Course Description and Information

Student Teaching comprises certifiable field experiences in actual school settings where the teacher candidate participates in planning, instructing, and evaluating educational programs with the cooperation of certified teachers and administrators.

The experience is a cooperative endeavor in which host schools work closely with UWSP to provide quality experiences for teacher certification candidates. The university supervisor and cooperating teacher provide supportive guidance to help enhance professional growth. Other school personnel also play crucial roles in this mentoring process.

Prerequisite: Approval of department(s); completed application with Field Experiences Office; concurrent registration in EDUC 400.

Credit: Variable. Pass/Fail

Course Learning Outcomes

Teacher Candidates demonstrate

1. the knowledge, skills and dispositions of the InTASC Model Core Teaching Standards required for certification and licensure in an SOE ePortfolio.¹
2. the ability to be successful in a co-teaching classroom experience.
3. the ability to be a reflective practitioner through journal assignments submitted weekly to assigned university supervisor and in ePortfolio entries.
4. the ability to impact student learning through the design, implementation, and assessment of a teacher work sample.

Responsibilities of Teacher Candidates

- abide by standards of professional decorum established by the local education agency for personal comportment in interactions with students, staff, administrators and community members
- design, deliver and assess instructional programs and participate in their supervision and evaluation
- maintain written plans for all lessons taught in a collection that is available for review upon request
- submit a weekly schedule and reflective journal to the assigned university supervisor
- maintain records of the above activities (i.e., lesson plans, Statement of Expectations, evaluations) as directed by the cooperating teacher and university supervisor.

¹ Including the importance of using understanding of individual differences and diverse cultures and communities to ensure inclusive learning environments that enable each learner to meet high standards.

Grading

The course is graded Pass/Fail. To earn a grade of Pass students must:

- complete minimum student teaching requirements for initial teacher licensure (see Undergrad Advising)
- participate in a minimum of four classroom supervisory visits of at least one hour in length
- present evidence of InTASC-based proficiencies in the SOE ePortfolio
- receive an overall evaluation of 'ready' on the cooperating teacher's final evaluation

*Failure to meet performance expectations or fulfill responsibilities outlined in this syllabus and in the Handbook for Student Teaching may result in removal from this experience. The Director of Field Experiences, in consultation with the Associate Dean & Head of the School of Education, the university supervisor and other professionals, will determine the necessary follow-up plan. Options include, but are not limited to, establishing a remediation plan for possible continuation, extending or repeating the student teaching experience, graduating without teaching intent, or immediate termination from the education program. Future admission to student teaching may include contingencies.

Class Norms:

Students and instructor(s) are expected to

- demonstrate Academic Integrity
- be informed by the Division of Student Affairs: Rights and Responsibilities: specifically the UWSP Community Rights and Responsibilities, Academic Standards and Disciplinary Procedures, and Americans with Disabilities Act
- abide by Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act rules which find academic information is confidential and forbids disclosure of academic information without the participant's consent.
