Inform Your Instructor of Any Accommodations Needed If you have a documented disability and verification from the Disability and Assistive Technology Center and wish to discuss academic accommodations, please contact your instructor as soon as possible. It is the student's responsibility to provide documentation of disability to Disability Services and meet with a Disability Services counselor to request special accommodation before classes start.

The Disability and Assistive Technology Center is located in 609 Learning Resource Center and can be contacted by phone at (715) 346-3365 (Voice) (715) 346-3362 (TDD only) or via email at datctr@uwsp.edu

Statement of Policy

UW-Stevens Point will modify academic program requirements as necessary to ensure that they do not discriminate against qualified applicants or students with disabilities. The modifications should not affect the substance of educational programs or compromise academic standards; nor should they intrude upon academic freedom. Examinations or other procedures used for evaluating students' academic achievements may be adapted. The results of such evaluation must demonstrate the student's achievement in the academic activity, rather than describe his/her disability.

- Create a scalable business model and learn how to pivot as demand and technology change

- Discern what makes a business successful
- Discover various funding options
- Learn the next steps to startup (BUS321 Entrepreneurship covers the next steps for new venture creation)

Course Activities

- Online discussions
- Group brainstorming
- Feasibility assessments & reflection papers
- Creation of a Lean Business Model Canvas
- Customer interviews for business model pivoting
- Student interviews with small business owners
- Online simulation
- Quizzes
- Final Virtual Presentation/Forum

Attendance Policy

You should be working in D2L and checking both email and D2L News Items regularly. There are specific due dates for online discussions and assignments. You will get the most out of this class if you keep up with the reading/video clip and PowerPoint reviews as the content will help inform your online discussions, written reflections, assignment and quiz completion. This is a fun course with extremely interesting material. Active participation will help you determine whether entrepreneurship is a path you wish to walk!

Course Expectations

D2L is the platform for this class. Use it to the fullest extent. Watch for News Items, refer to Content section for additional articles, video clip links, PowerPoints, etc., upload all assignments to the Dropbox, take all tests in the Quiz section, and review course progress in the Gradebook. D2L helps both of us stay organized. If you have issues with D2L, there are online tutorials found on the D2L homepage.

Academic Honesty

It goes without saying that you are expected to complete your own work, including online tests...period! Refer to the UWSP student manual regarding academic honesty. Nothing else to say about this...
