for any health-related absences.

3.2. Late Work

Life happens, but not that often.

If you have a legitimate emergency arise during the semester that is going to hinder your ability to complete work on time, you should contact me to arrange an alternative immediately. However, these situations should constitute legitimate emergencies AND are the exception, not the rule. That is to say, if you are in the hospital, it is probably an emergency. If you are unable to find a babysitter the day an assignment is due, then you probably should have completed the assignment ahead of time. In general, late will unlikely be accepted for full credit. You must either turn in your work ahead of time or be present in class on the due date. Assignments slid under my door or turned in by another student without prior approval will receive zero credit.

Why am I so meticulous?

Good question. Because I believe that college is not just about giving you a content-specific education, it is about teaching you to be a productive member of society...and in the real-world, and in particular the work world, deadlines matter! A client can sue you for missing important deadlines. Success in the work world requires many attributes; one of which is exercising appropriate conduct in various situations. This class is the equivalent to the professional meetings that occur every day in the real world of business. In such situations, individuals are expected to come prepared, participate when appropriate, and not exhibit behavior that is disruptive or disrespectful of others. This includes, but is not limited to, being on-time for group meetings and assignment deadlines.

3.3. Etiquette/Netiquette

Professional Classroom Conduct

In addition to preparedness, students should approach all correspondence with the instructor and classmates in a professional manner. This includes but is not limited to e-mail correspondence. Such communication should be consistent with a respectful learning environment.

For Fall 2023, the video deadlines are Oct. 20 for the first half-semester and Dec. 8 for the second half-semester.

Attendance at Pro Events will be confirmed within the Pro Events Tracker in the virtual C2C. Please allow a week for confirmation of attendance at events held outside the Sentry School, such as Career Services events. If you have a question about Pro Events attendance, please email proevents@uwsp.edu.

If you have multiple courses or affiliations with Pro Events requirements, it is your responsibility to make sure you have attended enough events for each course/affiliation.

Links to UWSP’s policies regarding ADA, nondiscrimination, and Online Accessibility (IT & Communication Accessibility) can be found at: ADA Statement

UW-Stevens Point will modify academic program requirements as necessary to ensure that they do not discriminate against qualified applicants or students with disabilities. The modifications should not affect the substance of educational programs or compromise academic standards; nor should they intrude upon academic freedom. Examinations or other procedures used for evaluating students' academic achievements may be adapted. The results of such an evaluation must demonstrate the student's achievement in the academic activity, rather than describe his/her disability.

If modifications are required due to a disability, please inform the instructor, and contact the Disability Resource Center (DRC) to complete an Accommodations Request form. The DRC is located in room 108 in the Collins Classroom Center (CCC). For more information, call 715-346-3365 email drc@uwsp.edu, or visit: This Link.

7.2. Nondiscrimination Statement

No person shall be discriminated against because of race, ethnicity, color, age, religion, creed, gender, gender identity, sexuality, disability, nationality, culture, genetic information, socioeconomic status, marital status, veteran's status, or political belief or affiliation and equal opportunity and access to facilities shall be available to all. To address concerns regarding any of these issues please call 715-346-2606 or visit: Equal Opportunity Human Resources

7.3. SSBE Inclusivity Statement

It is my intent that students from diverse backgrounds and perspectives be well-served by this course, that students' learning needs be addressed both in and out of class, and that the diversity that the students bring in and out of class be viewed as a resource, strength, and benefit. Every person has a unique perspective, and we learn from hearing many of them, but not all perspectives are represented in course readings. So, learning depends upon all of you contributing to the class with your own opinions and perspectives. It is my intent to present materials and activities that are respectful of diversity: gender identity, sexuality, disability, age, socioeconomic status, ethnicity, race, nationality, religion, and culture. Your suggestions are encouraged and appreciated. Please let me know ways to improve the effectiveness of the course for you personally, or for other students or student groups.

If you have experienced a bias incident (an act of conduct, speech, or expression to which a bias motive is evident as a contributing factor regardless of whether the act is criminal) at UWSP, you have the right to report it. To do so, first go to the Hate Bias Response Team website, then click the button that corresponds to the appropriate campus, and finally complete and submit the report. That list can be found here, Dean of Students Resources. Moreover, the Office of the Dean of Students supports the campus community by reaching out and providing resources in areas where a student may be struggling or experiencing barriers to their success. Questions of whether or not the instructor appropriately graded one or more of the course assignments, quizzes, exams, etc. are not matters to be decided by a formal grade appeal, but rather should be taken up with the instructor directly. Under FERPA, students cannot remain anonymous in a class. Students are permitted to know who else is in their class.

Learning requires risk-taking and sharing ideas. Please keep your classmates' ideas and experiences confidential outside the classroom unless permission has been granted to share them.

- Have updated antivirus software installed on your devices.

Additional resources regarding information security at UWSP can be found at: Information Security Link.

It is important for students to understand that faculty are required to report any incidents of maltreatment, discrimination, self-harm, or sexual violence they become aware of, even if those incidents occurred in the past, off campus, or are disclosed as part of a class assignment. This does not mean an investigation will occur if the student does not want that, but it does allow the university to provide resources to help the student continue to be successful.
