Course Description
This course covers topics related to score study, rehearsal preparation and conducting techniques used on the podium. The class itself will function as an ensemble and each student will be given multiple opportunities to conduct representative works from band and orchestra literature.

Required Texts & Materials
1. Scores (for sale in the music store)
   a. Georges Bizet – L’arlesienne Suites No. 1 & 2
   b. Edvard Grieg – Peer Gynt Suites No. 1 & 2
   c. Gustav Holst – First Suite in E-flat
   d. Gustav Holst – Second Suite in F
2. Conducting Baton
3. Primary musical instrument

Suggested Reading
1. The Modern Conductor by Elizabeth Green
2. Guide to Score Study for the Wind Band Conductor by Frank Battisti & Robert Garofalo
3. On Becoming a Conductor by Frank Battisti
4. Casals and the Art of Interpretation by David Blum

Course Objectives
Upon successful completion of this course, students should be able to:
1. Adequately study an instrumental score in a variety of manners in order to prepare for the successful rehearsal of an instrumental ensemble
2. Effectively convey through gesture a personal interpretation of an instrumental score
3. Demonstrate a synthesis of the knowledge of conducting technique, musical score reading/study, and podium leadership by conducting music with a live ensemble
4. Correctly identify performance errors and provide clear suggestions for improvement.
Assignments and Grading
393 points total

A   366-393   A-   354-365   B+   342-353
B   326-351   B-   315-325   C+   303-314

Music Education Students
Music education students must show professional dispositions and proficiency in the skills of this course, which are essential to future success in teaching practice, by earning a grade of B- or better. Music education students who do not demonstrate proficiency will receive a grade of D+ or lower, and will be required to repeat the course in order to student teach.

1. Attendance (10 points)
   1-2 absences: 10 points
   3-5 absences: 0 points
   More than 5 absences: -10 points
   Perfect attendance: 10 point BONUS…20 points total

2. Class participation (20 points)

3. Score Reading Sessions (10 points; 40 points total)
   Prepare the assigned movement for each of the four major works.

4. CMP Project/Presentation (30 points)
   Each student will select a piece with Dr. Butler’s approval and create a Comprehensive Musicianship Project (CMP). Projects should be around 4-5 pages minimum (double spaced). See CMP examples in D2L for reference. Students will present their work in April. Projects should include at least the following categories:
   I. Music Selection/Composer Background
   II. Analysis
   III. Reasons to perform this composition
   IV. The Heart
   V. Introducing the piece
   VI. Outcomes/Strategies/Assessments
      a. Skill
      b. Knowledge
      c. Affective

5. 6 Listening Reflections/6 Responses (10 points each; 120 points total)
   Each student should select 6 pieces of varying difficulty and write at least 3-5 sentences about each piece in the D2L forum for that week. Responses should include the composition’s educational value, challenges (e.g., circular breathing, excessive range demands, etc.), anything else you feel pertinent, and provide a link for your peers to listen. These reflections are due every other week by Friday night at midnight. During the in-between weeks, students will respond listen and respond to at least 3 peers’ posts with constructive dialogue. Responses will also be due Friday night at midnight.

6. 4 Conducting Reflections (10 points each; 40 points total)
   Students are to video record their conducting sessions and write one paragraph (Using D2L) discussing the pros and cons of your performance. What can you do to better facilitate greater ensemble performance traits (i.e., expression, tempo, etc.)?

7. Basic Maps & Information (10 points each; 40 points total)
   Submit a basic phrasal and thematic structural map of the assigned movement for the four main conducting sessions. Information about the composer and piece should accompany this map. These are due via email to Dr. Butler the Thursday of score reading sessions.

8. 3 Quizzes (43 points total)
   Demonstrate knowledge of instrument transposition and key signatures.

9. Final exam: Analysis of the composition and conducting Symphonic Wind Ensemble (SWE) in one of the following works on Monday, May 8 and Tuesday, May 9. String students will conduct the Orchestra on Monday, May 8. (25 points for analysis, 25 for conducting)
   a. Bizet L’Arlésienne Suite No. 2 (choose one movement)
   b. Grieg Peer Gynt Suite No. 1 (choose one movement)
   c. Holst First Suite in E-Flat (choose one movement)
   d. Holst Second Suite in F (choose one movement)

Attendance Policy
You may miss 2 classes for whatever reason necessary, so save them for illness or trips. (Note: There are NO make-ups for missed in-class conducting sessions. If you are absent for your assigned session, you will be given the opportunity to write a 5-page paper on a topic assigned by Professor Butler). Two tardy days = one absence. Please be on time so not to interrupt any student presentations. Perfect Attendance means no absences or tardies.

Electronic Devices
All cell phones and electronic devices should be turned off before entering the classroom.

Students with disabilities
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal law requiring educational institutions to provide reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities. For more information about UWSP’s policies, check here: http://www.uwsp.edu/disability/Pages/faculty/lawAndPolicy.aspx.

If you have a disability and require classroom and/or exam accommodations, please register with the Disability and Assistive Technology Center at the beginning of the course and then contact me. I am happy to help in any way that I can. For more information, please visit the Disability and Assistive Technology Center, located on the 6th floor of the Learning Resource Center (the Library).
