Major Map 2024

YOUR COURSE JOURNEY
- Explore the major through Educ 205 field experience
- Attend a teaching intent meeting
- Attend a graduation plan meeting
- Decide what you want to do with your elective credits
- Maintain overall GPA of 2.60 (required to apply to Professional Education Program)

KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS
- Take relevant General Education Program (GEP) courses
- Earn grade of B- or better in ENGL 101 or 150
- Ask for help from the Tutoring Learning Center (TLC) and your professors if you wish to improve in your courses
- Apply for scholarships to support your educational career funding

ACT LOCALLY AND GLOBALLY
- Join a student organization to connect with others: Aspiring Educators, SHAPER
- Look into study abroad programs

CAREER READINESS
- Look into campus jobs using Quest
- Seek out volunteer and job opportunities working with children/youth (YMCA, Boys and Girls Club, coaching, etc.)
- Create a college resume

GETTING STARTED
- Apply to Professional Education Program (PEP) after 24 credits are earned
- Meet with your adviser to review your graduation plan

MAKING PROGRESS
- Maintain 2.75 or higher GPA—Overall, teaching majors and minors
- Follow graduation plan
- Continue membership in student organizations in major field
- Check out Campus Activities and Student Engagement (CASE) on the UWSP website for ways to get involved on campus

PREPARING FOR WHAT’S NEXT
- Student teach your last semester
- Apply for graduation
- 3.00 GPA or higher OR pass Praxis for licensure

- Continue membership in student organizations in major field
- Join a professional association

MAJOR MAP 2024

YOUR COURSE JOURNEY

- Explore the major through Educ 205 field experience
- Attend a teaching intent meeting
- Attend a graduation plan meeting
- Decide what you want to do with your elective credits
- Maintain overall GPA of 2.60 (required to apply to Professional Education Program)

KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS

- Take relevant General Education Program (GEP) courses
- Earn grade of B- or better in ENGL 101 or 150
- Ask for help from the Tutoring Learning Center (TLC) and your professors if you wish to improve in your courses
- Apply for scholarships to support your educational career funding

ACT LOCALLY AND GLOBALLY

- Join a student organization to connect with others: Aspiring Educators, SHAPER
- Look into study abroad programs

CAREER READINESS

- Look into campus jobs using Quest
- Seek out volunteer and job opportunities working with children/youth (YMCA, Boys and Girls Club, coaching, etc.)
- Create a college resume

GETTING STARTED

- Apply to Professional Education Program (PEP) after 24 credits are earned
- Meet with your adviser to review your graduation plan

MAKING PROGRESS

- Maintain 2.75 or higher GPA—Overall, teaching majors and minors
- Follow graduation plan
- Continue membership in student organizations in major field
- Check out Campus Activities and Student Engagement (CASE) on the UWSP website for ways to get involved on campus

PREPARING FOR WHAT’S NEXT

- Student teach your last semester
- Apply for graduation
- 3.00 GPA or higher OR pass Praxis for licensure

- Continue membership in student organizations in major field
- Join a professional association

AVAILABLE ONLINE

Major Map documents are available online with additional information!