LEAD Community Experience
⌂ Burroughs Hall

In partnership with the Diversity and College Access (DCA) Office, the LEAD community was created specifically for students who have been accepted into the LEAD program through the application process. This community is intended to encourage community engagement and belonging, mentorship, career development, and personal development.

WELCOME HOME!

LEADERSHIP, EMPOWERMENT, AND DISCOVERY STUDENTS

IN THIS COMMUNITY, WE ARE EXPECTED TO:

- Be admitted into the LEAD program through the application process set forth by the Diversity and College Access (DCA) Office.
- Attend at least 3 events per semester coordinated by peer mentors, the residence hall team, LEAD program, and DCA Office.
- Attend at least 3 peer mentor meetings per semester.
- Create a resume and have a Handshake account with professional photo.
- Engage in the LEAD community experience constructively, contributing to a supportive environment that fosters the success and well-being of all its members.
