HERBERT R. STEINER

- Herbert Steiner was a 1910 graduate of Stevens Point Normal School.
- He returned to his alma mater in 1919 to teach in the history department where he served as chairman.
- Mr. Steiner was active in the community in civic organizations and in athletics at the high school level.
- For many years he was a member of the rules committee of the Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association.
- He was described by others as possessing a rare gift of humor, always having an open door to his students, and he was noted for the drama of his classroom lectures.
