

Upward Bound Program University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point

PARENT/STUDENT CONTRACT RENEWAL

I understand that Upward Bound is a year-round intensive educational/skill-building and college readiness program. I, as a student, am expected to make an honest and sincere effort to improve my academic skills, participate in activities and be considerate of others. I abide by all Upward Bound rules, regulations, policies, and Code of Conduct as well as cooperate with the Upward Bound staff by complying with any request asked of me.

As a member of the Upward Bound Program, I agree to all items listed below. I fully understand violation of any of these items may result in disciplinary action and possible dismissal from the Upward Bound program.

1. Attend scheduled school meetings with Upward Bound Staff.
2. Participate in the annual summer session.
3. Use online tutoring service or attend in-person tutorial sessions when required.
4. Attend Fall and Spring Workshops.
5. Participate in (school year) College Campus Visits when eligible.
6. Participate in Parent/Participant Workshops - each year (parents).
7. Exhibit motivation towards schoolwork and preparation for college.
8. Maintain at least a 2.50 overall grade point average.

UW-Stevens Point Nondiscrimination Statement: It is the policy of the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point and the Upward Bound Program to: Foster an environment of respect for the dignity and worth of all students, employees, and guests of the university; Provide an environment which is conducive to the free and open exchange of ideas; and Strive to eliminate bias, prejudice, discrimination, and harassment in all forms and manifestations.

Discrimination based on an individual's age, race, color, religion, sex, gender identity or expression, national origin, ancestry, marital status, pregnancy, parental status, sexual orientation, disability, political affiliation, arrest or conviction record, membership in the National Guard, state defense force or any other reserve component of the military forces of the United States or this state, or other protected class status is demeaning to all students, employees, and guests; impairs the process of education; and violates individual rights.

As a parent/guardian I understand that Upward Bound is a year-round intensive educational/skill-building and college readiness program. I, as a parent/guardian, acknowledge that my child is expected to make an honest and sincere effort to improve his/her academic skills, participate in activities and be considerate of others. I will cooperate with the Upward Bound staff by complying with any request as best as I am able. Parents are expected to attend events, as explained.

I have read the “Upward Bound Rules and Policies” and acknowledge my child has read them and agreed to follow them.

As a parent/guardian of an Upward Bound Program participant I acknowledge that my child has agreed to all items listed above. I fully understand violation of any of these items may result in disciplinary action and possible dismissal from the Upward Bound program.

Notice Regarding Collection of Health History Information

UW-Stevens Point will continue utilizing the secure online platform CampDocs.com to store students’ health information and authorizations. All current Upward Bound participants now have an existing profile in CampDocs.com. For 2023, parents/guardians only need to log in to their CampDocs.com account (parents who may have completed a paper health history last year will need to create a CampDocs.com login and password -- see instructions) and register their student(s) for Upward Bound’s 2023 “sessions” and update their student’s healthy history and/or medications, if applicable. Instructions in how to register your student for UB’s 2023 sessions in CampDocs.com and how to update your student’s health history are enclosed. Please note that health history information will need to be updated in CampDocs.com for all Upward Bound students, regardless of whether they plan to participate in the 2023 summer session.
