THERON B. PRAY

- First president of the Stevens Point Normal School.
- President Pray came to Stevens Point in May 1894 and worked all summer amid the confusion and noise of construction as Old Main was completed.
- When the doors opened on September 17, 1894, he welcomed 201 students.

JOHN FRANCIS SIMS

- Became second president of Stevens Point Normal School in 1906.
- President Sims was steadfast in his sympathies for the individual and was well-loved by many faculty and students.
- During his tenure, the normal school won the right to become the chief agency in the education of teachers for both grade and high schools.
- He played a national role in the fight to prohibit child labor and in the movement to improve rural education.
